U. S. INDICTS 55 DRAFT ENEMIES

Grand Jury Charges Military Organization to Defeat Registration.

Dallas, Tex., June 12.—Fifty-five persons, mostly members of the farmers' and laborers' protective association, were charged with seditious conspiracy against the United States government in indictments by a federal grand jury. Federal authorities here stated the indictments, which contain seven counts, were probably the most comprehensive ever returned in the United States. A separate indictment was returned against W. A. Bergfeldt, member of the farmers' and laborers' protective association, charging him with threatening the life of President Wilson. Bergfeldt until his recent arrest, was a rural mail carrier at Haskell, Tex. The indictment alleges the defendants conspired to oppose by force the authority of the United States in raising an army, and that in a certain section of Texas, a man who is named in the indictment, organized and drilled a company of men in military formation with the intention of using force to defeat the selective draft bill. All those indicted and other persons in various sections of the state, another count recites, armed themselves and prepared in various ways to oppose officers and agents of the government. To Destroy Property. It is alleged that the men indicted conspired to destroy railroad tracks and bridges as well as telegraph and other means between the United States and Germany. United States Attorney Wilmot M. Odell stated tonight that today's indictments were against leaders of the farmers' and laborers' protective association, which, he said, was organized to oppose conscription. Many additional indictments, he said, could be expected by grand juries in various localities against individual members of that organization. IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Mr. Waterman is building a very neat house on the corner of Eighth and Elm street for George Leving to live in.

Mr. Wainscot has moved his house from the corner of Mr. Fitzgerald's forty further south, the other side of the road, and is having Peter Bates fix it all up good as new.

We are pained to learn that Geo. Vallery was obliged to have two fingers amputated last Sunday morning. The injury to the hand is very severe and great care will have to be taken yet to save it.

The Cass County Chronicle has at length changed hands. Mr. M. W. Thomas, lately of the Red Cloud Chief, having purchased it of Messrs. Fox and Glover, who retire from the newspaper business with pleasure.

His Honor Judge Proud granted a divorce on Tuesday evening to Mrs. Colarcher, wife of Frank Colarcher, with the custody of their little girl, aged about 3 years. This Frank Colarcher is the person who is now and has been for four months past in our jail, for cruelty to his wife.

The celebrated Bull case of Stall vs. Stall came up last week. As Mr. Pottenger was questioning one of the young Stall boys, he asked: "Now, my boy, I want you to tell me just how this bull came at the horse when he killed him? "Come at him endways, how'd you suppose he'd come"—says the boy, and "Pet" changed the subject.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buttery held their silver wedding anniversary on Friday evening, December 7.

A very pleasant evening it was, too, and "muchly" enjoyed by everyone there. The presents were very handsome, being a constant reminder of the silver period of our and their existence. The dollar of our daddies, was here spread out and rolled around and passed over into such things as a syrup cup, spoon holder, a butter dish, pickle dishes, sets of forks, of spoons, napkin rings, silver salt cellars, photograph frames, sugar spoons, butter knives, etc.

The Herald especially wishes and hopes that the happy couple may live wedding, if not in Plattsmouth, in some other place; and that all their friends may gather round them, and may the cheer be as good, the weather as mild and the fun as joyous as on this "auspicious" occasion.

BURGESS-NASH TEAM TO PLAY HERE NEXT SUNDAY

The Burgess-Nash base ball team of Omaha will be here Sunday to take on the Red Sox for the weekly exhibition of the great national pastime. This team is one of the leading teams in the metropolis and has made a great showing so far this season. In the lineup are a number of the fast players of the big city. The management of the Red Sox has the promise of several new faces to be in the lineup for Sunday, and a red-hot game may be looked for by the fans and one that will be greatly enjoyed by the followers of the sport. It will be a close contest as both teams are preparing for a real base ball game.

CASS COUNTY MONUMENT WORKS TO BE ESTABLISHED

The Cass County monument works is a new line of business that is to be launched in this city at once, and which will be located in the Hotel Riley Block, with Mr. W. T. Wassell as local manager. Mr. Wassell was in the city yesterday looking over the prospects for locating and to secure a suitable house for his family. The Cass County monument works will maintain an office here and will in time, as the business conditions warrant, place a part of the actual cutting works here to prepare the monuments for the residents of this locality. Mr. Wassell, who will have charge of the office, is a very pleasant gentleman and one whom it will be a pleasure to do business with, and who will see that the Cass county people are treated right all the time.

FOUR OUT OF SEVEN MILLION EXEMPT, FIGURES INDICATE

Washington, D. C., June 12.—War registrations in tonight from thirty-seven states indicated when all states reported the total enrollment will exceed census report, deducting the 600,000 men now in military and naval service not required to register. Estimates place the total registration at 9,500,000, more than 90 per cent of the census estimate of 10,298,000. Deductions indicated by the war department would reduce the census estimate 12 per cent, or to a little more than 9,000,000.

With eleven more states to report, war department records showed tonight that 7,129,308 have registered, as compared with census estimates of 7,773,467. Indicated possible exemptions were 4,111,453.

GREEK KING ABDICATES HIS THRONE

Change Fellows After Long Controversy, in Favor of Second Son, Prince Alexander.

TO LEAVE FOR SWITZERLAND

Athens (Via Paris), June 12.—The fall of Constantine I, king of the Hellenes, has come. In response to the demand of the protecting powers, France, Great Britain and Russia, the king abdicated today in favor of his second son, Prince Alexander. This climax in the affairs of Greece was brought about through the agency of the French senator, M. Jonnart, who has held posts in several French cabinets, and who arrived at Athens only a day or two ago on a special mission as the representative of France, Great Britain and Russia. M. Jonnart had previously visited Saloniki and other points. He lost no time in getting into conference with the Greek premier, Alexander Zaimis.

The demands of the powers respecting the abdication of King Constantine also specifically eliminated Crown Prince George as his successor, the crown prince being included among those Greeks in official life who were considered strongly pro-German. Both to Leave Greece. The former king and Prince George, it was announced today by Premier Zaimis, intend to leave the country immediately. It is reported that they will embark on a British warship and proceed to Switzerland by way of Italy.

It is presumed Prince Alexander will take up his kingly duties with full acceptance of the ideas which the protecting powers desire to be put into effect in the government of Greece during the present war. He is 24 years of age and has been free from anti-entente proclivities. Affairs in Greece, which several times since the outbreak of the war had seemed on the verge of settlement, recently have taken on such an aspect of uncertainty that it became necessary for the powers to act with decision.

M. Jonnart was selected to proceed to Athens for the purpose of laying before the premier the aims of France, Great Britain and Russia with respect to establishing unity of feeling among the Greeks and greater security for the entente forces engaged in operations in the east. His Reign Short. The reign of Constantine I as king of the Hellenes was brief, dating only from March 18, 1913, when his father, George I, was assassinated in Saloniki. Brief as the reign was, Constantine had enjoyed prior to the beginning of the great war in 1914, a period of remarkable popularity and had increased the territory of the Greek monarchy by over 50 per cent. His attitude of opposition toward the entente powers when their troops occupied part of the Greek territory in the Macedonia campaign against the Teutonic allies, however, brought him into conflict with the statesmen of Greece and resulted in the establishment of a provisional government headed by Eleftherios Venizelos, whom the king had driven from the post of premier. Throughout a long series of negotiations and conflict with the entente commanders, Constantine was often accused of being pro-German in sympathies, largely, it was charged, as a result of the influence of Queen Sophia, sister of the German emperor, whom he married in 1889. Constantine declared throughout that he desired only to maintain neutrality and that he was actuated not by pro-German sympathies, but by considerations of the welfare of the Greeks. He informed the premier that troops had been placed at his disposal, but appealed to that official to use his influence toward a peaceful settlement. The troops, according to M. Jonnart's instructions, were not to land until the king had given his answer.

SUFFERS SLIGHT INJURY.

Charles C. Janda, one of the car-enters in the Burlington coach shop, this morning had the ring finger of the left hand quite badly mashed as he was engaged in driving some bolts out of a board. The finger was caught by a part of the diaphragm and mashed in a severe manner, but nothing at all serious.

Attention Auto Buyer

with present conditions at the various factories existing and the scarcity of freight cars in which to transfer autos, it is a cold fact that a great many buyers will be disappointed at the inability of agents to secure cars with which to fill orders already sold. We anticipated this condition early and bought a supply of cars of both "Studebaker" and "Maxwell" autos and can make immediate delivery to you. Think this matter over carefully and call on us or write and we will be pleased to give you a demonstration of either make.

There is a raise in price of both makes which we can avoid if you will act quickly. Subject to stock on hand Studebaker 6-50, f. o. b. Detroit.....$1,250.00 Maxwell 4-40, f. o. b. Detroit..... 940.00 Maxwell 4-30, f. o. b. Detroit..... 635.00
