

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

Women Are Businesslike

Statistics show that the number of women depositors is rapidly increasing.

We realize that women today are a big figure in the business world.

We pay special attention to their accounts.

Courteous tellers and clerks will gladly explain anything women want to know in the banking line.

Four per cent interest on time deposits.

Our deposits are protected by the State Guaranty Law.

MURRAY STATE BANK

She will also assist Mrs. Berger in the hotel work.

Charles Boecker was looking after some business matters in Omaha Tuesday.

Harry Baxter traded his old Mason car to L. H. Puls for a Regal.

Minford & Creamer shipped a car of cattle to the South Omaha market Tuesday evening.

Frank Davis shipped three cars of cattle to the South Omaha market Tuesday evening.

W. A. Scott was looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday afternoon.

Murray was well represented at the dedication services of the Baptist church in Union last Sunday.

G. M. Minford and Frank Davis autoed to Omaha Tuesday, where they had stock on the market that day.

Corn is rolling into the Murray elevators quite rapidly at this time. The price of $1.53 per bushel makes the farmers all want to sell.

Miss Veronica Berger, of Nebraska City, arrived in Murray this week and will make her home for the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berger. She will also assist Mrs. Berger in the hotel work.

The regular annual school meeting was held in District No. 7 on Monday evening of this week. Frank Little was re-elected treasurer and the regular annual business of the district was looked after.

The Murray annual school meeting was held on Monday evening of this week, at which time the annual levy was made, re-elected W. G. Boecker treasurer and transacted such other business as came before the meeting.

Lee Farris was delivering corn to the Murray elevators Tuesday.

John Vanhorn and John Hobbschmidt were Union visitors Tuesday evening.

Will Oliver and wife were Plattsouth visitors last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Margery Walker was visiting with Plattsouth friends Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. R. Queen, of Plattsouth, Sundayed with relatives and friends in Union.

H. C. Creamer was on the South Omaha market with a car of stock Wednesday.

Sunday, June 24, services at the Lewiston church in the afternoon. Everybody invited.

Miss Henrietta Creamer was attending the carnival in Plattsouth Monday evening.

Will Renner has been shelling and delivering his corn to the Murray market this week.

R. R. Nickels has been suffering for the past week with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Grandma Midkiff, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is reported some better.

Misses Pauline and Fay Oldham were visiting with Plattsouth friends last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pitman will soon leave for California, where they will spend the summer.

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Will Homan have been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Miss Gertrude Long has been appointed librarian of the Murray Public Library for the coming year.

Miss Mae Loughridge will leave the first of the week for Lincoln, where she will take up her studies in music.

Mrs. Pearl Cline and family, of Plattsouth, spent a few days this week with her sister, Mrs. Fannie Pace.

Mrs. Ed Leach, who has been in Omaha for the past month receiving treatment for her eyes, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Puls made an auto trip to Omaha Tuesday, where Mr. Puls had some matters of business to look after.

William Puls, sr., Misses Laura Puls, Eva LaRue and Ophelia Baker were visiting with county seat friends last Saturday afternoon.

A. L. Baker, Miss Ophelia Baker, Miss Laura Puls and Miss Eva LaRue were attending the carnival in Plattsouth Monday evening.

Fred Condon was in Omaha Friday consulting with a specialist regarding stomach trouble, from which he has been complaining for the past few weeks.

Lee Nickels and sister, Miss Etta, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crunk and daughter, attended the dedication services of the new Baptist church in Union last Sunday.

W. P. Hutchinson and family, Mrs. Joe Sans and family, Walter Sans and wife, and Will Oliver and wife attended the dedication of the new Baptist church in Union last Sunday.

The social dance given at the Puls & Gansemier hall last Saturday evening, after the moving picture show, was quite well attended and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Joseph Deitl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deitl, who fell from an automobile last week and received a broken arm, was taken to the hospital in Omaha Sunday, where he will receive treatment. His condition does not seem to improve as rapidly as desired.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

George Oldham was visiting with Murray friends last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith were visiting with friends in Lincoln last Sunday.

Grandpa Davis has not been so well for the past few days.

Miss Grace Porter has been quite sick for the past few days.

John Neell and family were visiting in Weeping Water Tuesday.

E. S. Tutt was a Plattsouth visitor Monday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Kennedy entertained a number of friends at dinner last Sunday.

Dr. Gilmore was looking after professional business in Union Tuesday.

Young & Scotten are carpentering this week at the George Lloyd home.

Will Oliver and wife were Plattsouth visitors last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Margery Walker was visiting with Plattsouth friends Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. R. Queen, of Plattsouth, Sundayed with relatives and friends in Union.

Mrs. Roy Burton, who has been in a very critical condition for the past few days, was taken to the hospital in Nebraska City last Sunday, where she will receive treatment. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. W. Berger and Mrs. Bartlett will open an ice cream parlor at the hotel dining room on June 1, and will serve ice cream from Thursday to Sunday night of each week during the season. Your patronage is solicited and will be appreciated.

W. F. Moore was an Omaha visitor Monday.

Charles Tucker is sporting a new Ford car this week.

Lee and George Nickels were Union visitors Sunday afternoon.

Corn shelling is in order in and near Murray for the past few days.

Mrs. Ed Rigg and Miss Pearl Duey visited Union relatives Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Sans and family visited Charles Garrison and family Sunday.

Philip Keil was looking after some business matters in and near Huron, S. D., last week.

George Nickels and Gertrude Long were visiting friends in Plattsouth last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Leach, who is in Omaha, having her eyes treated, is reported as very little improved.

James Hobscheidt, sr., and wife are spending a few days this week with Johnny Hobscheidt and family.

John Hendricks and family and Joe Hathaway and wife spent Sunday with Jarvis Lancaster and family near Lancaster.

Mrs. Roy Burton, who has been in a very critical condition for the past few days, was taken to the hospital in Nebraska City last Sunday, where she will receive treatment. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. W. Berger and Mrs. Bartlett will open an ice cream parlor at the hotel dining room on June 1, and will serve ice cream from Thursday to Sunday night of each week during the season. Your patronage is solicited and will be appreciated.

Grandma Midkiff, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is reported some better.

Misses Pauline and Fay Oldham were visiting with Plattsouth friends last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pitman will soon leave for California, where they will spend the summer.

The pleasant Murray home of Mr. and Mrs. William Puls, sr., was the scene of a very enjoyable occasion last Sunday, at which time Mr. Puls had reached his seventy-fourth milestone in life, and this eventful year was duly celebrated by the gathering of all the sons and daughters and their families under the parental roof to spend the day. In addition to the family there were a number of friends in attendance, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Meisinger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Engelkemeir and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engelkemeir and family.

Miss Mae Loughridge will leave the first of the week for Lincoln, where she will take up her studies in music.

Mrs. Pearl Cline and family, of Plattsouth, spent a few days this week with her sister, Mrs. Fannie Pace.

Mrs. Ed Leach, who has been in Omaha for the past month receiving treatment for her eyes, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Puls made an auto trip to Omaha Tuesday, where Mr. Puls had some matters of business to look after.

William Puls, sr., Misses Laura Puls, Eva LaRue and Ophelia Baker were visiting with county seat friends last Saturday afternoon.

A. L. Baker, Miss Ophelia Baker, Miss Laura Puls and Miss Eva LaRue were attending the carnival in Plattsouth Monday evening.

Fred Condon was in Omaha Friday consulting with a specialist regarding stomach trouble, from which he has been complaining for the past few weeks.

Lee Nickels and sister, Miss Etta, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crunk and daughter, attended the dedication services of the new Baptist church in Union last Sunday.

W. P. Hutchinson and family, Mrs. Joe Sans and family, Walter Sans and wife, and Will Oliver and wife attended the dedication of the new Baptist church in Union last Sunday.

The social dance given at the Puls & Gansemier hall last Saturday evening, after the moving picture show, was quite well attended and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Joseph Deitl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deitl, who fell from an automobile last week and received a broken arm, was taken to the hospital in Omaha Sunday, where he will receive treatment. His condition does not seem to improve as rapidly as desired.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near Imperial, Neb., has been here for the past few days loading up his threshing outfit that will be shipped to Imperial to assist in looking after the wheat crop this harvest in Chase County. Mr. Spitt says that small grain in Chase county is looking fine at this season and they are expecting a good crop. He is well pleased with his new home. He started west in his Ford car Wednesday morning.

William Spitt, of near