John Bauer*RUSSIAN TROOPS DOWN MUTINEERS OF 3 REGIMENTS

Mutiny is Quelled When Loyal Soldiers Are Ordered into Action Against the Rebels.

Petrograd, June 12.—(Via London.)—The forces in the army at the front which are loyal to the provisional government have had their first test of strength with disloyal pacifists and have won a notable victory.

Two days ago Lieutenant General Stecherbatchev, commander on the Roumanian front, gave an order to disband one infantry, one Tirailleur, and one Siberian Tirailleur regiment, all of which were considered useless for fighting purposes.

Three regiments of another division were ordered to take up a new position, but refused to do so, and therefore upon received an order to disband.

Soldiers in Open Mutiny.

The soldiers openly mutinied. The men of one of the regiments arrested the commander and seven officers, tore their badges from their uniforms, and beat two officers, leaving them insensible on the road.

A regimental committee resolved that the regiment should not move; thereupon a loyal committee of soldiers of the whole, after deliberating with the army staff, pronounced for stern measures against the mutineers, the ring leader of whom was named Philipoff.

A resolute general was chosen, having under his command two divisions of loyal cavalry, two battalions of infantry, one light battery, armored motor cars, and airplanes and undertook the task of suppressing the revolt.

When the loyalist general had occupied positions against the mutineers, he sent an ultimatum to them demanding the surrender of the ring leader; that they take up positions as ordered, and that they undertake to serve faithfully in the future.

Mutinous Men Surrender.

The mutinous soldiers, seeing that they were surrounded, attempted to negotiate, but at the last moment Philipoff invited them to new resistance. The loyalist general immediately ordered his guns into action, whereupon the rebels unconditionally accepted the ultimatum and surrendered Philipoff and others, who were taken to prison in an automobile. The loyalist reserve troops became enraged and fired on the automobile, but their commander, in order to save the prisoners' lives, jumped into the machine, whereupon the firing ceased.

NEED MORE MEN TO FILL VACANCIES IN REGULAR ARMY

War Department Calls 70,000 Additional Recruits to Bring Force to War Strength.

Washington, June 12.—The War department today called for 70,000 additional recruits in order to fill the regular army to war strength before June 30.

"The cavalry, engineers, coast artillery, signal corps and quartermaster corps of the regular army have already been brought to war strength," says an official statement.

"Forty-five thousand recruits are needed at once to complete the new regiments of infantry and field artillery. Twenty-five thousand additional recruits are desired at the earliest possible date to fill vacancies in order that the war strength of 300,000 men may be maintained.

Facilities in Readiness.

"Facilities are in readiness for placing these 70,000 men under proper training. Any delay in obtaining this number will necessarily cause the loss of valuable time.

"It is the earnest desire of the War department that 70,000 single men between the ages of 18 and 40, who have no dependents and who are not engaged in professional work, businesses or trades vitally necessary to the prosecution of the war, be enlisted in the regular army before June 30, 917."

HUGE AMERICAN SHIP IN FRENCH PORT WINS MANY PRAISING WORDS

Paris, June 12.—A correspondent of the Journal describes a visit aboard the first American ship of a new type which recently arrived at a French port. He says a steamer which he calls "J" belongs to a class of vessels which accompany the squadron far from its base and are capable of keeping it constantly supplied with food, coal and materials for repairs. The "J" did not come alone, but was accompanied by one of the new boats constructed for the pursuit of submarines.

The "J" brought thousands of tons of wheat flour in miscellaneous cargo, the correspondent says, and a veritable mountain of medicine and surgical dressings. A huge electric crane on the deck keeps unloading the cargo to waiting trains aligned along the quay.

A large number of German and Austrian prisoners assisting in unloading the "J" looked with surprise and saddened faces at the Stars and Stripes waving above this formidable instrument of war which had come so far to insure the defeat of their country.

TO CLAIM BELGIUM IN PERPETUITY IS VON BISSING PLAN

Cruel Purpose of Conqueror Revealed In All Its Boldness in Memorandum.

Royal Family to Be Killed If Necessary—Violation of Helland Hilted At.

Copenhagen, May 23, Via London.

The memorandum of the late Governor-General von Bissing of Belgium, in which he advocated the annexation of the little kingdom as the sole possible policy for Germany, is published in full in Greater Germany, a review issued by Deputy Bachmeister, of the Prussian diet, a national liberal and annexationist.

The unashamed nakedness with which the memorandum calls for the dethronement of the Belgian royal house, the exploitation of Belgian resources, and preparation for a new war to follow the present struggle, shows that the document was never intended for public view.

Dutch Province Bothered Him.

Von Bissing recognizes that Germany can have little hope of making friends of Belgians after this war, warns against "illusions of possible 'reconciliation,'" and calmly counts up the value of booty from Belgium and the advantages of pocketing the country from a military, naval and economic standpoints. He points out that the offensive prosecution of the present war was possible only through the invasion of Belgium and speaks regretfully of the fact that the German right wing was to squeeze laboriously past the Dutch province of Limburg.

Room for Further War.

The memorandum says that the strategic aim of the present war is to gain room for the concentration and advance of German armies in a new war against England and France, and that, without the possession of Belgium, it is doubtful if the new war could be prosecuted on an offensive basis. Discussing the subject of the policy of the "iron hand," Von Bissing laments the mistakes of a vacillating policy of conciliation, as attempted in Alsace-Lorraine and German Poland, and says they must never be repeated in Belgium. He warns against the idea that the establishment of a Flemish state would be adequate to secure German interests, these absolutely requiring the absorption of all present Belgium.

Would Kill King Albert.

According to Von Bissing the absorption of Belgium must not be discussed at any peace conference. "Let only the right of conquest speak," are his words. In the Bissing Belgium there would be no room for King Albert and his dynasty and the memorandum quoted approvingly the advice of Machiavelli; that, under such circumstances, a king or regent should be put out of the way if necessary by death.

Under the Von Bissing scheme Belgian industry is not to be killed entirely, but is to be subjected to such conditions as will permit Germany to use it as a lever for fixing prices on the world market in German interests. In the same way Belgium's coal supply is to give Germany an economic monopoly on the continent.

Von Bissing foresees the necessity for a continuance of his style of dictatorship for many years and says that "reforms introduced must be based on military right."
