A STRENUOUS WEEK PASSED

Tom W. Allen's Shows Did a Good Business and Furnished Much Merriment to Our People. After a week of merriment and mirth the city has resumed its usual grind and the joys of the carnival are only a fond memory to the inhabitants of the city.

The stay of the Allen company in this city has been a very pleasant one both to the members of the shows and to the public, as every one of the people with the carnival company proved to be perfect ladies and gentlemen in every sense of the word, and their departure was much regretted by all those with whom they came in touch.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Yesterday was observed by the I. O. O.
