The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parr Young early the morning of July 4 and left a fine baby girl.

Miss Jeannette Teegarden returned last week from Walla Walla, Wash., where she had attended college the past year.

Ralph Rich left Monday for Wayland, Ia., to look after some repairs on the farm in the way of building a barn, etc. He expects to be gone a couple of months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heneger and son, Lee, autoed to Omaha Monday to be at the hospital when their son, Albert, had his leg amputated. Albert came through the operation very nicely.

Mrs. William Dunn and daughter, Miss Dorothy, and the two boys left this Thursday morning for the ranch in Wyoming, where they will spend the summer. Mrs. Dunn and the older boys are at the ranch.

Albert Ropers, who lives over in the southwest part of Weeping Water precinct, was a business visitor in town Tuesday. He reports having his corn cultivated the second time and also said his neighbor had some very good winter wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colbert and son, Horton, left Tuesday morning in their auto for Guiderock, where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Colbert's sister, Mrs. W. L. Williams. They will visit at other places in the state and probably go as far as Chase county.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Domingo left Friday morning for Sheridan, Wyo., to visit their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Swindle, and family. They will stop at Kearney on their return and visit their daughter, Mrs. H. R. Reed, and husband. They will extend their visit during the hot weather if the climate is agreeable to them.

W. H. Lyman returned Wednesday from a trip to Wisconsin. He was gone just six days, but covered lots of territory and had a very fine trip and an enjoyable visit at the scenes of his boyhood, around Waukesha. Altogether he saw nearly a score of people whom he had known fifty and sixty years ago. The network of interurbans and well-kept oiled auto roads give a system of inter-communication in that section that is wonderful. Other points visited by Mr. Lyman were Milwaukee and Chicago.

Mrs. Blanche Kuehn, of Chappel, Neb., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Evenden and other relatives here.

Mrs. W. T. Hoover, of Omaha, arrived on Tuesday to help care for her mother, Mrs. Henry Miller, who is not very well.

Mrs. Engelking and family and Will Stege and family motored to Cook, Neb., last Sunday to spend the day with Ernest Fesenack and family.

Mrs. Jessie and Mrs. William Roettger, who have been visiting at the Dr. C. R. Trenholm home, left last Friday for points in Kansas, where they will visit for a while.

State Treasurer Hall and family, of Lincoln, motored to Elmwood on Sunday to spend the day visiting with State Democratic Chairman L. F. Langhorst and family.

Rev. Emil Mueller, of Nstrand, Minn., arrived on last Saturday for a visit at the home of H. A. Williams and other friends and relatives.

He is an uncle of Mrs. Williams. William Long, who purchased the Stone garage building, arrived on Monday and has rented the I. M. Ward house in the southeast part of town. He will move his family here from Panama, Neb.

Several here have received word from Ray Preston, our former city drayman, who is now located in Texas, having entered the service of the U. S. He says he is drilling every day and that he is enjoying life fine.

Thomas McCartney, of Grant, Neb., and Henry McCartney, of Central City, Neb., were here several days this week to attend the funeral of their father, James McCartney, Sr., who died Sunday evening. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon.

Ralph Uhley went to Alvo Sunday and brought over his wife and two children for a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Uhley. This is the first visit of their little granddaughter to them and they naturally were very much pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. William Jahn returned on Thursday from their visit of several weeks at Hot Springs, Ark. They report a fine time and Mr. Bailey and Mr. Jahn received benefit from treatment at that resort.

UNION Ledger

O. W. Finney and Harry McCarroll returned to their work at Howe Thursday after a short visit at home. A. W. Propst and Ralph Davis went to Kansas City Thursday, returning Sunday with two new Ford cars. Miss Eva Hathaway left Friday morning for Coleridge where she will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. A. W. Propst returned home from Plattsmouth Monday afternoon, where she visited over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Nicholson and daughter, Margaret, of Jackson, Mississippi, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning the latter part of last week.

Two neighbors had stock killed by lightning June 25th. Mr. E. E. Leach lost a fine Holstein milk cow and John Hobscheidt a fine Jersey heifer. Both parties carried insurance.

Miss May Clinkenbeard, of Des Moines, Iowa, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Lynde, has been sick for a couple of weeks and is now in a critical condition. Her many friends will regret to hear of her illness.

We understand that a well known couple here in Union went to Omaha Wednesday with the intention of getting married, but since it was a legal holiday their success is somewhat doubtful. Here's wishing them the best of luck.

The glorious Fourth was uneventful in Union. Our little city made no effort to celebrate and nearly everyone that could possibly get away left town. Practically all the business places were closed and the town had a Sunday appearance. The auto races at Omaha drew the largest crowd and some were satisfied with spending the day in Plattsmouth.

While downtown stop in and try that fascinating game of bowling.

NEWS.

Professor R. E. Dale and wife are the parents of a baby girl, born a week ago last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Pollard recently returned from a visit to their former home in Vermont.

Obe Miller and Dan Wilson enlisted in the Sixth Nebraska regiment Sunday. They will leave about July 15.

Justin Sturm left Monday for Texas, where he will remain on his father's farm until the fall term of school begins.

Vilas Spohn and wife, of Superior, Neb., were visitors at A. F. Sturm's the latter part of the week and the first of this week.

L. W. Ingwersen, wife and son left Tuesday in their car for Hooper, Colo., where they expect to spend the remainder of the summer on a farm they own there.

George C. Sheldon and wife, accompanied by Mrs. B. Wolph and daughter, Evelyn, and Miss Julia Todd, started overland by automobile Monday for a six weeks visit in New York and Vermont.

Dr. J. W. Thomas was examined in Omaha last week and has been recommended for commission in the Army Medical Corps. He has not yet learned how soon his service will be required.

Miss Florence Jobe, of Boston, Mass., who is in the west visiting friends and relatives, was a guest of Misses Emily Wolph and Elizabeth Rough of this place from Friday until Monday. She left here for Omaha to visit a while in the Nebraska metropolis.

Virgil Kitrell had a lucky escape from injury when returning from St. Joe July 4. He was driving his new Chalmers car, and upon approaching the bridge near the farm of F. L. Nutzman he failed to see the sharp turn in the road in time to make the bridge. His car went over the embankment, but no serious harm was done to either the driver or the car, due to the quick action in applying the brakes.
