KORNILOFF'S MEN DESERT, ADVANCE CHECKED

RUSS GOVERNMENT REPORTS REBEL ARMY'S RETREAT IS CUT OFF

ALL STATEMENTS BY PREMIER

Kerensky Takes Supreme Command of All Military Forces—Iron Hand Will Rule Land.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Premier Kerensky, in assuming supreme command of all the Russian armies, said the "senseless effort at military mutiny by the late commander-in-chief and a small group of generals has ended in complete failure. The mutineers will be delivered to the revolutionary military tribunal."

An understanding has been reached for the co-operation of Kerensky as provisional commander and Grand Duke Alexis as chief of general staff.

While optimism seems to prevail in the provisional government in Russia that a successful issue of the counter-revolution started by General Korniloff will be returned in favor of Premier Kerensky, the situation still remains most acute. All the dispatches from Petrograd at present are emanating from the provisional government or supporters of Kerensky.

Late reports from Petrograd are to the effect that Korniloff's march on Petrograd has been checked and that even his retreat has been cut off by forces faithful to the provisional government, also that there have been further deductions from the ranks of Korniloff and that a great majority of the commanders at the front are still adhering to the government.

Spreads to Moscow. Meanwhile the spirit of unrest seems to have invaded Moscow, where martial law has been declared and government forces are maintaining order.

One of the brightest spots in the situation is the offer to the central committee of the constitutional democratic party to aid in the reconstruction of the cabinet so as to avoid civil war.

Petrograd, Sept. 12th.—Premier Kerensky has assumed the position of commander-in-chief of all the Russian armies until the revolt has been crushed, according to information received.

Vice-President Nekrasoff said the situation could be considered perfectly favorable. All the commanders, with the exception of General Denikine, commander on the western front, who has been arrested, remain faithful to the government.

Psokoff is held by government troops. M. Nekrasoff asserted that it was the opinion of the government that the troops which form the detachment commanded by General Korniloff, were misled, being told that they were to proceed to Petrograd to rid the capital of the Maximalist element.

A Boy's Letter To Brother in France.

Alvo, Nebr., Sept. 2, 1917.

Dear Wilbur:
This is another letter to a boy so far away from home, across the ocean in a land of war dismay.

I am glad you joined the army, though I'd rather have you here, but its best to help ones country when his country needs him worst; and as soon as I am old enough, I want to be the first.

I have tried to join the navy, and thought I guess I'll have to wait. As soon as I am old enough, I guess I'll bite the bait.

Hurrah! for our old country. The country best of all!
Hurrah! for our grand old flag. The flag that cannot fall.

I was just thinking about the time when I was small.

Of how you used to help me, and I used to stand and squall.

I'd like to hear your bugle, and to hear you make a call.

I'd like to see you make a shot, and knock the Kaiser off the wall. With love to you dear brother, I guess that this will do.

Hurrah! for the little bugler, and the red, white and blue. Write soon, as ever,
Your brother,
LEO P. THOMAS.

SHOULD BE PUNISHED.

We wonder what the Lord is going to do with men whom he has blessed with abundant crops and who, when they are approached to give to such worthy cause as the Red Cross, an institution that stands for mercy, refuse to give a cent. We have men in this community, who have thousands of bushels of wheat and oats and excellent prospects for corn and are receiving the highest prices in the history of the country and yet after being blessed so abundantly they refuse to contribute a single cent to comfort our soldier boys who are going to the front to defend the nation they are reaping such blessings from. We hope that when these old spongers pass away, that the preacher, who preaches their funeral will tell the congregation that "here lies an old tight wad who refused to give aid and comfort to the dying boys on the battle field, after the Lord has blessed him with abundance."—Sherman County Times.

Regent Haller's silence since he has been branded a copperhead and charged with writing treasonable letters under a petticoat name, is practically an admission of his guilt. If Haller thinks by his staying out of the state a couple of months this wave of hatred will die out, he is greatly mistaken, his act of running away has only strengthened the net about him which is, as he well knows, one out of which he cannot escape.
