

MANLEY STATE BANK

MANLEY, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $13,000

OFFICERS

FRANK STANDER
AUGUST STANDER
AUGUST PAUTSCH
THOMAS E. PARMELE
WM. J. RAU.

MURRAY STATE BANK

MURRAY, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $15,000

DIRECTORS

CHAS. C. PARMELE, President.
FRED NUTZMAN, Vice-President.
W. GLEN BOEDEKER, Cashier.

BANK OF CASS COUNTY

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $80,000

OFFICERS

CHAS. C. PARMELE
JACOB TRITSCH
THOMAS E. PARMELE
R. F. PATTERSON.
F. G. EGENBERGER

BANK OF COMMERCE

LOUISVILLE, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $23,000

OFFICERS

THOMAS E. PARMELE, President.
CHAS. C. PARMELE, Vice-President
PAUL FITZGERALD, Cashier.
RALPH R. LARSON, Asst. Cashier.

FIRST SECURITY BANK

CEDAR CREEK, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $10,000

OFFICERS

WILLIAM SCHNEIDER, President.
W. H. LOHNES, Vice-President.
THOMAS E. PARMELE, Director.

Our Facilities Enable Us to Handle Your Business in this County Promptly and Economically and on this Basis We Invite Your Patronage.

1,000 Votes FREE ON AUTO CONTEST!

To the boy or girl getting the most votes we will give this fine auto free. (auto on display in our window.) With every 50c cash purchase or received on account, you are entitled to 100 votes. Ask your friends to save these votes for you. This ad is good for 1,000 votes on auto. Only one add will count for each contestant.

HATT'S

—YOUR GROCER AND BUTCHER—

The Nehawka Mills are now Rolling and Manufacturing the "Letter Roll" Flour!

"Letter Roll" Flour needs no boosting, For on the top shelf it now is roosting. The best cooks wherever you go Use this famous flour, you know. They just set their yeast and go to bed, For they know on the morrow they will have good Bread.

J. M.

C. D. ST. JOHN, Prop.
JOE MALCOLM, Head Miller.
For Sale by All Dealers

The 1918 Harley Davidson MOTOR-CYCLE will be on display at

F. G. DAWSON'S

Bicycle Store, on So. 6th Street, Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on Wednesday, Sept. 19th

The latest and greatest motor on the market today.

Victor H. Roos,

—THE CYCLE MAN—

27th and Leavenworth,

Omaha, Neb.

OVER THE COUNTY

LOUISVILLE Courier

Mr. and Mrs. Emmons Davis, of Homer, Ill., arrived last week for a visit with their son, City Clerk H. K. Davis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, of Manley, are at Minneapolis, where they are both having medical treatment, having been in poor health for some time.

Ralph Clifford has moved his family from Yankton, S. D., to Scottsbluff, Neb., where he has secured a position with S. W. Davis in one of his barber shops.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murphy, of Sterling, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. John Kilgore, of near Bayard, Morrill county, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

Mrs. F. S. Echols, of Bluefield, W. Va., arrived Saturday to visit her son, F. H. Nichols and family. On Tuesday they drove to Lincoln to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Will Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Repke and August Gade, of Seward, and Mrs. George Sevringhaus, of Chicago, relatives of Dr. E. H. Worthman, drove in from Seward Sunday to spend the day at the Worthman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dall, of Manley, arrived home Monday from a honeymoon trip to Milwaukee. They will be at home to their friends in Manley after October 1st. The Courier renews congratulations and best wishes.

Burlington Station Agent W. T. Starky is taking a two weeks' vacation and left last Saturday for Colorado, where he will spend several days in the mountains. Relief Agent J. J. Gleason has charge of the station during Mr. Starky's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoth, of Bayard, Morrill county, drove in Thursday in their Buick to visit with Mr. Hoth's sister, Mrs. W. F. Diers and family. They were on their way to Chicago to visit relatives and left on Saturday to continue their journey. Mr. and Mrs. Diers accompanied them as far as Omaha.

F. W. Recker, of near Battle Creek Neb., was in town last week visiting old time friends. Fritz spent his boyhood days in Louisville and enjoys a trip back occasionally. He is a nephew of Mrs. Fred Wegener. He owns a half section of land in Madison county, where he lives, and has 400 acres of land in Keya Paha county. He was a pleasant caller at the Courier office.

WEEPING WATER Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carns, of Nely, Neb., drove down in their car Thursday evening and visited at the Isaac Wiles home. They also visited Troy and Lester Wiles in the country.

Mrs. Roscoe Coleman and three children of Diller, who have been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Spohn and family, left on Tuesday morning for Union to visit before returning home.

Elmer Kepler, southeast of town, who was so seriously injured a number of weeks ago by falling from a load of hay, died at his home Wednesday night. Funeral services will be held Saturday.

W. M. West lost a valuable cow Wednesday on account of the cow getting in the corn field. This is the time of year cattle owners should take great care of their fences as cattle are eager for the corn that will kill them.

Miss Irene Philpot went to Lincoln Tuesday evening to register. She will enter the state university. Her mother, Mrs. Wm. Philpot, has rented a house at Lincoln and will enter her younger children, Marie and Howard, in the grade schools there.

Andrew Olson, who buys another farm each year, completed this year's work last week by buying the old Rhoden 160 acre farm three and one half miles northeast of Murray. Consideration $23,000 which included this year's rental on the farm.

Dan Johnson, one of Weeping Water's old timers, who now lives at Scottsbluff, was visiting old time friends here from Saturday morning until Tuesday evening. Dan had been to the State Fair and he hadn't been in Weeping Water for thirteen years. He came down to see how the old town looked.

Rynard Gilmore left this Thursday morning for Williston, North Dakota, to make his home with his oldest daughter. He went via Union to see his daughter, Bertha, who was married last Friday to Will Stine. Rynard has lots of friends here who will hate to see him go but will hope he will be happy in his new home.

Lowell Swindle fell and broke his arm while playing on the school grounds Friday after school. He was on the teeter board and the boys on the opposite end jumped off letting him fall. One of the students happened to have his horse and buggy nearby, and rushed him to a doctor, where his arm was set. He broke the same arm two years ago.

The husband who skipped out the first of the week leaving a note to the young wife saying, "I am gone, never to return," evidently changed his mind as the wife received a card this (Thursday) morning that he was only fooling and would be home soon. A stunt like this might seem like fun for the husband, but the young wife and other relatives, we imagine fall to see the joke.

NEHAWKA News

Miss Vera Burdick came down from Omaha Monday for a week's visit with home folks.

Henry Algaier drove to Elm Creek last week for a short visit with his brother-in-law, Walter Swartz.

This precinct registered ninety-eight ladies for the Women's Defence League. What is more significant of the loyalty of this community.

A letter received at this office from Rev. W. S. Lynde, states that he arrived safely with his emigrant car at Lemolins, Nebraska, and all are enjoying usual health.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sterling, returned to their home in McComb, Mississippi last Wednesday, after spending the spring and summer months with their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Hadley north of town.

George A. Hobson, who was raised in this community, but left about thirty years ago and has since lived at Fairfield, Nebraska, was here Wednesday renewing old friends and acquaintances.

The Misses Grace, Louise and Doris Vallery of Murray, antoed through here Tuesday enroute to Lincoln, where Miss Doris entered University. Their sister, Mrs. F. R. Cunningham accompanied them to Lincoln.

Not all the card parties in this town are held in the parlors of the elite. Considerable gambling is said to be going on at times, and the annual crap games so common here each fall, will be on with the opening of the game season. Whose duty is it? etc., etc.

E. E. Hadley who made a ten days trip to the zark country in Missouri, returned home the latter part of last week. His mother, who lives there returned with him for a visit with the family here. Mr. Hadley made the trip in his Ford, and says this noted country has made wonderful improvements since he last visited it a number of years since.

EAGLE Beacon

Mr. and Mrs. Gott have returned to Omaha, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Judge Peterson, and wife.

The picnic passed without a hitch. Everybody seemed to enjoy the event and look forward to 1918 for another.

Our marshal caught another speeder last week. He stepped up to Judge Vanlandingham's office and liquidated for the luxury.

Saunders Vanlandingham and wife of Alliance visited his parents here over Sunday. Mrs. Vanlandingham is still here, but Saunders had to resume his duties on the road.

Mrs. T. R. Adams returned a few days ago from the sick bed of her daughter, Mrs. Flora Manker, of Lincoln. The latest reports are that Mrs. Manker is not feeling quite so well.

S. H. Robylier and wife of Erickson, Harley C. Robylier of Grand Island, visited the latter part of last week at the home of their uncle, S. D. Robylier and family in Eagle. The reunion of these families was much enjoyed.

Miss Irva Barbre, of Springfield, Ore., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Rivett, the past five months, departed for her western home Tuesday. A. M. Trumble and Mrs. James Rivett accompanied Miss Barbre as far as Lincoln on her way home.

Sergeant Henry Renner arrived Wednesday from San Antonio, Texas, on a ten days' furlough, which expires on the 18th instant. He took his parents and friends by surprise. Since his entry into the service at San Antonio he has been promoted to the position of Sergeant of the 64th Aerial Squadron.

Charles C. Price, one of Eagle's prominent business men, died at his home in this city at 5:40 p. m. Monday. While he had been suffering from a stroke of apoplexy which attacked him about a year ago, his demise at this time was unexpected. He was sitting on his porch in cheerful converse a short time prior to the final summons.

UNION Ledger

Ray Hawkins was visiting relatives in Omaha Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Osborne Thursday, a boy.

W. B. Banning left on the midnight train Monday for Kansas City, Missouri on a short business trip.

Mrs. J. W. Pitman went to Weeping Water Saturday for a short visit with her daughter Miss Josie Pitman.

Miss Florence Pitman left for Nebraska City Monday morning where she will resume her studies at the St. Bernard Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Anderson who have been visiting the past week with relatives, returned to Omaha Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Adeline Bischoff of Nebraska City came to Union Sunday afternoon to begin her duties in the schools the following day.

Mrs. Wm. McCarroll returned home Saturday from Coleridge, Nebraska where she had been visiting for a week with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Beile Frans, who has been living several miles southwest of Union, moved to town last week so her daughter Eula could attend high school here.

Miss Ida Reynolds one of last springs graduates, was accompanied to Peru Monday, via auto, by J. T. Reynolds and wife and Miss Mable Reynolds, where she will continue her studies in preparing herself for high school teaching.

Eugene Roddy left Sunday beginning his vacation from his duties at the bank. In Omaha he left for Newport News, Va., with a consignment of horses for the Government which was purchased by his father. He intends to be absent several days and spend most of his time in the east.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

G. G. Meisinger and wife of Plattsmouth came up on Sunday to visit his brother-in-law George H. Stoehr, returning the same day.

Miss Wilma Cook, graduate of the class of 1917, is teaching near Mynard this year. This is her first year and she will make fine success of her work.

Chas. Clapp disposed of his building east of Alford Bros., store to a gentleman from Yutan. He will open up a soft drink parlor in the building in the near future.

Ed. Gustin sold an 80 acre farm near Alvo belonging to Jacob Froley to Dr. G. G. Douglas, of Courtland, Neb., last week. The price paid per acre was $152.50.

F. A. Raker of Imperial, Neb., came to Omaha Wednesday to get a couple of autos. He came down to Elmwood and spent Wednesday night at the Henry Miller home.

Miss Henry Miller is again confined to her bed on account of sickness. She is now past seventy-four years of age. Her daughter, Mrs. Underhill, of Lincoln is here caring for her.

Loren Parish who was quite badly injured several weeks ago when two autos collided was able to be about again on Monday but it will be a week or so yet before he can do much work.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meisinger and daughters, Laura, Matilda and son, Leonard came up Sunday on a visit to George H. Stoehr and wife of this place, returning to Plattsmouth the same day.

Adele, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pennterman was operated upon on Tuesday for removal of her tonsils at Lincoln. The little one underwent the operation very well and at present is doing nicely.

A fine girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bornemier on August 31, 1917. In some way this item was not reported for last week's issue but nevertheless it is not to late for congratulations which the proud parents have from their many friends.

On Monday Ray D. Fentiman, Chas. Fleischman, Bert Reber and Otto Fleischman were in South Omaha and purchased a car load of cattle a piece, which they shipped to this place and took to their farms where they will feed them this winter. They all had good stuff.

Experience the Best Teacher.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.

WHEN IN OMAHA VISIT THE Gayety "Omaha's Fun Centre"
Brand New Show Every Week..... MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA
Clean, Classy Entertainment. Everybody Goes; Ask Anybody. LADIES DIME MATINEE DAILY
DON'T GO HOME SAYING: I DIDN'T VISIT THE GAYETY

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold wrapper. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist, Ask for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS. For 25 years known as Best. Sold Everywhere. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

-PEACHES!

Our Carload of Fancy

Elberta Peaches

will be due here on or before

SEPTEMBER 25th

We will beliver same out of car at $2.40 per bushel.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN

Telephones 53 and 54