UNION Ledger

Jessie Applegate left school Wednesday. She and her mother are moving to Lincoln, where Jessie will attend the Lincoln High school.

Mrs. W. M. Barritt was the first in Union to register. Mrs. D. W. Foster was the oldest and Miss Dorothy Hall the youngest to register.

Mrs. W. S. Smith, of Murray, and Mrs. Will Royal of Plainview, Nebraska, were here visiting with Mrs. Jennie Frans the latter part of last week.

Joe Lindsay purchased eighty acres of land just south of Nebraska City last week, paying $200 per acre for it. This seems to be a good price as there were no improvements on the farm.

Miss Carrie Banning is seriously ill with appendicitis and a nurse was called Monday to attend her. From the last reports her condition was improving and it is hoped that she will continue to do so.

L. J. Hall and R. A. Smith left on Friday afternoon for Rapid City, So. Dakota, where they went to look after a number of horses they have at that place. They also expect to buy more while they are gone.

Mrs. Let Farris, who has been visiting the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. F. Harris, returned to her home in Beatrice on last Tuesday afternoon. She was accompanied by Miss Verna Harris, who will visit there the following week.

Ray Frans will soon have the reputation as a wholesale dealer if he can continue to handle property the way he did Monday. He purchased the Chas. Niday property now occupied by Dr. Huston and family and sold it the same day to Mrs. Belle Frans.

Tuesday morning Dan Lynn and wife, W. A. Taylor and wife and John Lidgett and wife took the train going south to spend a week or ten days sightseeing in Kansas City and other southern points. This is merely a pleasure trip with no business at all to interfere.

Miss Jessie Todd, chairman of the committee for the ladies registration held last Wednesday, reports 165 as having registered in this precinct. Of this number $9 registered in this district. These figures make a good showing for the ladies of this precinct who placed their names on the registration list.

NEHAWKA News

Gust Hanson sold three loads of hogs to J. Palmer Tuesday.

H. J. Thiele departed Thursday for Page, Nebraska, to call on friends and enjoy hunting in the sand hills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Price and son, Howard, of Missouri Valley, Iowa, and Miss Bessie Tuma, of Omaha, came down in the former's car Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday with W. P. Sitzman and family. The ladies are sisters of Mrs. Sitzman.

Mrs. Kalbinger, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Maple and other relatives here, while her son has been taking treatment in Omaha, left this (Thursday) morning to meet one of her sons at Fremont.

Merton Scott sustained a dislocated knee Wednesday evening while playing football. He was playing with the newly organized town team in a practice game against the high school eleven. "Scotty" is able to be around with the use of a couple of canes.

Prof. R. J. Pool and wife, of Lincoln were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Pool's brother, Clarence. Mr. and Mrs. Pool recently returned from a visit east and at New York City. Mr. Pool said it looked like war around the New York harbor—the battle ships and the big guns.

Herman Klietsch and son, Harley, of Palmyra, were in town Tuesday for a few hours coming by auto. Mr. Klietsch reports the family well and things going good on the farm with a good prospect for a corn crop if the frost holds off for a couple of weeks.

Francis Baldwin and wife visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Baldwin from Sunday evening until Tuesday morning, when they left for Omaha to attend the reception for the drafted boys who left Omaha Wednesday for Fort Riley, Kansas. Francis was one of the boys drafted. He is really one of our Weeping Water boys but has been railroading for some time and made his headquarters in Omaha, and so was drafted from there.

R. B. Jameson was the victim of an auto accident Tuesday which left him with a lame shoulder, several cuts on his hands and a quite badly skinned up face, but he feels as if he got off very lucky. Mr. Jameson was on his way to Nebraska City in company with a Mr. Zissin and his 15-year-old son, and when nearing Nebraska City the car, which was driven by Mr. Zissin, turned over when they crossed the railroad. The driver received a badly cut knee but the boy was only slightly hurt.

This is one of the finest houses and best locations in town. Possession will be given in April when Mr. Wilkins will occupy the house. Mr. Cobb will most likely build in the spring.

THE DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT OF NEBRASKA

Since the Year 1865.

Mrs. John Rohrdanz, Sr., passed away onto the Great Beyond, Sept. 15, 1917 at 7:50 p. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. L. Meisinger of Cedar Creek, where she had come a few days previous to make all of her children a visit who live in Cass county. Sept. 13, she was stricken with apoplexy and lingered on until the following Saturday. She had been a devoted widow since Feb. 1, 1908, when her husband departed from this world, and had since that time made her home with her eldest daughter Mrs. Geo. G. Smith at Havelock, Nebr.

She was born in Germany, Sept. 3, 1839 and came to this country with her parents in 1865 and located in Cass county, where she resided until the death of her husband. And August 6th, 1866, she was united in marriage to John L. Rohrdanz at Plattsmouth, Nebraska. To whom were born 12 children, of whom nine survive her, and three had gone on before in their infancy. One sister survives her who lives in the southern part of Kansas. Thirty-five grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren also survive her. The children are: Mrs. Geo. G. Smith, Havelock, Nebr., Mrs. Aug. Krecklow, Manley, Nebr., Mrs. Aug. Thimgan, South Bend, Nebr., Mrs. Geo. L. Meisinger, Cedar Creek, Nebr., Carl Rohrdanz, Bala, Kansas, J. H. Rohrdanz, Cedar Creek, Nebr., H. A. Rohrdanz, Havelock, Nebr., Mrs. L. E. Thimgan, Lincoln, Neb., Wm. H. Rohrdanz, Manley, Nebr. Burial services were held at the German Lutheran church, near Murdock, Nebr., of which she had been a member since 14 years of age. The remains were placed beside her husband. All the children were at the funeral, but Mrs. L. E. Thimgan, who was ill.

CARD OF THANKS.

The children of Mrs. John Rohrdanz, Sr., wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved mother, and we also wish to thank the many friends for the beautiful floral offerings.
