

NOTICE!

Early Ohio potatoes, in 5 bushel lots or more, per bushel.....	$1.25
Snow apples, per bushel.....	1.00
Sunkist flour, 48-lb sack.....	3.25
Plansifter flour, 48-lb sack.....	3.25
Fancy Elberta peaches, per bushel.....	2.00
3 pounds broken rice.....	.25
Hominy, 3-lb cans, 2 cans for.....	.25
3 packages Brownie corn flakes.....	.25
Laundry Queen soap, 6 bars for.....	.25
Mascot soap, 6 bars for.....	.25
Bob White soap, 5 bars for.....	.25
Wisconsin cabbage, for kraut, per lb.....	.03
Beets, per peck.....	.25
Cranberries, per quart.....	.15
California Tokay grapes, per lb.....	.10

H. M. SOENNICHSEN,

CALL PHONES 53 and 54

WE LIKE TO SERVE

RESTING IN OAK HILL CEMETERY

From Saturday's Daily.
After a life of work for the Master, the mortal tenement which housed the spirit of Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Wiles, is now resting in Oak Hill cemetery, awaiting the end of time, when it shall be renewed in a greater life in the world which knows no sorrow, no heart aches, no partings from loved ones. The funeral was held at the late home, after the friends who had come for a last look, on the face of their friend, which was from twelve thirty until two o'clock. The Rev. A. J. Hargett, the minister of the church to which Mrs. Wiles was attached conducted the funeral service, which was impressive, softening the sorrowful parting and giving hope of immortality. The male quartette composed of B. A. McElwain, R. W. Knorr, P. A. Cleid and H. G. McClusky rendered some special numbers, among which was Mrs. Wiles' favorite hymn, "The Sweet Bye and Bye." The loving hands of the sons of this estimable mother with the assistance of C. L. Wiles tenderly carried the casket covered with flowers from many loving friends, to the house, and from it to the last resting place. Those who acted in this office were A. L. Wiles, T. Frank Wiles, E. M. Wiles, Luke L. Wiles and I. R. L. Wiles the sons, and C. L. Wiles a nephew. With the placing in her last resting place of this good woman while dust has returned to dust, the memory of a righteous life, and nearly four score of years in which she has been a friend to all who have needed a friend, will live to grace her memory, as the mellowness of eventide follows the close of day.

WILLARD BEEZLEY JOINS ARMY.

Mrs. Ellen C. Beezley, of Syracuse, arrived in this city and will visit at the home of her father, Hon. R. B. Windham, Mr. Willard Beezley, her husband, has recently joined the army, attaching himself to the hospital department and is now in training at Camp Greeley, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

MARRIED AND PARTED.

Miss Lillian M. Cox, a Louisville girl, but recently living in Omaha, and James Raymond, a prosperous young farmer of Union, were married last week in Omaha. The wedding is one of the pathetic events of the war, and the young bridegroom left the next day for a training camp, having been called unexpectedly. He was drafted, but was granted exemption, after which he built a new house and expected to be married in the spring. He had been to Omaha to see his fiancée and was on his way home. Upon reaching Plattsmouth, he received his call and he immediately returned to Omaha, and the young people were married at the Episcopal church that day, and the next morning he started for the training camp.

The young bride visited her mother, Mrs. Ada Cox, over Sunday, and has now returned to Omaha, where she will continue in her former position for the present.—Louisville Courier.

TO CAMP FUNSTON TODAY.

From Saturday's Daily.
Early this morning Will Meisinger, Will Rummell, Jeff Salsberg and M. Hill, of this city, departed in Mr. Meisinger's Ford automobile for a trip to Camp Funston, where they will visit over Sunday with the Plattsmouth and Cass county boys who are at that place. They started early and expect to drive through during the day, and as the roads are in fair condition and Will knows how to get the miles out of the car it is probable they will see the barracks before the sun goes down tonight.

John Schwartz, John Livingston and Elmer Eikenberry, came down yesterday in a car to attend the funeral of Mrs. Isaac Wiles. Mr. Livingston and Mr. Eikenberry returned in their car yesterday evening, while Mr. Schwartz remained until today to look after some business, returning home this afternoon.

LOCAL NEWS

From Saturday's Daily.
Julius Pepperberg, of Lincoln, came this afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Livingston.

Glen Rhoden from southwest of Mynard was a business visitor in Plattsmouth this morning.

Dr. B. F. Brendel, of Murray, was in the city last evening looking after some business at the court house.

James Hall of Murray, came up this morning to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Isaac Wiles.

Mrs. Mae N. Creamer and daughter, Miss Roes Mae, were passengers to Omaha this afternoon, where they were looking after some business.

William A. Becker, of west of the city, came in this morning and was a passenger to Omaha, where he is looking after some business for the day.

Glen Rhoden was a visitor in the city this morning, coming to take out one of the sixteen corn pickers which John F. Gorder is putting out today.

Robert Jones, who has been on the sick list at Camp Cody, in New Mexico, is improving nicely, according to a letter from him to his parents recently.

Misses Bertha and Etta Nichols were passengers this morning over the Burlington for Omaha, where they will visit with friends for the day and do some shopping.

Percy Wheeler from near Rock Bluffs, was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he will visit with friends for the day and look after some business for the day.

Daniel Kiser, who has been for some time past at Roland, South Dakota, returned home yesterday afternoon, and reports quite cool weather up there, with very good crops this season.

Miss Agnes Schwartz, who has been visiting in the city for a short time at the home of her parents departed this morning for Glenwood Iowa, where she will again take up her work at the institution there.

Mr. J. N. Wise, of Omaha, arrived from that place this morning, to attend the funeral of Mrs. R. R. Livingston. Mr. Wise who resided in this city for a number of years, is not feeling very stout just at this time.

From Saturday's Daily.
Phillip Fornoff from Cedar Creek, was looking after some business in the city this morning.

Mrs. J. W. Hale was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where she will visit for the day with friends.

Troy Wiles of near Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city last evening looking after some business.

Joseph and Andy Campbell, from near Rock Bluffs, were visitors in the city this morning, transacting business with our merchants.

Mrs. Luke L. Wiles, Wm. Baird and Mrs. Woods made up a party who were visiting with friends in Omaha, for the afternoon.

Mrs. Albert Schwartz, and Mrs. Mike Hobscheat were passengers to Omaha, this morning, where they will visit with friends for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Metzger and children, accompanied by S. S. Hilborn, of Omaha, were in the city for a while this afternoon, on their way to Cedar Creek, where they expect to visit Mr. Metzger's mother, Mrs. C. Metzger.

Ezra Albin, who was in the hospital at Omaha for some weeks, he having been operated on for appendicitis there, returned home about a week ago, and today was a visitor in Plattsmouth, being a guest of his cousin, Herbert Thacker.

RETURNS FROM COLERIGE

From Saturday's Daily.
Mrs. George Rhoden, who has been visiting at Colerige for the past two weeks, with friends and relatives, returned home last evening, and tells of having a royal good time while she was away. While at Colerige, Mrs. Rhoden was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Will Lewis, who for a number of years lived in this county just below Murray, but who has been making her home in the northern part of the state.

SELL FEED TO C. E. HARTFORD

Mr. C. D. St. John, of Nehawka was a business visitor in Plattsmouth last evening, coming to bring a car load of feed stuff to this city for C. E. Hartford. Mr. St. John is doing a good business here, having much sale on his "Letter Roll" brand of flour, as well as the feed stuff, which he brings up in his motor truck.

FOR SALE.

Baled straw at $6.50. Grant Wetokamp, Mynard, Neb.

Exceptional Values in Suits and Overcoats

We are boosters for the Winter Lyceum Course. First number Oct. 19th.

The average man has heard so much about high prices that he is afraid to consider the proposition of buying a suit or overcoat. We have good news for that man.

If you will come here this week you will find 100 extra value suits and overcoats that by reason of our connection with the United National Clothiers we are able to sell you at

$15, $17, $20 and $25

Among them are plenty of all wool fabrics, blue serges, green and gray mixtures. In the overcoats are conservative models for men and the new Trench Models all-around-belt for young men. We frankly say that these values cannot be duplicated by us or any one else. These prices are no higher than former years so don't be afraid to come and see them—you will like them.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

We sell for less because we buy for less!

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Squire departed this morning for Ashland, where they will visit at the home of Mr. Squire for the day.

Joseph Wurga and wife departed this morning for Wayne, where they will visit for over Sunday with their son, Joseph Wurga, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Smith and little baby departed this morning for Carson, Iowa, where they will visit over Sunday with the parents of Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Oster.

Mrs. Joseph Hadraba and daughter, Mrs. Blanch Price and little daughter, Helen Virginia, were passengers to Omaha this morning where they will visit with friends for the day.

Mrs. J. E. Bate, of Hastings, came in this morning and will visit for a few days in the city, the guest of her daughter Miss Flossie Bate of this city, one of the teachers in the High school here.

John E. Carmack and family are visiting in the city with the parents of Mrs. Carmack, Carl Kunsman and wife, and with Mrs. Carmack's brother, Charles Kunsman and wife. They will remain over Sunday.

Corneilus DeJung departed yesterday afternoon with his wife and little one for Clay Center, where they will visit for some time at the home of Mr. DeJung's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeJung.

Thomas Smith, who has lived here a good deal of his time, making his home while here with his aunt at Rock Bluffs, but who has been at Orleans, for the past summer, arrived this morning from the west and will make his home here for the present.

Misses Mildred Lee Copenhaver, and Miss Ethel Babbitt, were passengers to Omaha, this morning, where they go to attend the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, which is in session at Omaha at this time.

Mrs. George Wagener, of near Murray, with her daughters, were passengers to Omaha yesterday morning, going via the Missouri Pacific and returning home last evening via the Burlington to this city, from where she went home in a car.

Henry Horn, of near Cedar Creek, who has been at the sanitarium at Lincoln, for the past two weeks, taking treatment for rheumatism, returned home this morning and is feeling much improved from the treatment which he has received.

Julius Pepperberg, who has been in the city since yesterday, coming to attend the funeral of Mrs. R. R. Livingston, and visiting with friends over night, and looking after some business while here, departed this morning for his home at Lincoln, going south over the Missouri Pacific, and will look after some business on the way.

VISITS OLD HOME

From Saturday's Daily.
Harry E. White, of Sioux City, Iowa, where he is employed by the Burlington as a fireman running between Sioux City and O'Neill, Nebraska, arrived in the city last evening for a visit with his relatives and many friends. Mrs. White had been here for some time visiting, but had gone to Alliance for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Grassman, and had expected to return to meet Mr. White in Omaha, but on account of train service did not get into Omaha in time to make connections.

COMES BACK FOR VISIT AFTER 40 YEARS ABSENCE

From Saturday's Daily.
Mrs. S. M. Toole arrived in the city this morning from the west and is the guest of Mrs. Nellie P. Agnew. Mrs. Toole, whose maiden name was Mark, is a sister of Mrs. Emma Parmele, and came to Plattsmouth over forty years ago. After residing in this city a short time, she departed for the west, stopping only when she reached Los Angeles, where she was later married to Mr. Toole, and continued to reside. She has not been back to Plattsmouth previous to this time, since taking her departure from here so long ago.

In coming up Main street this morning, Mrs. Toole was able to find but a very few of the buildings that graced the street when she resided here.

DIED LAST NIGHT AT MASONIC HOME

Mrs. Almira Lewis, who came to the Masonic Home about two weeks since from Harvard, passed away last evening, at the advanced age of 73 years. Superintendent A. W. Askwith departed this morning for Harvard, accompanying the remains of Mrs. Lewis, where the funeral will be held and the burial made today.

Mrs. J. N. Wise came in this afternoon for a visit with friends of former years. She will remain over the week end.

Gift and Greeting cards of all kinds at the Journal office.

Parmelet Theatre, Oct. 20th
SATURDAY,

WILLIAM CUSHMAN, Presents
—The Comic Opera Success—

The Toymaker's Dream
Charming Captivating horus
Girls Giggles owns

Interwoven With Beauty, Comedy and Song

Prices 25, 50 and 75c. Seat Sale Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

SCHOOL CLOSED BY QUARANTINE

Miss Viola Haynie, who is teaching this winter at Gordon, is home for an indefinite period, on account of the closing of the school at Gordon, on account of scarletina, which is prevailing there. It is not known when the epidemic will have spent its virulence. Mrs. J. W. Haynie, her daughter Miss Viola, and a grand son, Victor Hugo Steinhaus, were passengers to Omaha this morning, where Victor returns home and where Mrs. Haynie and daughter, will visit at the home of E. H. Steinhaus for over Sunday.

Croup.

If your children are subject to croup get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and when the attack comes on be careful to follow the plain printed directions. You will be surprised at the quick relief which it affords.

Subscribe for the Journal.

"Bob" and "Betty," Find Out Where the Good Clothes Come From!

Bob, says Betty, "here in our own newspaper is the same advertisement we saw in the Saturday Evening Post. Let's go down to the Clothcraft store to-day."

The largest selling suit in America—Blue Serge Special No. 5130—$18.50.

If you want a really exceptional suit or overcoat—way under $25.00 and all wool—buy Clothcraft.

—For Men and Young Men—

Philip Thierolf
VALUE GIVING CLOTHIER

We are boosters for the Winter Lyceum Course. The first number October 19th.