ODD FELLOWS TAKE IN A LARGE CLASS

TWO THOUSAND MEMBERS OF ORDER IN ATTENDANCE AT GRAND LODGE SESSION IN PROGRESS AT LINCOLN.

Lincoln, Oct. 16.—More than 2,000 persons are attending the meetings of the various organizations composing the Odd Fellows of Nebraska here in session this week. A large class was initiated at the city auditorium this evening. Election of officers will come Thursday morning. A feature of this session of the organization is that the grand lodge and the Rebekas are presided over by husband and wife, Senator Walter V. Hoagland of North Platte, who has been a member since 1897, and of the grand lodge since 1902, is grand master of the Odd Fellows, while his wife, Mrs. Hattie S. Hoagland, is president of the auxiliary.

WORD FROM PAWNEE CITY.

From Wednesday's Daily. The concert given last Saturday evening proved to be, as was expected, the star musical number of the lyceum course. A large crowd was present, and the interest and enthusiasm of the audience grew with every number. Each member of the company was encored many times, to which the singers responded with their best efforts. The rich, resonant quality of Mr. Davenny's voice, coupled with his charming stage presence, won the favor of his hearers at the start. Mrs. Davenny has a lyric soprano voice of great sweetness and flexibility. The duets by Mr. and Mrs. Davenny were the bit of the evening. Mrs. Siering has perhaps the greatest contralto voice heard on our lyceum course for many seasons. Splendid appreciation was shown for her singing. Mr. Tation, in the tenor part, won prolonged applause, and he has a voice of great sweetness and power. Miss Geon proved herself an ideal accompanist. Her skill and technique make her a worthy member of the company. The appreciation of the audience for the superior merit of this company of artists was a marked tribute to both entertainers and entertainers. Few musical organizations so well balanced and of such unusual artistic ability, have been heard in Pawnee City. They would be warmly welcomed at any future appearance here.—The Pawnee Republican, Pawnee City, Nebr.

WHAT LINCOLN JOURNAL SAYS.

From Wednesday's Daily. The Davenny Festival Quintet appeared as the last regular number on the Wesleyan Y. M. C. A. lecture course Monday evening. The company gave one of the strongest musical programs that has appeared in the Wesleyan auditorium in the past few years. The selections were well chosen and combined many of the simple folk songs of Ireland, Scotland and several negro songs, with selections from the operas "Faust," "Rigoletto" and "Lucia." One of the largest crowds that has attended the lecture course this year was present for the entertainment.—Nebraska State Journal, Lincoln, Nebr., March 27, 1917.

Are you going to Chase county with Rosencrans next Sunday evening? This is the right time to buy land, and Chase county is the right place to buy at the right price. Make up your mind right now to go with "Rosey" Sunday evening and look the country over.

THOUSANDS OF CATTLE PERISH IN FIRE AT KANSAS CITY

FIRE DESTROYS MORE THAN ONE-HALF THE PENS AND CATCHES MUCH STOCK.

Most of the Animals Liberated and Run Wild in Streets Until Corralled.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 16.—Cattle owners this morning were having difficulty in identifying their animals from among the great herd which was liberated when fire early today destroyed more than one-half of the Kansas City stock yards. By 7 o'clock the fire had been extinguished.

When the fire started, it is estimated the number of cattle in the pen was 47,000. Of this number various estimates of the number burned ranged from 5,000 to 15,000.

At the discovery of the fire, thousands of cattle were liberated from the pens and the streets were glutted with panic stricken herds. Today these animals, many of which had wandered some distance from the scene of the fire, were being corralled by their owners.

Many new shipments of cattle were in the yards today ready to be unloaded. Cattle men were undecided as to what disposal to make of the cattle, but it was suggested that they would be shipped on either to St. Louis or Chicago. Omaha and St. Joseph also might benefit by shipments, it was said.

Very few swine were burned. The hog pens were reached by the flames, but most of the animals had been liberated.

DEMAND 'MODERATE' PEACE AND MICHAELIS DISMISSAL

Copenhagen, Oct. 16.—Demand for the dismissal of Chancellor Michaelis was the leading theme at the opening session of the Socialist convention at Wurzburg, Bavaria, Sunday, at which Philip Scheidemann, the majority Socialist leader in the reichstag, was a speaker.

Friedrich Ebert, a Socialist member of the reichstag, assailed those members of the party who attempt to prolong the war. He declared also that the advocates of the so-called German peace were working in their own pecuniary interests and not for the fatherland.

Herr Scheidemann said that the war profiteers were investing millions of marks in the German press, which accounted for the increasing number of newspapers attacking the advocates of a moderate peace.

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—In his speech at the Wurzburg convention, Herr Ebert, president of the German Socialist party, said speedy conclusion of peace was a vital necessity for workmen in all countries and that the policy of the mailed fist would disappear after the frightful horrors of war.

"If a ballot were taken today," he added, "nine-tenths of the people would approve peace by agreement."

Herr Scheidemann, referring to the Cappelle incident, said that unfortunately it could not be discussed in public.

"The fact is," he continued, "that if they wanted to catch all who were connected with similar incidents they would have to take action against three hundred persons simultaneously. Every day soldiers come to us with complaints and we have opened a special bureau to investigate them: The main thing is not to talk or write about grievances, but to combat them."

MOVES TO ALLIANCE.

From Wednesday's Daily. Harry Messersmith and family, departed this afternoon for Alliance, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Messersmith was at Alliance for about a month working for the Burlington on air brakes, and has received a proposition to go to that place permanently, in that line or for the present at least. Harry is an excellent man, and will make good in his line anywhere. He may be tried. We are sorry to lose him and his family as citizens of this place, but our loss is the gain of Alliance.

OREGON VISITOR AT UNION A CALLER IN TOWN TODAY

From Wednesday's Daily. J. F. Hostetter and son, Dee, were up from Union this morning looking after some business in the city. The elder Mr. Hostetter moved from the vicinity of Union to Roseburg, Oregon seven years ago and has resided in the west since then. He is well pleased with Oregon as a state in which to live and speaks of how much the roads there have been improved since he first moved into the state. At the time he went to Oregon, he states it was not possible to get around on account of the muddy condition, but the automobile has demanded and secured the best of roads for that country. Mr. Hostetter is only here on a visit and will soon return to his home in the west.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

LARGER FIGURES OF WAR AS ESTIMATED BY BANK

SUPERIORITY OF ENTENTE ALIES IN MAN POWER AND RESOURCES STRIKINGLY SHOWN.

United States Now Spending $1,625,000 an Hour for the Cause of Mankind.

New York, Oct. 16.—The war is costing the belligerent nations of the world at the rate of $160,000,000 a day—$6,500,000 an hour—and the United States is paying at least one-quarter of this staggering sum, according to estimates made today by the Mechanics' National bank of New York. The estimated daily cost at the beginning of the war was $50,000,000 and a year ago it was $100,000,000. This country's rate of expenditure is greater than any other nation, Great Britain being second and Germany next.

By next August, according to the bank's figures, the total cost to the world will be $155,000,000,000. Already expenditures have exceeded $100,000,000, of which all but a fraction has been translated into permanent national indebtedness. Interest on public debt is now calculated to be more than 10 per cent of the normal income of the German people, as compared with less than one-half of one per cent in the case of the people of the United States. The developed national wealth of the allies is placed at $600,000,000,000 by the bank, while that of the Teutonic powers is given as $130,000,000,000.

About 53,000,000 men are today engaged in the war. To what extent the entente allies have gained superiority over Germany is shown by the bank in striking fashion.

With no more than 2,000,000 of American manhood enlisted, the total military strength of the allies is 33,000,000 against a total for Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria, and Turkey of 20,000,000. The population of fourteen entente allies from which the ranks of their armies may be replenished is altogether 1,300,000,000, against a population of less than 150,000,000 in the central European nations.
