RETURNING HOME

FROM REUNION

From Wednesday's Daily. While the boys departed in a crowd for the Jubilee meeting at Vicksburg, they have dropped into the city one at a time, the first was Wm. Gilmour, who came home last Sunday. Then followed Mr. A. C. Tarsch who tells us of the good time which he had and which was provided for all who were in attendance. Asbury Jack did not forget the printer, in the times which he had while down there and sent papers and pictures, showing how things looked and telling what they were doing. We have received papers from others as well but as yet do not know whom to credit them to, but feel that all the boys are in a way responsible for them. The boys sure enjoyed this Jubilee meeting to the fullest, and they should coming back after the lapse of over fifty years and visiting the places which were impressed on their mind, and in many cases the bodies, in the most forcible manner.
