OVER THE COUNTY

UNION Ledger

R. A. Smith returned home Friday from Memphis, Tennessee, where he sold a load of horses.

Charles E. Severyn, former superintendent of the Union school, is still at Fort Bliss, Texas, in the ambulance corps.

George Stites shipped in a car of cattle from Omaha the latter part of last week, which he will feed for market this fall.

The cold weather of the last few days has brought the ducks south, and some of the boys report fair shooting on the river.

Mrs. O. W. Finney, who has been visiting relatives in Missouri for the past couple of weeks, returned home Sunday afternoon.

R. H. Frans, formerly of this place but who has been holding down a job on the police force in St. Joseph, Missouri, came up the latter part of the week and is now shucking corn.

A letter received at this office the latter part of last week from Eugene Applegate, at Paris Island, S. C., informs us that he is getting along fine and seems to enjoy life as a U. S. Marine.

Miss Nellie Bramblet, who received a fractured knee cap in an auto accident several weeks ago, is now able to be about the house with the use of crutches and it will not be long until she will be able to do without them.

A baggageman on the south bound passenger had the misfortune to run a nail through his hand one morning the latter part of last week and Dr. Barritt was called to treat him at the station when the train arrived.

A letter received from Carl Pickering by his parents, mailed "somewhere in France" states that he is well and had a good trip across the Atlantic, being sick only one day on the trip. Carl is with the regulars and performing the duties of cook.

The dog which went mad and bit little Raymond Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Osborne, several months ago, also bit a dog belonging to James Reeves, which went mad last week and bit Mrs. Reeves. She is now taking treatment and from the latest reports is getting along very well.

EAGLE Beacon

Mrs. Agnes McDonald returned yesterday from a week's visit at Rising City, Nebraska.

Mrs. Alta Burdick and daughters, of Lincoln, came down Thursday for several days' visit with Mrs. Burdick's sister, Mrs. Standley.

The Eagle Local Farmers Union, at its meeting recently, decided to pay 6 cents per bushel for corn husking. For poor corn, 7 cents a bushel will be paid.

Harry Leffel, son of our affable station agent, is quite sick with the tonsillitis.

Garth Reed, the new section foreman, is moving his family here from Auburn. Eagle welcomes such people to our midst.

The Dick Wenzel 80 acres of land lying north of Eagle, was sold thru H. K. Frantz last week to Joe Allen, for $195 per acre.

Mrs. O. S. Anderson went to Minneapolis, Minn., Wednesday for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Howard Ankeny, formerly Miss Abbie Judkins of this place.

Tipton precinct is at the head of the list in raising its quota of $23,000 for the Liberty loan. We are proud of her loyal citizens. May they live long and continue to prosper.

Mrs. R. N. Robotham and daughter, Ruth, of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Robotham and family of Bethany and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Robotham, of Walton, came with well filled baskets and spent the day with Mrs. Mamie Hudson and family, on Sunday.

Pearl Bernice, aged 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oberle, died on Monday evening and was buried at the Eagle cemetery Wednesday. Pearl had been sick four weeks of bronchial pneumonia and while the solicitous parents and physician did everything possible to stay the malady, the little sufferer succumbed and is now among the angels of the unknown realm.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Miss Ruth Jacobson, of Omaha, spent Sunday with the home folks.

Mrs. E. F. Pettis, of Lincoln, came down Friday for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Jones and family, on the farm west of Louisville.

Postmaster Ossenkop estimates the receipts of the office will increase one-third after November 1st on account of the increase of letter postage. The 3-cent letter postage goes into effect on that date.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Noyes returned home from Cherry county Monday evening, where they went to shoot ducks. They brought a fine bunch home with them, which they distributed among their friends.

John Peterson of Pleasantdale has been visiting his father, C. Petersen, and other relatives this week. He says his family is well and they like their new home very well, but they miss their old Louisville friends.

A number of the farmers are beginning to gather corn and by the first of the month the work will be well under way. Corn is said to be drying unusually slow and many of the fields hereabouts are yet too green for cribbing.

E. C. Twiss left last Friday for Halsey, Neb., where he went to join his wife, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barack Livingston. Frank Pettit has had charge of the meat market during the absence of Mr. Twiss.

Jesse McGrew, who suffered a broken leg while riding a motorcycle between this place and Lincoln about five weeks ago, returned home from University Place last Saturday. His leg is still in a cast and he gets around by the aid of a pair of crutches, but he says he is feeling fine and hopes to be able to get back to work again in a short time. Virgil Haddon brought Jesse home in his car Sunday.

The many friends of John Group will be pleased to learn that he is improving and while his progress is a little slow, it is steady. Mr. Group has been in poor health for several months and at times his condition seemed serious, but his family now feel that his recovery is only a matter of time. He is up and around the house and can eat his meals at the table, and we trust we shall soon see him down town again.

While attempting to pull a lever at the Burlington semaphore one day last week, Edward Eager met with quite a severe accident. His gloves were oily, causing his hands to slip and he fell backward, striking the back of his head on a steam radiator. An ugly gash more than three inches in length was cut in his scalp. Dr. Worthman took two stitches in closing the wound. Mr. Eager was quite weak for a time from the loss of blood.

WEEPING WATER Republican.

Frank Boyle autored to Lincoln on Saturday to meet his brother, Jim and wife and baby of Erickson, who were coming for a few days' visit and to see his grandfather Fisher, before the latter returned home to Illinois.

Mr. Massie's parents and other relatives northeast of town.

John Colbert, the land man, reported the sale Tuesday morning of the Deles Denier 160 acres, two miles northeast of Elmwood to Mrs. Engal-king and son, Herman, south of Elmwood. Consideration, $24,000.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Swisher, of Ottawa, Ohio, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Swisher's mother, Mrs. L. D. Switzer, for the last three weeks, left for their Ohio home Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Conrad, of Chappell, arrived last week for a few weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Conrad's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Glaubitz, northwest of town, and Mr. Conrad's mother at Nehawka and with other relatives.

D. M. Johnson's car was stolen in Omaha Wednesday. Mr. Johnson left it outside of the Burgess-Nash store at a quarter of four and at four-fifteen when he went out to get the car, he found it gone. No trace has as yet been found.

N. C. Christensen, who has been staying near Avoca this summer was in town Saturday and said he would leave soon for Hot Springs, Arkansas to spend the winter. Mr. Christensen is troubled with rheumatism and he is going to try the southern climate and the spring water.

Mr. Stephen Fisher, who has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. S. Boyle for a couple of weeks, departed the first of the week for his home at Hopedale, Ill. He was accompanied by his father, Albert Fisher, who had spent the summer here with his daughter. They will stop on their way and visit relatives in Iowa for a few days.

Beginning next Tuesday and continuing each Tuesday thereafter until further notice, the two bakers and the two other places that sell bread and the eating houses in Weeping Water will not sell or serve wheat bread. This is a voluntary action taken to help in food conservation plans and the public is requested to do all they can to assist in carrying out this plan.

Wednesday afternoon, October 24, Miss Elva Philpot, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philpot and Mr. Grant Dierding, of Arnold, Nebraska, were united in marriage at Nebraska City. Lee Brown took them over in his car. The young people are preparing to leave Friday morning for his ranch home near Arnold, which he has in readiness. The bride is an accomplished housekeeper and will make the kind of a helpmeet that will bring much joy to the home and the groom is a promising young farmer, who will, without doubt, be a worthy companion of the bride he has won.

NEHAWKA News
