At the Railroad Stations.

Beginning with this morning there is being levied a tax for the passenger fares paid, it being eight per cent of the cost of a ticket. This means that when a ticket is purchased for any amount, you will be charged for the ticket at the prevailing rates, plus an additional eight per cent, which will go to the gov-On freight consignments the additional charge will be three per cent and you will have to pay an additional five per cent on goods received by express. But should you want to send a telegram, a fixed rate of five cents additional is made for such message, no matter what the cost may be. If your telegram costs 25 cents, the tax will make it come MEMBERS OF RAINBOW to 3 cents, or if the charge is a dollar the tax will make it come to Telephone Company Will Collect.

Among the other things on which we will be required to pay a tax, are telephone messages. Like those sent by telegraph, these too are easy to figure, a specific charge of five cents being made on each long distance call, provided only that the tell charge is 15 cents or more. This eliminates paying a tax on messages over some country lines, etc., where switching charge of five or ten cents has been collected, but will not cover many mesages originating from Plattsmouth.
