

LOCAL NEWS

From Saturday's Daily. Mrs. John Weber was visiting with friends in Omaha today going on the early train this morning.

noon with Hall Allen, who is a relative of Mrs. Alice Eaton. Charles Will is visiting at the home of his grandfather A. S. Will

Charley will stop off at Wichita, Kansas, for a short stay before going on to Oklahoma City. PLATTSMOUTH BOYS ABOARD

SAYS RUSSIA HAS NOT QUIT THE WAR SEC. LANSING SAYS KERENSKY INTERVIEW DOESN'T MEAN RUSSIA IS THROUGH.

HALLOWE'EN SAFELY ENJOYED. From Thursday's Daily. Last evening seemed to have slipped into history, with all the people enjoying themselves, and with the many parties which were held

"OTHER ALLIES MUST BEAR WAR BURDEN DE-CIARES KERENSKY Pertograd, Nov. 1.—"Russia entered the war early and she is now worn out by the strain," Premier Kerensky today told the Associated Press.

Here is the "Anyday". It's one of the many smart "R & W" overcoats that leading merchants in every town will gladly show you.

The "Anyday"ismade from showerproof fabrics; silk lined sleeves and yoke; seams are silk piped. A very distinguished coat for particular dressers.

Ask your dealer and look for the "R & W" label—it's your protection.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

Everybody's Store NEW TIES EVERY WEEK engraving for in order that such reservations may be made early and assure their return in time.

LOOKS and WEAR! When you buy a shirt, do you buy for looks or wear. Probably both. Just call for Manhattan $1.75 to $3.50 Silks $6.50

Philip Thierolf VALUE GIVING CLICHER The Kuppenheimer House of Plattsouth

Obeys the Law. Order your Osgood Lens. Plattsouth Garage. All sizes.