DISTRICT COURT

There was an application in the district court today by Ethel Olson, who is defendant in divorce proceedings, asking for maintenance during the pendency of the trial. On this the plaintiff in the case, Victor Olson, was given until some time in December to file counter pleadings.

George J. Oldham has filed a petition through his attorney W. A. Robertson, asking the quieting of title in and to the property which he holds on Chicago avenue, in Plattsmouth.

Mary Winkler of this county has asked a separation and divorce from her husband, Henry Winkler, because, as is alleged in the petition of having transmitted to her ill health.

COUNTY COURT

Today, through their attorney, J. E. Douglas, of this city, the heirs of Stephen F. Girardet, formerly of Weeping Water, but now of Aurora, Ill., have asked the appointment of an administrator, and the right to sell certain real estate in Weeping Water, which was formerly the home of the Girardets. Mr. Girardet died at his late home near Aurora, Ill., last May.

POLICE COURT

Complaint was filed in the police court this morning and a bond of five dollars taken for the non-appearance of R. M. Shrader, who was caught driving last night without a tail light burning. The fact that he did not put in appearance was taken as evidence of his guilt and the cash bond declared forfeited upon the opening of court at nine o'clock.

ENTHUSIASTIC Y. M. C. A. MEETING AT LOUISVILLE

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening with the big seven passenger car Henry McMaken, took Mr. C. A. Rawls Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wescott, Mesdames W. Baird, Lillian Caldwell and Don York to Louisville, where they were working for the Y. M. C. A. War Work fund. Louisville willing to more than meet the crowd from here half way, had arranged to close the business houses, and turned out en masse to do their bit for the boys at the front. The meeting was called to order, by Mr. Rawls, and a very nice program was first rendered, Mr. Don York being the first for a solo, after which Mrs. Lillian Caldwell gave a violin solo, and this was followed by a reading by Mrs. Baird and concluded by a solo by Mrs. E. H. Wescott. The entire program was of such excellence, that it would be difficult to select one as better than another, for they were all the best. This program put the audience in good humor, and the house was crowded, with the people of the city, the school children and the adjacent farming community. After the program had been concluded, Mr. Rawls spoke on the objects of the meeting and of what success he was meeting at other places, and asked for contributions to the fund which was responded in a most generous manner. The amount for Louisville precinct and city being $295.00 of this there were $225.00 subscribed last evening, and the remainder they feel will be secured today. After the meeting had been concluded, a large number of small boys came up and asked if they could not give fifty cents each for the fund, and this meeting with the spirit of the occasion, they affixed their names to the roll, and thus increased the amount, both in funds and patriotic enthusiasm. C. E. Noyles is the chairman for that precinct, and Paul Fitzgerald was selected for the secretary of the meeting. It is felt that the amount will be over subscribed at Louisville as they are feeling very patriotic and are desirous of giving to a good cause.

TREATMENT FOR DISLOYALTY.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore, was in the city last evening with Mrs. Gilmore and the family, they looking after some shopping, which Dr. Gilmore has some other business to look after. During his stay in the city he made a pleasant call on the Editor of this paper, and we had a very pleasant visit.

While speaking about the war, and incidents which are constantly occurring here, regarding patriotism of some and disloyalty of others, we were more than pleased, when he expressed himself, that there are some who, will have to face some stern eventualities, for disloyal attitudes.

VAMPIRES LOOT HIS AUTO.

From Monday's Daily.

Last Friday evening Lee Fickler was driving along near Mynard, when something went wrong with his car, and he was not able to run it any farther.

Relying on an implicit faith in the human race, he left the car where it was, thinking it was as safe as any politician's good name, he went home with the firm consciousness that the car would not be molested. Guess at his surprise when he returned the next morning, to find, some vampire in human shape had skinned the car, taking three of the tires from the car, and probably would have taken the fourth one had not some one come along and frightened them away.

The man who would do that, is unsafe for a neighbor, and if we knew of a man like that in our neighborhood, we would always want a lock on our chicken coop door. This characteristic, in a man is what makes criminals, and the man who would do a trick like that would take your life blood, as readily if he thought he could get by with it. You have got to be honest, if you expect to have the respect of your neighbors, and unless you are honest with yourselves, the civilization is in danger of being lost.

MUCH WHEAT SOWN.

From Monday's Daily.

Mr. George M. Hild and Bert Satchel who have been visiting in the west looking over the country arrived in the city this morning from Grant, where they report the fall sown wheat as looking the finest, and growing nicely with the appearance of being in good condition to stand the winter, and also that there is an abundance of it sown.

ARREST 63 IN RAID ON I. W. W'S IN OMAHA

TRUCKLOAD OF LITERATURE IS SEIZED BY FEDERAL AND CITY OFFICERS.

CONVENTION WAS BROKEN UP

Men From All Parts of the Country
Now in Cells in Omaha Jails.

Omaha, Nov. 14.—Federal officers and city police broke up the industrial workers of the world convention which had been in session since Monday morning, yesterday afternoon and arrested sixty-two men and one woman. The headquarters above 1301 Douglas street were "cleaned out" at the order of the federal government.

A truckload of literature was seized. It will be carefully examined by federal officials. Records of the convention proceedings, circulars printed in many languages and other papers were among the literature taken, according to United States Marshal Flynn.

A government warrant demanding the arrest of T. A. Jenkins was held by Marshal Flynn when the raid was made. Marshal Eberstein, chief of the bureau of investigation, will examine each of the persons arrested in the raid. From this examination he will decide what charges shall be filed against them. After the convention had been in progress for nearly two days, Marshal Tom J. Flynn, heading a corps of secret service men, and Police Captain Henry Heitfeld, with the moral squad, entered the hall. With the docility of cattle, every man in the room and the one woman, Mrs. Eimer Buse, St. Louis, Mo., fled down the stairway into the awaiting patrols. None was armed. Only one attempted to escape and he was caught by Officer Patsy Rinn after a chase of half a block.

Believe Them Big Men.
Federal authorities believe that nearly every member of the gang is "a big man with the organization," and that each "was delegated to come here."

E. F. Dix, Indianapolis, Ind., is supposed by police to be an officer of high rank. He was acting chairman at the interruption by police. T. A. Jenkins, 1901 Paul street, Omaha, is secretary of the local division. Both Dix and Jenkins were arrested.

The majority of the prisoners were penniless. The largest amount of money taken from any member of the crowd was $54.27. The next largest was $32.10. A bottle of carbolic acid was taken from one member of the gang.

Some said they were from Portland Ore.; others from San Francisco, Cal., Houston, Tex., Indianapolis, Ind., Kansas City, Mo., Chicago, Ill., and other distant places.

Officer Leroy Wade, on a recent visit to Lincoln, missed the passenger train out of Lincoln that would have gotten him to Omaha in time to keep an appointment. He, therefore, took an Omaha-bound freight. After identifying himself to trainmen, he explored the cattle cars.

Come in by Night.

"Scattered through the length of the train, in every nook and corner, were I. W. W's. There must have been nearly 100," said Wade. "When we neared Omaha they began to drop off in squads of six or eight each. When we reached South Omaha there were not over ten on the whole train.

"Shortly before arriving in Omaha they decided that I would make an excellent I. W. W. When I refused the honor of becoming one they threatened me and I had to move up toward the cab."

Federal officials last night intimidated the meetings of the I. W. W. in Omaha were not as secret as that organization thought them to be. Statements uttered in their "private" meetings probably will be used against the individual members of the crowd when each is examined by the department of justice.

All were in the best of spirits when jailed. They broke forth in chorus several times. One of their number recited a declamation and, although its merits were lost to those not in jail, his efforts were loudly applauded.

Thirty-nine were taken to the county jail on account of lack of space at the city jail.

RETURNS FROM ROCHESTER.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening Albert Schuldice returned from a trip to the Rochester, Minn., hospital, where he has been for examination and treatment at the Mayo Brothers who have a hospital there, and which is conceded to be the greatest in this portion of the country. Mr. Schuldice was there for about a week, and underwent a crucial examination, with the result that the people at the hospital told him that they could not find anything of enough serious character to justify them resorting to an operation for relief. They gave him medical treatment, and furnished him a course of medicine which he brought home with him and is using. Speaking of the institution, Mr. Schuldice said that it was the greatest institution which he had ever seen, there being 165 examining physicians, they having charge of the examinations of the cases coming before them.

MORE CORN HUSKERS THAN CAN USE

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening H. H. Carr, and Frank Busche, both of Bartley, arrived in the city last evening, coming with the expectation of husking corn, and were accompanied by Frank and Marion Meyers of Cambridge, who were also looking for corn picking. Enticing the farmers here stopping because the corn is too green, they departed this morning for Ashland, where they will see if there is anything in the line to do. They are neighbors of Charlie L. Schaeffer who lived in the southwest portion of the city. He formerly having lived in Barclay.

MRS. HARRIET SEYBOLD IS NOW IMPROVING

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mrs. Harriet Seybold, mother of J. B. Seybold, and Mrs. A. C. Mutz, who has been so sick at the home of her son northwest of Murray, for some time past is reported as showing some improvement, which will be gratifying to her many friends over the county. We trust she will continue to improve and that she will be well again in a short time.

HAS A LARGE JOB ON HIS HANDS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Frank J. Libershall, county clerk and clerk of the Local Exemption board, has a large job on his hands in the tabulation of the registration, which was made on June fifth last. The cards are first divided into groups, by a system of code numbers which are placed upon the cards, designating what class the person belongs. After this the reports which are in groups have to be made, which will in some way determine how each will be classed for the draft which is to be made in the spring.

GEO. SHRADER EXPECTED HOME

From Wednesday's Daily.

A letter from West Graham, Va., states that Uncle George W. Shrader, who has been sick at that place, was considerably better and that they expected to be able to start for the west with him on the day after the letter was posted, which, if they did, would make them due to arrive here tomorrow. We hope Mr. Shrader is well enough to make the trip, and will arrive feeling greatly improved.

Plattsmouth Over the Top

Large and Enthusiastic Meeting of Loyal Citizens at the Parmele
Opera House Last Evening.

From Monday's Daily.

Last evening five hundred patriotic red blooded Americans met at the Parmele Theatre, for the purpose of sending a message of encouragement and good cheer, to the boys at the front in the trenches and at the cantonments and they did it handsomely, by over subscribing the amount many dollars, the amount which was being asked, for the air of the Y. M. C. A. War Work fund, and all with a pleased anxiety to give.

The effect of the work which C. A. Rawls, and his abled co-workers, and to desire to do their bit, by the people was apparent at the beginning and before the meeting. The meeting was called to order at about eight o'clock and was opened by an invocation and thanksgiving prayer delivered by the Rev. A. J. Hargett, after which Mrs. E. H. Wescott, gave a number of which was added to by the crowd at her request joining in the chorus.

This was enjoyed by all present and the sentiment of the song as well as the rendition found a place in the heart of all. Mrs. Baird followed by a reading, in which patriotism, in the composition and the manner and style of the delivery by the speaker contended for first place, with much honor for both. C. A. Rawls then introduced the speaker of the evening, Dean Ringer, of Omaha, who had the matter of the raising of Nebraska's apportionment.

Mr. Ringer gave a history of the raising of the fund, telling of the conditions of the soldiers, of the temptations, of the inroads on the character and morale of the troops of the allies, and the work which this organization has been doing, which was listened to with profound attention. When through he was greeted with much applause in recognition of his address, his effort for the cause, and expressing the bent up feeling of the crowd for the boys, who are their friends. C. A. Rawls, followed, explaining the work which had been done and telling how he has succeeded, in the campaign, and asking for reports from any outlying districts, which was responded to by M. A. Hall who is the chairman for East Rock Bluffs district, saying that she had gone "over the top," which was greeted by applause. Then after having the secretary H. A. Schneider take his place at the table asked had the workers of the city any reports to submit, which was as much as one hundred dollars, for one subscriber when J. W. Holmes, of the first ward arose and reported one hundred dollars from Mrs. A. B. Haldemann, and was followed by C. E. Whitaker of the third ward reporting fifty dollars each from Messrs. C. C. Wescott and E. H. Wescott, and then twenty-five dollars from A. G. Cole, which a number of others reported $25.00 from over various portions of the house, the fifteen dollar amounts were received, followed by the showers of ten dollar gifts. Then came five dollar donations, in such rapid order that the secretary Mr. H. A. Schneider had to keep calling "wait a minute" then followed the call "next" as he was able to get the amount written down. The following is a list as they gave last evening at the opera house, when after many dollars rattled into the hats of the committees as the crowd dispersed, what the entire amount was will have to come in the report of the secretary. Just before the benediction which was given by Rev. Truscott, the announcement was made by the secretary of the securing of over a thousand dollars, which speaks for the true patriotism, of the feeling swelling up in the hearts of the people, that of SERVICE, to and for the boys is one in which all desire to get in on. There will be an opportunity for those who desire to see the chairmen of the different wards, who are J. W. Holmes of the first ward, E. C. Hill of the second, C. E. Whitaker of the third, George Farley of the fourth and L. E. Vroman of the fifth, or any of their assistant workers, or Mr. C. A. Rawls or Mr. H. A. Schneider and hand the amount to them, it will do its work well and you will be doing a great work for some boy away from home ties and home influence. Do it and do it at once, that the money may be working. The following is the list as contributed last evening and the others will be added as soon as they are in and tabulated:

We were promised a list of the contributors for this issue, but owing to circumstances, over which we have no control, we are compelled to postpone the names until tomorrow's issue.

THE DEVIL RESIGNS HIS JOB.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The devil sat by a lake of fire on a pile of sulphur kegs, his head was bowed upon his breast, and his tail between his legs; a look of shame was on his face. The sparks dripped from his eyes—he had sent up his resignation to the throne up in the skies. "I'm down and out," the devil said—he said it with a sob—"there are others that outclass me and I want to quit the job. Hell isn't in it with the land that lies along the Rhine. I'm a has been and a piker, therefore I resign; one ammunition maker with his bloody shot and shell knows more about damnation than all theimps of hell. Give my job to Kaiser Wilhelm, the author of this war; he understands it better a million times by far. I hate to leave the old home, the spot I love so well, but I feel that I'm not up to date in the art of running hell."—Exchange.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

From Monday's Daily.

Last Saturday evening at their beautiful country home west of this city Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Born gave a birthday reception to the many friends of their daughter Miss Agnes, whose birthday anniversary fell on that date, and who is attending the Sacred Heart school at Omaha.

The home had been beautifully and tastefully decorated for the occasion and a large crowd of the friends and neighbors gathered for the purpose of making merry with the family and especially with the young lady whose birthday they were celebrating. Music was one of the prominent features of the evening, which was accompanied with dancing, and many enlivening games. A delightful luncheon was served, and many presents tokens of regard were received from her friends, by Miss Agnes, in departing all wished her many happy returns of the day.

MRS. COPENHAVER IMPROVING.

From Monday's Daily.

Mrs. L. V. Copenhaver who has been in a hospital at Omaha for the past few days and who was operated upon there Saturday, is reported as improving, showing some gains, but her condition is still very critical and she remains in a very weak state. While her condition improves, though slow, her friends hope that the time will not be long, before she will be enough better to insure her early recovery.

ITALY MAKES A FIRM STAND TO SAVE VENICE

REPEL VIGOROUS ATTACKS WITH HEAVY LOSSES TO GERMANS;
LIBERATE OWN MEN CAP-TURED BY TEUTONS.

The Italians apparently are holding the Teutonic allies fast along the greater part of the front from Lake Garda, south of the Trentino region to the Adriatic Sea.

Small gains have been reported for the Teutons on the northern front and at one point along the southern reaches of the Piave river.

On the Asiago plateau, the enemy has met with several severe reversals, the Italians repelling vigorous attacks with serious losses. Near Canove, to the west of Asiago, the forces of General Diaz were able to liberate Italians who had been captured by the Austro-German army in the attempted flanking operation before the Italian line was stiffened last week.

Germans Seize Mont Longara.

The Germans report the capture of the town of Fonzaso and the fortified position of Mont Longara. On the southern Piave, between Monte San Donia and Zenson, some 23 miles northeast of Venice, the enemy forces crossed the stream and established a bridgehead on the west side of the Piave. The Italians, however, immediately turned upon the invaders and forced them back toward the bank of the river.

Realizing the proximity of the enemy to Venice, preparations are being made to protect the ancient city and its historic buildings from the shells of the guns of the invaders. Sandbags have been piled high around the palace of the Doges and the Campanile. Doubtless most of the numerous works of art have been removed to places of security.
