This car was purchased through the agency of T. L. Amick, who is selling a large number of these excellent cars. The trouble he has not been able to get the cars as rapidly as he had needed them. Just at this time they are a little more easily obtained, which fact should be taken advantage of by the buying public, for they will be scarce again.

AUTO AND DRAY CRASHED INTO ONE ANOTHER

ACCIDENT OCCURRED LAST EVENING IN THE WEST PART OF THE CITY.

NOT ROOM ENOUGH FOR BOTH

Car Damaged to Extent of Several Hundred Dollars—Driver of Dray Was Injured.

From Saturday's Daily. Last evening just about six o'clock when the day was turning into night there occurred in the west portion of the city a collision between two vehicles, one a dray driven by Claus Boetel jr., and an automobile driven by W. E. Rosencrans.

They were coming around the corner near the Bohemian Hall and when they both got a glimpse of the other they were together. Mr. Boetel got the horse turned so as to miss the car, but could not get his wagon out of the way. Mr. Rosencrans endeavored to turn his car and thus helped in missing the team, but when the impact came it was between the car and the front portion of the wagon, just scraping the single tree and striking with full force the front wheel, breaking the wheel and over turning the wagon, throwing Mr. Boetel to the ground. The horses becoming frightened started to run but Mr. Boetel although being injured succeeded in stopping the animals by clinging to the lines. The car was injured to the amount of about two hundred dollars. Mr. Boetel who had his ankle and leg injured is in bed today and feeling somewhat still and sore. Mr. Rosencrans was not injured, but experienced a very quick stop.

They were pleasant callers at this office. Mr. Wiles tells us that he has finished gathering his corn, and it is all perfectly dry and of good quality. Mr. Wiles is always one of the early corn planters, and this was the kind that made good this year.

LET OLD GLORY FLOAT.

From Friday's Daily. The matter of having the flag of the emblem of Liberty float from every home and business house in the city is gaining in favor all the time and may of the citizens are speaking about it, and there should be a committee appointed to look after the matter.

A fund should be created to purchase a flag for those who do not have the funds to make the purchase for themselves.

Let everyone take an interest in this matter, and have Old Glory float from your home and business house. Telling that you are patriotic, this is a time when any straying away from the path of rectitude in the matter of patriotism should not be allowed.

A NEW SUBSCRIBER.

From Friday's Daily. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau and son Dan and Mrs. Oscar Keil of Eagle motored to this city this morning and spent the day visiting friends and attending to some business matters. While here Mr. Muenchau called at this office and renewed his subscription and subscribed for his son Fred Muenchau, Jr., at Eagle, in order that he, too might be kept posted on happenings throughout the county.

His service has been first class and his old patrons and many new ones have always been well pleased, but Mr. Russell has never had a suitable place to serve ladies in an up-to-date manner, but has now rented the old Herold Book store room for the accommodation of both ladies and gentlemen. This room is being thoroughly renovated, newly papered and painted, and will be an eating headquarters worthy of your attention when in the city. The new room will be open for business on Saturday evening of this week, where you will find all the good things that the market affords in the line of "good eats". Every effort exerted for your comfort, and you will be welcome. Remember it is Russell's New Restaurant.

From Friday's Daily. J. E. Kraeger, from LaPorte, Colo., arrived in the city yesterday for a few days visit with friends and relatives at the old home in Cass county. Mr. Kraeger moved from this county several years ago owing to the condition of his health, at which time he was greatly run down, in fact he feared, that his lease on life would be limited to a few years if he remained in this country. Since moving to the above place he has steadily gained in health, and upon this trip back to the old home he is feeling fine. He was a pleasant caller at the Journal office yesterday.

Mr. Snyder will depart for the 'Windy City' on Sunday evening to be on the market at the beginning of the week.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.

COMMITTEE ISSUES A FINANCIAL SUMMARY

WINTER LYCEUM COURSE SHOWS A DEFICIT IN SPITE OF LARGE ATTENDANCE

HOPE COURSE WILL PAY OUT

Guarantors Serve Without Compensation or Even 'Complimentary' Admission.

From Saturday's Daily. The Lyceum Committee desire to submit the following report of the financial condition of the course for the present season:

Table with columns: ASSETS, Season Tickets, Children's season tickets sold, Adult season tickets sold, Single Admissions, Liabilities, Mut. Lyceum System, 6 Nos., Theatre, Rent, Journal, Printing and card board.

It can be seen from the above that it will be necessary to take in $163.05 in order to come out even at the end of the season. It is hoped this can be done by the further sale of season tickets and through single admissions. We are confronted by a rather peculiar situation in this respect, namely, that the house is practically full each time and yet the receipts are not enough to pay out. When we analyse a little more closely, we find that there are 567 reserved seats in the opera house, including the boxes and balcony. The opera house management retain 22 seats over which the committee have no control. There are 11 other complimentary tickets, including the ministers and the Journal force, making a total of 33 seats from which no revenue is obtainable. These 33 seats deducted from the capacity of the house, 507, leave 474 seats available for sale. You will notice by the statement there are 459 season tickets sold so that 15 seats are all we have left for reserved single admissions. Let it be said here that no member of the committee receives any complimentary seats or compensation whatever.

The upper gallery is still available and it is hoped some arrangement can be made to fill it for the remaining four numbers of the course. It would seem from the large crowds that have attended the two first numbers that it surely was a financial success, but we fail to consider the low price of these tickets which net only 16 2-3 cents per seat for the children's tickets and 33 1-3 cents per seat for each adult ticket. The capacity of the opera house is not large enough to support such a high grade course at such low prices. However, the committee has undertaken it and have every confidence that with the hearty support thus far accorded the enterprise it can be successfully terminated.

The next number is Poluhni & Co., magicians and musicians, Thursday night, December 13th. This promises to be one of the headliners of the course. Watch for further announcements.

Respectfully submitted, WILL ROBERTSON, G. E. DEWOLF, LYNN O. MINER, A. O. MOORE, ANG CLOIDT, C. C. WESCOTT, MRS. WM. BAIRD, MRS. J. E. WILES, Committee.

FOR SALE. The late Andy Dill homestead in the city of Plattsmouth, good house and three lots. For particulars, call or write B. Dill, Murray, Neb.

THANKSGIVING WITH THE BOYS AT FUNSTON

THE DAY WAS NOT WITHOUT ITS PLEASURES FOR THEM—SOME QUARANTINED.

HAD A FEAST OF GOOD THINGS

Letter from Sargeant Carl Dalton is Enthusiastic in Praise of the Work of Y. M. C. A.

From Saturday's Daily. A letter from Sargeant Carl Dalton tells of the conditions which prevail at Camp Funston. In it he also encloses a menu of the Thanksgiving day dinner, and in order that every one may know what the boys had, we publish below the menu.

The division in which Mr. Dalton is assigned to duty is under quarantine at this time, but the boys are hopeful of being released within a short time now.

His letter also tells of the good that the boys are deriving from the Y. M. C. A., saying that the forces of that organization canvass the camp every day inquiring if any one wants stationery upon which to write their letters, and furnish countless other conveniences that would not otherwise be given them.

Speaking further of the big dinner on Thanksgiving day, Mr. Dalton says that while it was not just the feast 'Mother' used to prepare, it had many of the characteristic earmarks of that home spread. Here is what they had to eat for their dinner, and what, from his report, every one of the soldier boys enjoyed a great deal:
