LOCAL NEWS

From Tuesday's Daily. M. McLeod of Omaha, was a visitor in this city today and also visited with friends at Mynard.

Mrs. W. H. Warren of LaPlatte came in this morning and is visiting with her daughter Mrs. George Wilfong.

Mrs. M. A. Street departed this afternoon for Weeping Water where she will visit with friends for a week or so.

Mrs. Will A. Robertson departed this morning on the early train for Omaha, where she will visit with friends for the day.

Ed Schean, of near Manley, was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where he is visiting with friends and looking after some business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bellows of Wahoo are visiting in this city at present, the guests of their daughter Mrs. Claude C. Smith and husband.

Mike Lutz of Louisville was a visitor in the city this morning coming on account of the accident which was responsible for the killing of his nephew Eddie McCulley.

J. R. Quinton of Brule, is visiting in this city a guest at the home of his brother Sheriff Quinton, and will after having visited here go to Avoca, where he will visit for some time with his mother.

P. F. Rhin departed this afternoon for Omaha where he goes to see Mrs. Rhin, who is at the Nebraska Methodist hospital, and where her condition remains about the same as heretofore according to a message this morning.

George Nichols of Murray and a few other gentlemen passed through this city today enroute for Omaha where they go to look after the purchase of an electric light plant to the town of Murray, if the proper arrangements can be made.

George W. Snyder and son Bryan arrived this morning on the early train from Chicago where they have been with four loads of cattle which were shipped from the feeding yards of Mr. Snyder's farm south west of Plattsmouth a few days ago.

Ed. Worl was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he goes to see his wife, who is at a hospital at that place. Mrs. Worl who was operated upon some time since, is making progress towards recovery very slow, but the physicians assure Mr. Worl that she will recover her usual health in time.

Albert Egenberger, who has been picking corn for W. A. Schutz, west of the city, on the Herman Bestor place, finished the field this morning and came to town. Albert says the corn is of excellent quality and contains but very few bad ears. In fact so little bad corn was found in the husking that it was not considered necessary to sort the corn.

W. A. Jones of South Bend, was in this city today looking after some business at the court house, and said that the corn was nearly all gathered at that place, and that there appeared to be about ten per cent of soft corn, but this the farmers had separated when they did their picking.

Mr. Jones remembered the Journal office by advancing his subscription for another year.

From Tuesday's Daily. W. H. Verner of Mynard motored to this city yesterday morning to attend to some important business matters. While here Mr. Verner gave this office a pleasant call.

John Sattler Jr., and Victor Kervonek, were passengers to Bellevue this morning, where they will look after some business for the day and will probably go to Omaha as well.

Mrs. Sam Long of South Bend, who has been visiting in this city with her brother O. M. Streight for the past week, departed last evening for her home at South Bend.

Frank Massie from southwest of Murray and wife were in the city coming in their car and were looking after some business at the court house last evening returning home later in the day.

A. L. Todd drove in from his country home, west of the city, Saturday afternoon, to attend to some business matters and visit friends for a short time. Mr. Todd was a pleasant caller at this office.

Mrs. Frank Adair, of Gretna, who has been visiting in the city for some days past, with her mother Mrs. J. B. Archer, coming to spend Thanksgiving with her and staying over Sunday departed this morning for her home.

J. M. Robertson and wife departed this afternoon for Omaha, where they will visit with their daughter Miss Blanche Robertson, and where Mr. Robertson has to meet with the Managing Board of the Masonic Home tomorrow.

Today was made in the county court the final settlement of the estate of Albert Ropert of near Weeping Water, wherein J. E. Teft was attorney and advisor for the estate, the final hearing was had this morning and the administrator Mrs. Albert Ropert Jr., was dismissed.

The county commissioners yesterday did but little except allow some bills. One action they did which was commendable was the granting of Mother's pension to the widow of the late Albert Hennegar, who lives near Weeping Water. The amount allowed was twenty dollars per month, and is very little these times.

Mrs. Robert Sivers and little children who have been visiting in Plattsmouth for the past few days with her parents Simon Clarke, departed yesterday afternoon for her home at Cedar Creek and was met at the station by Mr. Stivers who at the same time had been to Glenwood, Iowa, where he has been visiting with his parents. They then both proceeded to their home at Cedar Creek.

Farnk McNurlin from near Manley, was in the city today and accompanied by his wife and daughter, transacting business with our merchants, and looking after some matters at the county seat. While in the city Mr. McNurlin called for a little while on the editor of the Journal, and has a few moments of social conversation. Now we have to say that Frank's heart is in the right place, and he is a jolly good fellow.

From Monday's Daily. C. R. Troop was a passenger to Omaha this morning where he is looking after some business for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster and family of Union motored to this city yesterday and spent the day at the Larson home.

Mrs. Nettie Stanton and sister, Miss Mary Foster of Union motored to this city Saturday afternoon for a short visit with friends.

Beunita Porter who is employed in Omaha came down last Saturday and spent over Sunday at the home of her parents, W. B. Porter at their home in Mynard and returned to her work last evening.

C. R. Troop was a passenger to Omaha this morning where he is looking after some business at the south side market, and with a view of purchasing some feeders for his farm, south of this city.

Sinclair C. Stevens of Bellevue was in the city last Saturday looking for the opportunity to purchase some stock hogs, which are a very scarce article as the farmers are desiring to feed their damp corn and this offers an abundant opportunity for the doing so.

Charles Jelinek departed this morning for Scotts Bluffs, where he has some business to look after for the Bankers Realty Company of Omaha. Mr. Jelinek, who is the traveling representative for that institution will have work at Scotts Bluffs for the next three weeks, looking after the interest of a large hotel which that company is building there.

PATRIOTIC RALLY.

From Wednesday's Daily. A patriotic rally will be held in the Public Library Saturday evening Dec. 8th, at 7:30. Lieut. Simons and another officer from the Gov's Own Lucky Seventh regiment will speak. Hon. R. B. Windham will preside. Plattsmouth has not had very many strictly patriotic meetings of late and this is a good time for everybody to show their interest in their country cause. Come yourself and tell your friends. Saturday evening, Public Library at 7:30.
