BRITISH ARMY TAKES HISTORIC JERUSALEM

BIRTHPLACE OF CHRISTIANITY FALLS TO CHRISTIANS AFTER YEARS OF TURKISH RULE.

FALL ANNOUNCED TO COMMONS

London, Dec. 10.—Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, announced in the house of commons today that Jerusalem, after being surrounded on all sides by British troops, had surrendered.

Birthplace of Christianity.

Jerusalem, the birthplace of Christianity, is the most fought for city in the world. Down through the ages it has been battled for by Jew, Mohammedan, Pagan and Christian. The hills of Palestine have been drenched with Christian blood in mighty battles fought by fanatic Christian invaders. The historic city has been destroyed and rebuilt times without number, only to finally fall for the second time into the hands of Christian British.

The gigantic British encircling strategy took in, on the south, the little town of Bethlehem, where Christ was born, 2,017 years ago. There seems to be no doubt that the capture of Jerusalem is one of the most stupendous moral victories of the war.

It is a unique fact that British leaders and British armies now, as in the centuries past, are still the tenacious, successful foes of Mohammed's people. In the twelfth century Richard Coeur de Lion, in penitence for fancied sins, decided to absolve himself of mundane taints by engaging in an altruistic campaign for the deliverance of Jerusalem to Christian control. In a series of campaigns he fought the mighty Saladin through many sanguinary battles to a truce. He found it impossible to maintain a maximum fighting strength through the extensive line of communications. Disease and misfortune reduced his armies to nomadic bands, which were, some of them, taken as slaves by the Mussalmans. Others roamed the continent for years or engaged in mercenary wars wherever they found chieftains willing to employ them.

Richard himself became a fugitive was arrested by enemies while struggling his way through Austria, and only released when friends in Britain raised enormous ransoms.

Early History.

Briefly, Jerusalem was subject to Egypt about 1400 B. C. Later it passed into the possession of the Jebusites. David was the next conqueror. Its rise to a great city caused much jealousy among neighboring potentates.

The Egyptians and Assyrians and finally the Babylonians, under Nebuchadnezzar, employed the tactics the Germans have practiced on Belgium in the present war. Art treasures were removed, magnificent buildings burned and men and women deported to Babylon.

After seventy years, Cyrus permitted the Jews to return. They restored the city, and 588 B. C. rebuilt the ruins of Solomon's temple. A period of peace was enjoyed until Alexander's Macedonian empire collapsed. Then Jerusalem was sacked by Ptolemy Soter, who deported most of the populace to Alexandria. The Maccabees finally cast off the Macedonian yoke, and in 165 B. C. Jerusalem became independent.

Another period of comparative peace was uninterrupted until forty years after crucifixion. Tyranny of the Romans then drove some of the Jews to revolt.

Jerusalem was taken by insurgents in 66 A. D. and Titus regained it in 70 B. C., after one of the most terrific sieges and battles in history.

A rebellion of the Jews against feared idolatry came next. Rome regained control in the fourth century and there was a succession of Christian emperors until 636.

Then Caliph Omah, the Arabian, and his Mohammedans took the Holy City. His dynasty was succeeded by the Turks. All Europe became aroused by the cruelties of the Turks and their desecrations and the crusades were started.

Crusades Capture City.

The Crusaders carried Jerusalem by storm in 1099 and held it until 1187, when the famous Saladin conquered them and became master of the Holy City.

It is an interesting campaign that has just been successful in restoring Jerusalem. A glance at the geographical nature of the land over which the British advanced from Gaza to Jaffa to Jerusalem is intensely interesting.

Palestine, an almost regular rectangle may be divided into four equal parts lengthwise for this purpose. The strip along the Mediterranean sea is flat country, a continuous plain. The next strip to the west is mountainous. It resembles in general character the Catskill country of New York state, except that the hills and mountains are not so heavily wooded.

The third strip from the coast is a great depression through which the River Jordan flows.

The fourth is the plateau land which rises beyond the Jordan.

By taking the coastal route the English were able to advance with little trouble from natural obstacles. Some distance above Askelon the invading army apparently forked, one branch continuing up the coast to Jaffa and the other turning northward toward Jerusalem, which lies in the hilly country.

MISSOURI RIVER CLOSED NINTH.

From Tuesday's Daily. The Missouri river, stopped running ice on the ninth at nine o'clock in the evening, which is an early date, and at this time it was a solid clating of ice over its surface, so much so that one can cross in safety, but it would be a little risky for too heavy teams.

THE WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Civil war has broken out in Russia and the Bolsheviki regime apparently will be put to the test. The Petrograd government has issued a proclamation announcing that Generals Kaledines, Korniloff and Dutoff have begun a revolt in southeastern European Russia.

The Bolsheviki announcement declares that the constitutional democrats are assisting the hetman of the Don Cossacks and his fellow military leaders, who are said to aim at cutting off food supplies and in seizing power from the Black sea to the Ural mountains as well as in the Caucasus. Bolsheviki troops have been ordered to take the field against he counter revolutionists.

General Kaledines is said to be collecting his forces, and it is inferred that their objectives include Moscow. General Dutoff is leading the revolt in the province of Orenburg and is endeavoring to cut the trans-Siberian railway at Tcheliabinsk. Two towns in the Caucasus are besieged by forces under General Karaloff.

In Orenburg the Bolsheviki leaders have been arrested and the soldiers under them disarmed. In the new Ukrainian republic the middle class is reported to be assisting General Kaledines in opposition to the workmen's and soldiers' councils. The proclamation of the Bolsheviki denounces the constitutional democratic party and its leaders including Michael Rodzianko, the former president of the duma and Paul N. Milukoff, the former foreign minister.

The uprising in Portugal has resulted in the formulation of a new cabinet. The fighting was confined to Lisbon and the immediate neighborhood, the government and the government troops surrendering after two days of hostilities.

British and French troops have taken over from the Italians sections of the fighting front between Lake Garda and the Adriatic. The British are stationed along the upper Piave, but the positions of the French has not been disclosed. The Austro-Germans have not renewed their violent attacks on the Asiago plateau, the strong defense of the Italians apparently having been forced to stop their infantry activity to allow for the reforming of units. There has been artillery activity between the Brenta and the Piave and along the Piave, while Italian airplanes and airships have been attacking enemy camps and communications behind the lines.

RUSH OF APPLICANTS TO RECRUITING OFFICES

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Recruiting offices of every branch of the United States military service stationed in Chicago were overwhelmed today with a rush of applicants for enlistment. At several of the recruiting offices it was necessary to summon police to control the crowd which sought entrance.

Army officers said that fully five thousand volunteers would have applied before night.

Under instructions from Washington, today is the last day during which men subject to the draft would be accepted for the army and permitted to select the branch of service which they desired to enter.

WAS NEIGHBOR AND BUNKMATE.

From Monday's Daily. Walter Morrisette, whose life was lost on the patrol boat, the "Jacob Jones," which was sank by a German submarine a few days ago in the Atlantic ocean, was a neighbor to Mrs. Louis Minner, they living side by side in Council Bluffs. Mr. Morrisette was also for a long time the bunkmate of A. A. Alexander, of this city, when they were both members of the crew manning the "Can Francisco," some years ago. News of his death comes as a blow to these two Plattsmouth people who were so well acquainted with Mr. Morrisette, of whom they speak in a most complimentary manner.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Virtual completion of one of the government's three great fabricating steel merchant ship plants within seventy-six days' time was reported today to the shipping board. The yard, erected at Newark Bay by the submarine boat corporation, will lay the keels of three ships before the first of the year.

Chairman Hurley of the board accepted an invitation today to drive the first rivet December 17 in the first ship laid down.

The rapidity of construction has astonished shipping board officials. The yard is 90 per cent complete. Ships are expected to come from the yard in June, and it is planned to complete more than fifty before the end of 1918. The concern has contracts for 150 of a total tonnage of 750,000.
