OVER THE COUNTY

UNION
Ledger

Ed Young went to Lincoln on the morning train Friday where he was transacting business.

Miss Jeanette Patterson of Platts-mouth is assisting in the work at the bank this week.

Ralph Davis and Leland Young returned home from Kansas City on Saturday after a few days visit.

Wesley Chilcott, of Stockville, Nebraska, stopped off here Saturday after a five weeks' visit at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Anderson, who have been making their home on the M. G. McQuinn farm south-east of here, moved to Omaha the latter part of last week.

T. T. Arn, of Platts-mouth, was a business visitor here Monday. He formerly conducted a meat market in this place, having sold his business to Charles F. Morton a few years ago. He is still in the meat business in the county seat.

Jack Austin, who was one of the first young men of this place to be called into service through the selective draft, arrived home Wednesday morning. He was first sent to Camp Funston, Kansas, and later to Fort Pike, Arkansas. He was rejected from the army with an honorable discharge owing to defective eyesight.

Emil Fahrlander went to Omaha the first of last week with the expectation of joining the aviation department of the army, but since he took the examinations, conditions have been changed by that department and he was unable to enlist. He came home and will now wait for Uncle Sam to call on him, which is likely to be in the next draft.

A set of new harness was stolen from the Ray Minford farm just east of Murray one day last week and a few days later it was found in the E. J. Mougey corn field and was re-

The burial of Edward Heeney, who died of pneumonia at Deming, N. M., occurred at Manley Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph Kelly and her little daughter of Bernard, Iowa, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stander, at their home in the country south-west of Louisville.

Mrs. J. D. Ferguson, of Lincoln, and her daughter, Mrs. James Holling and little daughter, who have been visiting relatives in Cass county, left Saturday for California, expecting to spend the winter there.

Mrs. Thompson has received the pleasing intelligence of the arrival of a little girl at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chamberlain, at Milford. Mrs. Chamberlain was formerly Miss Ruth Thompson, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Diers, of Gresham, have entered into the realm of grandparents by the recent arrival of a fine baby boy at the home of their son, William Diers, known in Louisville as Billy. Grandpa "Shorty" Diers is so elated over the event that he declares he does not know whether he is 6 foot, 5 or 5 foot, 6. Congratulations!

Lieutenants G. L. Marsh and F. C. Harding, of the 41st Infantry of Fort Crook, and Miss Edith Dovey, of Platts-mouth, arrived on Saturday for an over Sunday visit with Miss Ruth Fitzgerald. Miss Fitzgerald and her guests were entertained very pleasantly on Saturday evening at the home of Mayor and Mrs. R. C. Yant.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sjogren were much disappointed to receive a letter from their son, Arthur, from Camp Funston, saying he could not spend Christmas at home, being quarantined for measles. Fred Terberry, another of our boys down there, is in the hospital suffering from an attack of measles and all the company is quarantined.

Word has reached us of the serious illness of Jake Zimmer at his home in Lincoln, here he has resided since leaving Louisville about twenty years ago. He is suffering from kidney trouble and no hopes for his recovery are entertained. Their daughter, Helen, died about a year ago, in Iowa, leaving a husband and one child.

Thomas Stander went to Omaha recently to enlist in the engineering department of the U. S. army, but was rejected because of a weakness in an injured eye. The doctor told him that probably within a few months he might be all right. Thomas is under the draft age, but is willing to do his bit along with the older ones. He is now at Lincoln, where he has a job as telephone inspector.

Olaf Lundberg is having his garage ceiling this week.

Frank Vantine of Arapahoe, is visiting in Nehawka this week.

Ernest Ahrends left Wednesday night for Camp Funston where he will visit with his son Fred.

The M. E. chicken dinner last Saturday was well patronized, and a very jolly and successful affair. The receipts were ample to buy a new ring for the Red Cross.

Everybody is invited to attend the Christmas program at the U. church on Christmas Eve, December 24. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Tom Mason, of Camp Funston came home Sunday morning and returned Tuesday morning after a visit with his home folks. He has no fault to find with soldiering.

There will be a meeting for the ladies of Nehawka and the surrounding country, Thursday afternoon. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing in this precinct the Woman's Council of Defense. Everyone is invited and urged to come.

It is now grandpa and grandma Lundberg, if you please. On Tuesday, the family received a telegram announcing the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Betts of Chapel, Nebraska, a fine girl baby, the first grandchild to Mr. and Mrs. Lundberg.

The W. O. W. initiated a new member in the person of R. Ketelhut last Monday night. After closing the lodge, the members and their wives enjoyed a splendid oyster supper. About 25 people were present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. A. Rutledge as invited guests.

A card from G. L. Briger states that he and his wife arrived at Orange, Cal. He says that it seems good to be among the flowers and the fruit of that country and that they are enjoying life and having a good time.

Last week we failed to mention the fact that Mr. and Mrs. John Kunz had moved away from the farm to their place in town. They are now getting settled but John says it will be some time yet before everything is in tip top shape.

We are informed by Will Hartman that his brother, Henry J. Hartman, who enlisted from Elmwood last April, left for France a few weeks ago as a member of the 5th U. S. Field Artillery of the American Expeditionary forces.

The Elmwood Electric light plant will be well equipped in a short time. One fine new engine has already been installed and an other engine of the same type has been ordered. With this new equipment there is no reason why we should not have as good service as can be had anywhere.

The Elmwood Home Guards had an enthusiastic meeting on Monday night. The society seems to have taken well by all and new members are being added to the list. Capt. Aldrich is getting things to moving in the right direction and the boys are doing their part by regular attendance and drill work.

Mr. Earl Crandell and Miss Florence Stutt were married at Nebraska City Wednesday of last week. Mr. Crandell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Crandell and is well known to all. The bride is an accomplished young lady. They will go to farming on a farm in the Crandell neighborhood. They have the hearty congratulations of all.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

HOLD ELECTION

From Thursday's Daily.

At their last meeting the Royal Neighbors, the ladies auxiliary of the Modern Woodmen of America, held their annual election, at which time they selected the following officers for the coming year. Mrs. Roland Shoemaker, Oricle; Mrs. Inez Stenner, Vice Oricle; Mrs. Anna K. Hild, Chancellor; Miss Garnet Cory, Recorder; Mrs. Margaret Tulene, Marshal; Mrs. Ida Belle Kunsman, Inside Sentinel; Mrs. Ida Brooks, Outside Sentinel and Mrs. Dolly Hudson, Manager.

FROM NEAR NEHAWKA.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Shoemaker and two sons Rudolph and Albert, from near Nehawka, were Platts-mouth visitors one day last week, and of course while here did not fail to call at the Journal office for a brief visit. This excellent family have been mighty good friends of this paper for many years ad they are always most welcome visitors.

F. A. HANSEN AND W. N. OBERNALT

from near Nehawka, were in the city for a few hours last Saturday afternoon, and while here paid the Journal office a pleasant call, Mr. Hansen renewing his paper for another year.

QUESTIONNAIRES MAILED

From Thursday's Daily.

There were eighty-one questionnaires sent out today, beginning with number 403 and continuing to and including 483. All those registrants whose order of drawing comes with these numbers may look for their questionnaire in the mail, for it has been sent. Remember that you only have seven days from today to get the questionnaire filled out and returned to the local board.

How to Prevent Croup.

In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as possible. It not only regulates the action of the bowels but stimulates the liver and keeps one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble and constipation as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.
