ANSWERED CALL THIS MORNING
From Friday's Daily.
At two o'clock this morning the death angel came to claim the soul of Mrs. Ralph Marshall, who has been sick at the home of Mr. Marshall's parents in this city. Mrs. Marshall, who has not been in the best of health for a considerable time, was engaged with her husband on the road, they being in the show business until the failing health of Mrs. Marshall necessitated their canceling their engagement, and Mr. Marshall accepted a position as salesman for the United Cigar Stores.
Mrs. Marshall came to Plattsmouth one week ago, since which time her health has failed rapidly. Mr. Marshall arrived yesterday morning from Chicago, he being here but a short time before her death.
Mrs. Marshall was born at Alexandria, Indiana, March 24, 1897, and was united in marriage to Mr. Marshall May 9, 1915. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Thomas Maddox and one brother and sister. The funeral will occur from the home of Dr. C. A. Marshall on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. H. G. McCluskey officiating, and interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.
ATTENDING FUNERAL TODAY.
From Saturday's Daily.
Wallace Brown and wife, from Omaha, passed through the city today on their way to the Elgin Mile Grove church where they were attending the funeral of W. S. Brown, who is a brother of Wallace Brown. Mr. Wallace Brown will be remembered as having lived in Plattsmouth for a number of years. Mrs. Brown being a daughter of Judge M. M. Archer who has been sick for the past ten days. Mr. Archer is feeling some better but is still confined to his bed.
INJURED AT THE "Q" SHOPS.
From Thursday's Daily.
Yesterday while engaged in his usual occupation at the Burlington shops, John Holstrom an employ in the coach department, had the misfortune to get his head caught between two portions of a car on which he was working, pinching him severely. His face was caught on one side and the back of his head on the other. The nose and the back portion of his head were squeezed rather hard, and he is feeling rather worse for the experience. The nose which was pressed down flat on his face bears evidence of the rough treatment, and is badly swollen and disfigured, not to say anything about the soreness.
WANTED TO SEE THE WORLD
From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday, instead of going to school, Byran Chorlton, aged twelve years and James Suchucek, living in the vicinity of 24th and Center streets, Omaha, yielded to a longing to see the world, and hiked to South Omaha, coming southward from there. They caught an auto ride to Plattsmouth and then loafed about the Missouri Pacific station here.
During the evening Sheriff Quinton was gotten into communication with by the Omaha authorities and he rounded the youths up, holding them until this afternoon when he returned them to their homes and parents there.
The boys declared they were on their way to St. Louis, but did not seem to mind having to return home with the sheriff the least bit.
RECEIVES LETTER FROM SON.
From Friday's Daily.
Mrs. Hettie Covert of this city is just in receipt of a letter from her son Logan Covert, who is stationed at Honolulu, in which he says that he and all the boys there are getting along in fine shape. He sends a clipping from "The Pacific Commercial" which gives a detailed account of a battle, which was staged at Fort Shafter, for the benefit of the visiting Congressmen, who were there but a short time since. The account tells how the battle field was lighted by illuminants thrown from mortars and his machine gun men worked with real bullets, but so directed as to injure no one, with the work of the artillery, infantry and hospital corps.

Logan Covert sends his mother a very beautiful pennant, which she prizes highly, it having on it a silk American flag, and also across the body, "In Memory of my trip to Hawaii." This pennant Mrs. Covert will keep as a remembrance of the visit of her son to the island, and of his experience there.
REPORTED IMPROVING NICELY.
From Friday's Daily.
A telegram from Rochester, Minnesota, where Mrs. J. M. Cunningham is at the hospital of the Mayo Brothers, and where she was recently operated upon for goitre is reported to be making satisfactory progress, and it was promised that she would be able to sit up today. Her rapid progress toward recovery will be pleasing news to her many friends in this city, who have been concerned about her condition.
BROTHER VERY SICK.
From Friday's Daily.
This morning Mrs. E. H. Elliott and children and Mrs. Albert Donnellson departed for Fairbury, where they are called by the extreme illness of a brother, Sergeant Harry J. Parker, who was located at Camp Cody at Deming, New Mexico, and where about a month since he was operated upon for appendicitis, and from which he did not recover as he should. He grew worse and had to be in the hospital most of the time, until he was sent home and now is not expected to recover.
RETURNS TO MISSOURI
From Friday's Daily.
Mrs. Josephine Fetty, who for the past few months has been making her home with a nephew, Walter Fetty, at Oreapolis, where he was section foreman for the Burlington, departed yesterday for her home at Blythedale, Mo. Mrs. Fetty's youngest son recently came here from Blythedale to work and his absence makes it necessary that she return home now.

THESE GERMANS LOYAL

Hebron, Neb., Dec. 21.—Americans of German birth and descent crowded the German Lutheran church at Friedensau, near here, last night and within an hour organized a Red Cross society with 133 members and purchased $2,520 worth of war savings certificates.
Patriotic addresses were given by G. A. Peterson, war savings chairman for Thayer county and Postmaster T. A. Willmore, of Hebron, who were highly pleased with the enthusiastic Americanism shown. When the school house was found to be too small, Rev. H. Schabacker invited the throng to the church.

"Help—your boy in the camp—in the navy—at the front—in the flying corps—driving an ambulance—your brother and sister in distress—JOIN TODAY."
