The M. E. church parsonage is undergoing a treat to repairing and painting so as to be ready for the new pastor and family when they arrive.

Zack Sharder has moved from the farm to Nehawka where the family will make their future home in the here having relatives and a large circle of friends in and around Union who wish the wedded couple all the bliss of married life.

Thus far this place and community has a clean slate with the State Council of Defense. There are some communities that have sent quite a delegation to appear before this council for using too much free speech against this country.

Nevertheless should we have any pro-germans that do likewise they will be called as have those of other localities.

NEHAWKA News

P. Opp is making a holiday visit with his daughter and family who live in York county.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alford, of Elmwood spent Christmas with relatives in Nehawka.

Mrs. Fred Rose, who had been at a hospital in Missouri for several weeks, returned home last Saturday afternoon.

Jas. Palmer and family returned today from a week's visit with Doctor Wilcox and family of Oskaloosa, Iowa.

John Heebner, who a few months since sold his farm to Zack Sharder, purchased the farm back again on Christmas day.

Miss Hazel Daglish of Chicago returned home Sunday after a visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keltner.

The M. E. church parsonage is undergoing a treat to repairing and painting so as to be ready for the new pastor and family when they arrive.

Peter Christopherson and daughters, Margaret, Gracie and Mrs. Elizabeth Meek of Lincoln, spent Christmas with Wm. Christopherson and family.

Conrad Crabtree and family are here from Hastings, and will make Eagle their home. Mr. C. will take over the Yoho general merchandise stock, and in future will have charge of the business. A cordial welcome is extended.

Dr. G. A. McCandless has had as his guests this week his brother, Leverett L. McCandless, and the latter's son, Elgie, of Butler, Penn. The latter is treasurer-elect of his county, and will return in time to be inducted into office Jan. 1. The Beacon scribe had the pleasure of meeting these gentlemen and enjoyed to the utmost their acquaintance-ship.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Frank Stokes came up from Camp Funston and spent Christmas with relatives returning Tuesday evening.

Herman Rosenow of Howard, Kan., who has been visiting here for the past few weeks returned to his home on Thursday.

Orley Clements, who is teaching at Sargent Bluffs, Iowa, is spending this vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Worley and children of Lincoln and Miss Kittie Worley of Omaha spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Worley.

Arthur Schneider, who is teaching school at Bloomfield, Nebr., arrived home Friday and is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schneider of this place.

Frank Lorenz came in from Fort Morgan, Colo., on Saturday evening to spend the Christmas vacation at home. Frank is looking fine and sure is feeling some "foxy". The climate there sure agrees with him.

Dr. Chas. Parrish is located at Camp McClellan, Ala. Remont Depot. From all indications Dr. is enjoying life but we deduce that he would be glad to step in some time and see his many Elmwood friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb returned on Wednesday of last week from Excelsior Springs, Mo., where they had gone on account of Mr. Cobb's health. He feels very much improved and they will return again later on.

Dick Elliott, happened with quite a misfortune last Saturday evening, which resulted in the breaking of one of his arms. He was cranking a Ford car when it "kicked," the handle striking his arm and breaking it. He was brought to town and received the proper surgical attention and at present is getting along as well as can be expected.

J. U. Deles Denier has purchased a 160 acre farm near Alvo, Nebr. The farm is 4 1/2 miles west of Alvo and is a fine farm. Dick Deles Denier has purchased the Wm. Mend-hall farm. J. U. Deles Denier will move to this farm in the spring and will not move to his farm for a year.

Mr. Mendenhall has not made known what he will do.

The Mendenhall farm is 85 acres and the consideration price for this farm was $200 per acre.

WEeping WATER Republican.

Mrs. F. P. Roselle went to Omaha Friday to meet her husband who was coming in from Wyoming where he is working at the oil business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sargent went to Omaha Friday to meet their son, Doane who was returning from Dayton, Ohio, where he has been working for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swindle and little daughter of Sheridan, Wyoming arrived Sunday night for a holiday visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swindle and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Domingo and other relatives.

Mrs. George Corley who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Day and other relatives left for her home at East Lake, Colorado, Saturday morning. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mrs. J. I. Corley.

Mrs. S. J. Hill of Hudsonville, Wash., arrived Friday night for an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Murty. She was accompanied by her son, Dr. Elmer Hill of Walla Walla, Wash., who visited here until Sunday going to Troy Kansas to spend Xmas at the home of his wife's parents where Mrs. Hill had been visiting for some time.

Ira Cappen and Earl Wildrick arrived Sunday night from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. They drew numbers to see who could come home for Christmas. Both of the boys were permitted to come home new as they drew odd numbers. They left this Thursday morning in order to be back by Friday to let the others, who drew even numbers, go to their homes for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reed arrived Wednesday morning from New Mexico, for a visit at the home of Mr. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Reed. The happy couple were married on Monday, the 24th, at Clayton, N. M. The bride was Miss Ethel Fitzgerald of Seneca, N. M., and the groom is a Weeping Water boy whom we have all known. We were surprised to see him get off the train and to be introduced to his wife for we did not know he had been married. But we are all glad of his good fortune and with all the friends of our community extend to both of them our heartiest wishes.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Miss Edith Stander, who teaches near Central City, is at home for the holidays.

Miss Lottie Koop, one of Omaha's efficient teachers, is spending her holidays with the home folks.

Wesley Blair came in from the west to spend Christmas with his grandparents, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Brobst.

M. L. Williams has moved his family back from the ranch near Grant, Neb. Mr. Williams and son Harold will go back in a few days and remain until March 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leard left last week for Missouri to spend the holidays with Mr. Leard's parents and other relatives. This was Mrs. Leard's first visit to her husband's people since their marriage.

Paul Jacobson sends us Christmas greetings from the Naval training station at Newport, Rhode Island. He was unable to get a furlough to come home for the holidays, much to the disappointment of his friends here.

Mrs. Janet Hayes, of Culbertson, Montana, arrived last week to visit her father, Alec Mitchell and other relatives in the vicinity of Weeping Water. She stopped in Louisville for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steinkamp, as her daughter Miss Anna, is making her home with the Steinkamps for the present.

Captain and Mrs. Atchison have returned to their home in Denver after a visit with friends in Louisville and other points in Cass county. They were on their way home from an extended trip east, where the combined business and pleasure of it over ten years since they left Louisville and they expressed surprise at the way their old home town had improved. While in Louisville, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ahl.

Frederick Stohman returned on Friday from the hospital in Omaha, where he recently underwent a serious operation on his right eye. The operation was successful, and while his eye is still very weak and is yet bandaged, he has every reason to feel that he will be able to see very well in a short time. This will be pleasing news to his many friends throughout the country who have known of his failing eyesight and have felt great sympathy for him.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.

From Saturday's Daily. The many friends in this city of Mrs. Agnes Chapman of Lincoln, will be sorry to learn of the illness of her son Clement. Clement was taken sick some three weeks ago with a severe attack of typhoid fever. The fever was broken last Wednesday and there was a change for the better. Last evening Mrs. John Chapman who is visiting her parents in this city received word that pneumonia had set in and he was dangerously ill. The many friends of Mrs. Chapman and Clement sincerely hope that the ravages of this dread disease may be stayed and Clement may be in his usual good health again.

FORMER RESIDENTS HERE.

W. H. Barker and wife, with their two daughters Blanch and Pearl of Takamah are visiting at the home of their relatives south west of the city being guests at the homes of the Wetencamp's. The Misses Blanch and Pearl were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they will visit for the day and look after some shopping. W. H. Barker and wife, who have lived near Takamah since leaving here some twelve or thirteen years ago, will in the spring depart for Colorado, where they will make their home. Westley Barker, their son, has been living in Colorado, for some time but at the present is visiting at Takamah, and is caring for the farm while the parents are visiting here.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

Lloyd Yonker of near Union, who has removed to Plattsouth, where he is employed in the Burlington shops, suffered a severe and sudden attack of hernia, a few days since just as he was starting for his days work and upon calling on a physician, it was deemed necessary to have him taken to a hospital at Omaha, where he was operated upon for the trouble. At recent reports he is now resting easy, and getting along as well as might be expected, but it will be some time before he is able to return and be able for his work again.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Owing to general business conditions necessitating narrow margins of profit it becomes necessary for me to change my method of doing business from a credit to a cash basis or to at least a first of the month payment plan, that is all accounts become due the first of the month following the purchase.

In so doing I feel that not only myself but that my customers shall profit by the change, as it will enable me to make better prices which I shall endeavor at all times to do.

I wish to thank one and all of my customers not only for the business you have given me but for your good will as well and ask you to come in to see me whenever you can, if I do not have in stock what you may want perhaps I may be of service to you in getting it for you.

Most respectfully, W. T. RICHARDSON.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Plattsouth. No Plattsouth resident who suffers backache, or annoying kidney and bladder ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mr. F. J. Brinkman, Eleventh & Paul Sts. Plattsouth, says: "For several years I had been bothered by my kidneys. My back often pained me severely. Headaches and dizzy spells were common and my sight became affected so badly that I could not read during these attacks. I was also troubled by my kidneys acting irregularly. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Edward Rynott & Co.'s Drug Store and they benefited me greatly in a short time." (Statement given April 10, 1912.)

On February 22, 1916, Mrs. Brinkman said: "I still consider Doan's Kidney Pills a fine kidney medicine. I gladly confirm my former endorsement."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Brinkman has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
