Refuse to Buy Them and Let Brave Men Die

While you are at home tonight beside the warm fire, many American boys over there in France will be out in the cold in blood-smeared trenches.

Tonight, while you are in your warm, snug bed, your own son or your neighbor's son "over there" may be dodging death from bomb and shrapnel.

The boys in the trenches have loaned their lives for you; won't you loan your money for them-loan it at 4 per cent compound interest, the highest rate the government has ever paid.
