

Special Values in Suits and Overcoats at $22.50

—The clothes we have are still priced right; the important thing as usual in any price you pay, is not the amount of money but the amount of value in the article.

—You may think $22.50 is a low price or a high one, that depends on what you compare it with.

—We ask you again to take advantage of low prices which cannot be with us long.

—Come in and look—we can convince you.

HIS IDEA LOOKS GOOD.

From Tuesday's Daily.

George Lloyd was at the Burlington station this morning enroute to the stock market at South Omaha, and in speaking of the prospect of buying some sheep to feed, suggested it would be a valuable idea to have the commercial clubs interest themselves in the proposition of having the farmers get some sheep for their farms, not alone to feed and then market, but to keep some on their farms all the time.

His suggestion was to have said the commercial club of Murray get a car of sheep from the South Omaha market, and see that a number of farmers in the vicinity of Murray would each take a small flock until they were all consumed, and keep them on the farm as they pay well and would consume such forage and pasture that other animals would not thus affording a saving and a profit to the farmers which he would not otherwise have. Then keep them for the clip which would pay another profit, and again it would enrich the land. The last but best, it would be conserving the roughness which would otherwise be wasted, and be assisting the government, as we are short of wool, and thus be doing an act of patriotism, which would be profitable to the people, and the nation.

RUMOR SAYS GERMAN CHANCELLOR TO QUIT

London, Jan. 14.—According to telegrams from Berlin today, Count von Hertling, the German imperial chancellor, is ill and will probably resign shortly, says an Exchange telegraph dispatch.

Some ten days ago there was a similar report from Berlin where the statement that Count von Hertling was indisposed was coupled with a rumor in political circles that there was an intrigue in progress to induce him to resign on the ground of ill-health in order to make way for Prince von Buelow as acceptant of the chancellorship.

Chancellor von Hertling shortly afterward, however, appeared before the reichstag's main committee to make a statement regarding the negotiations with Russia and it has been stated in Berlin advices that he would again appear before the reichstag this week to reply to Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson.
