UNION Ledger

J. M. Patterson and wife were visiting in Omaha Monday.
F. H. McCarthy autored to Omaha Monday morning, where he was looking after business.
E. L. Shoemaker returned home from Lincoln on Tuesday morning, where he had been on a short business trip.
Vance Harris, who is working in Fort Dodge, Iowa, with a railroad company, came in Sunday for a visit with his parents, C. F. Harris and family.
Cecil Harris, another former Union boy, is now "Somewhere in France" according to word which was received from him the first of the week.
W. H. Porter is now driving a new Dort Sedan. It is a nice looking car and when one notices how comfortable it appears to be it's hard to keep from envying him.
Walter Tower, of Plattsmouth, has been working for the Union Auto company the last week. He has worked in the Bauer garage in Plattsmouth for several years and is a mechanic who is hard to beat.
W. F. Pickering, who had been visiting relatives in Fairplay, Missouri, for a couple of weeks returned home Tuesday morning. He reports the weather rather cold down there and there was about a foot of snow on the ground when he left.
John and Forest Frans went to Omaha the first of the week and enlisted in the aviation service. The two young men are cousins and intend to keep together as much as possible. They left Omaha the next day for Ft. Logan, Colorado.
C. F. Harris was a passenger to Lincoln on Tuesday afternoon, and from there he went to Omaha to transact business. This was the second time Mr. Harris has been in Union since he was run over by an auto a few weeks ago and almost put out of commission.

LOUISVILLE Courier

The death of Mrs. Theodore Heim, a pioneer citizen of Louisville, occurred Thursday at 1 a. m., following a brief illness.

Colin H. Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball, who expected to serve in the Lucky Seventh has now joined the navy as fireman.
As we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. John Hennings, which occurred at the St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha Thursday morning, following a serious operation for rupture last Tuesday.
Miss Dorothy Group returned to her school work at the University of Nebraska Monday after an over Sunday visit with the home folks, coming down on account of the serious illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Theodore Heim.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lohnes have moved from Manley to Omaha, where they expect to make their home in the future. Mrs. Lohnes' two sisters, Miss Mary Wannemaker and Mrs. Leo Tighe, will spend the winter with her.
The Louisville friends of the C. C. Jackman family near Elmwood will be sorry to learn that several members of the family have contracted small pox and have been placed under quarantine. There are several other cases in that vicinity and the physicians are using every precaution to prevent the spread of it.
Miss Idella Kraft, who has been attending Boyles Business college in Omaha since last September, came home Tuesday for a few days' rest, having been suffering from a bad cold for several days. Her sister, Miss Martha Kraft, is employed at the Brandeis store and was at home during the holidays.
Dr. J. A. Peters, of Springfield, who formerly practiced medicine in Louisville, is now Lieutenant in the U. S. army. He has recently been assigned the duty of sanitary inspector at Camp Lee, Virginia, which is 100 miles from Washington. Mr. Peters is a man of exceptional ability and his Louisville friends extend congratulations.
Henry Thiele has moved his family from Yutan, Neb., where they have resided since leaving Louisville about two years ago, to Burlington, Colorado. The change was made for the benefit of Mrs. Thiele's health, she having been a great sufferer from Asthma. Their many Louisville friends hope she may derive great benefit by the move.

Don't forget that the Woodman Circle ladies will give a mask ball on Tuesday evening, January 22nd.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Floyd Morgan, who has had a ten days' furore from Camp Funston, Kansas, returned on Tuesday. He is much improved from his recent operation.
Henry Dehning, of Big Springs, Nebraska, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dehning. He reports everything fine at Big Springs.
F. J. Fitch was called to Omaha on Wednesday on account of the sickness of his mother at that place. At the present time his mother is somewhat better.
L. A. Tyson is again back at the drug store after a week's absence due to rheumatism. He looks a little pale, but says he is glad to get back to the old stand again.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rhoden went to Lincoln on Wednesday to attend the funeral services of David Mooreland, who died at College View of pneumonia.
A ten pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bauer of near Murdock Monday. Mrs. Bauer is a daughter of Mr. Wilkins, who just bought the J. P. Cobb property.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis received a message Saturday morning which conveyed the sad news of the death of the wife of their son at Los Angeles, California, at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Davis went from here to California last fall.
Will Garrison was home from Camp Funston from Friday until Sunday evening on a four days' leave of absence to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Garrison and family. Will says he likes the camp life fine. He states that they have good comfortable quarters and plenty to eat.
The large white owl that Albert Tuck and Everett Fisher shot sometime ago, two miles north of town and gave to Mrs. H. E. Sargent, who sent it to a taxidermist at Lincoln to be mounted, came in by express Monday. It is a fine specimen and a real novelty in the owl species as to color and size. It measured 52 inches from tip to tip of its wings.
Sometime on Saturday night the glass front of the Boone and Davis store was smeared with yellow paint. The act followed the refusal of this firm two days before to line up with other merchants in the early store closing campaign and is taken to mean a demonstration in protest against this attitude as well as a culmination of general criticisms that have been going on for some time against Mr. F. J. Davis of the firm for alleged money-tightness and indifference with regard to the various drives that have been conducted such as Liberty Loan, Red Cross, etc.

NEHAWKA News
