He is now in the garage business at Anita. He says his parents are still living at David City and that they will move to a farm near that place in March.

On Monday evening, Leonard Parish had the misfortune to have one of his legs broken above the ankle. Both bones were broken. It seems that he and several other young men were scuffling near the Neihart jewelry store and fell together on the cement walk with the result that Leonard sustained a broken leg. He was immediately taken to the doctor's office, where the broken limb was set and at present is doing nicely, but it will be a number of weeks before he can be around again.

NEHAWKA

News

Several of the young people enjoyed a party at the Ahrens home on Friday evening.

Martin Ross left Saturday evening for Camp Funston. He spent two weeks at home.

N. Berger, Herman Thomas and D. Steffens attended K. of P. lodge in Omaha Monday night.

East Nehawka has added one more young American to its population by the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin last week.

The Nehawka Farmers Grain Co. issued their semi-annual statement this week which shows they cleaned up the neat little wad of $8,000 for the year 1917.

Ben Tucker has moved into town and is now comfortably domiciled in the Banning property vacated by W. M. Stoner and family last week.

A revenue collector was here on Wednesday assisting the farmers to fill out their income blanks. The process appeared to be slow, and many points and questions that arise are sometimes difficult to decide.

The following named young men drove to Plattsmouth on Wednesday morning to appear for examination: Dave Harder, Walter Wunderlich, John Whiteman, and Verner Lundberg. At this date no report has been received of the outcome of the tests.

The Red Cross Helpers met with Leone Stoll Saturday, of which fourteen girls and boys were present. We also had a visitor. We all had a very nice time and worked hard for our brave soldiers. Next Saturday, February the 2nd, we will meet with Velma Wessel, and we invite every one to be present.

A Nehawka man has again broke the record. R. Ketelhut, of Nehawka drove to Lincoln this week on business. He thought he would take a can of cream along as it required no extra time or expense. He marketed the cream at the Beatrice Creamery Co., receiving in payment therefor a check for $12.15.

UNION

Ledger

Miss Janet Patterson, of Plattsmouth, came down Monday morning to visit with her brother and assist in the bank.

Fred Clark purchased the Frans property that has been occupied by Mrs. Frans and son, Ray. He is to get possession within a few weeks.

This is a nice piece of property and it looks as though we have another family as permanent residents of Union.

Miss Irma Wolfe, who is attending school at the State University, visited over Saturday and Sunday at the home of her uncle, L. J. Hall.

O. W. Finney spent Sunday and Monday with his family here. He returned to his work Monday morning in the western part of the county.

Chalmers Switzer of Nehawka stopped off here Tuesday morning on his way back from Omaha. His wife came down after him in their car.

Miss Fannie McCarroll spent Sunday at the home of her parents. She returned that afternoon for Nehawka, where she teaches one of the rural schools.

Postmaster Sikes has handed in his resignation which is to take effect March 1st. There will be a Civil Service examination held in Nebraska City February 23, for those who would like to try to fill the vacancy. If you wish to take the examination call at the post office at once and receive full particulars.

Electrician Fahrlander is cultivating a mysterious growth upon his upper lip which has the genuine appearance of Charley Chaplin. A misplaced Eyebrow club has been formed by a number of the young men of this place and from the prominent one Amil has, we judge he is the commander of the bunch.

A coyote was killed at the edge of town Monday morning by hounds belonging to Eaton and Ausburn. The hounds were kept working the greater part of the day, but met with no farther success. There are several coyotes around here and they are doing considerable damage to the hen roosts here in town.

THE WAY TO DO IT.

Out at Stanton the doors of the big Germania hall were nailed up the other night and across the front in big letters was painted a sign in yellow paint, "Closed forever for the protection of our boys at the front."

A number of business houses were decorated with yellow paint. Stanton is a German community, but they don't stand for pro-German utterances out that way.—Louisville Courier.

SELL LAND YESTERDAY.

Some six years ago J. F. Clugey purchased an eighty acres of land near Murray, without any improvements with the single exception of a fence, and has since rented it every year receiving a crop therefrom. When he purchased he paid for the land seventy dollars per acre, yesterday when he sold it he received one hundred and twenty-five dollars, which is very cheap when one considers the value of land.

WHEN THE AUTO HIT THE CURB

When the auto hit the curb, Wednesday evening on Washington avenue, it was going south instead of north. Also Guy was not driving the car, it is claimed to have been Ray.

SELLS A FINE MATCH TEAM.

Urwin L. Barnard, residing west of Mynard, sold a fine team of mares to Frank Parkening a few days ago for the neat sum of $450. They were a well matched team and worth the money, young, and well broke. Urwin makes a practice of buying up good young stuff in the way of horse flesh and breaking them for the market.

ANNOUNCES FORTH-COMING MARRIAGE

From Friday's Daily.

Gladys McMaken entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening at her home, at a Kensington. The guests worked busily until a late hour when the hostess led them to the dining room. In the center of the room the table was most beautifully decorated with a basket of ferns and yellow daisies, from which a shower of yellow and white satin streamers fell. At the end of the streamers were found a little white heart, which was tightly sealed. On breaking these seals, the guests found the following secret: Gladys Kara McMaken

Mr. Sherman Taylor, Jr.

February 6, 1918.

A lovely luncheon was then served by Mrs. McMaken, assisted by Mrs. Hilton of Chicago.

Miss Elsie Taylor of Wymore, Neb., sister of the groom was the out-of-town guest.

DAUGHTER SICK IN IOWA.

From Friday's Daily.

This morning A. S. Bennett departed for Omaha and from there he goes to Des Moines, where he will visit with his daughter Mrs. Robert Bell. Mr. Bell is a soldier in France, having been there for some time, going with the first that went to that place. Mrs. Bell is sick and her father goes to see her, and what he can do for her return to health.

MEETING AT HOTEL WAGNER.

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday at the Hotel Wagner, was held a meeting of the county council of defense, at which a large number of the committee from over the county were in attendance. They took up a number of important matters of business, among which was the raising of one hundred dollars for the county, and apportioned it at five dollars per ward or precinct, which will become more than the hundred for this county but they thought it would not matter. They discussed the card index matter and will in the near future be putting it into effect. The provisions of which are substantially as follows: A card is made and maintained for each person, who has property over or an income over one thousand dollars per year, and it will be known and kept as a matter of record, which he has contributed to the necessary funds, such as the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the K. C., the Y. W. C. A., the Syrian and Armenian relief fund, and other like organization.

No one need expect to dodge being on record for all will be placed on record and will be kept there. It will be known whether you have been and are doing your portion for the cause of liberty and humanity. The thought also to cause to be pushed the matter of membership in this council, which costs fifty cents and the membership cards can be obtained from any of the committee. They also created an executive committee, which is composed of the county president and secretary, and two other members, which shall be empowered with the duties inquiring in the loyalty of all persons and especially those in doubt, and with power to issue subpoenas.

WESTERN FOUNDRY

VS. RUMMERFIELD
