COMPLAIN ON SERVICE.

In regard to the High School Lecture Course, the people from out of town feel that they are not receiving fair treatment.

They paid just as much for their season tickets as the city people did, and feel as thought they should stand an equal show of reserving choice seats without the necessity of having to drive into town all the way from two to ten miles and some farther, just for the purpose of making the reservations. They spend from one-half to three-quarters of an hour trying to call the manager of the board only to be told by 'Central' that the line is busy, and if by any chance they should have good luck, and finally be given the line they are met by the response. "The manager is busy at the board, call again in fifteen minutes or half an hour", and of course by that time all seats are possibly a few in the last row of bal-
