Thrift Stamps!

The war is costing the United States $1,000,000 an hour. To offset this steady and tremendous drain upon the nation's cash resources, there must be a corresponding stream of dollars flowing into the national treasury.

Miss Eva LaRue, who has been employed in the Puls & Gansemer store for the past few weeks, has resigned his position. Mrs. S. O. Wilson was taken to the hospital in Omaha last Saturday, where she was operated upon for an attack of appendicitis. Frank Vallery and W. G. Boedeker made a deal this week whereby they become the owners of the Claggey eighty acre farm northwest of Murray. Dr. R. F. Brendel drove to Plattsmouth Tuesday and accompanied Dade Rakes to the hospital in Omaha, where Mr. Rakes will receive medical treatment. Mrs. Cecil Pettit has been among those on the sick list for the past few days. Her mother, Mrs. Metz, of Talmage, has been here visiting with her daughter for the past few days. Mrs. George Rhoden, who has been suffering for the past few weeks with a severe attack of blood poisoning and who returned home from the hospital some few days ago, is improving slowly. Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. William Wyrnich, of Pekin, Illinois and Mrs. Adam Hill, of Plattsmouth, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Puls, in Murray, Tuesday. John Farris and family, Mrs. W. S. Smith and Mrs. C. H. Harris all drove to Lincoln last Sunday, where they spent the day at the hospital with Mr. Harris. Crede's many friends will be pleased to learn that he is getting along nicely, and will soon be restored to his former health. Robert Good will soon become a resident of Murray, closing the deal last week whereby he purchases the old Loughridge homestead just east of Murray. This place contains twelve acres and is a mighty choice small tract of land. Mr. Good will move to the new place about the first of March. Sidney Cook, who has been making his home with his son, southeast of Murray, is making preparations for going to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he expects to make his home for some time at the Old Soldiers' Sanitarium. The old gentleman has not been in very good health for some time, and hopes to regain strength at the sanitarium. There came very near being a serious fire in Murray on last Monday morning about 9 o'clock at the W. A. Scott restaurant in Murray. The fire was evidently caused from a defective flue, and caught between the ceiling and the roof, and was making pretty good headway toward the destruction of the building when it was discovered. The faithful volunteer bucket brigade of Murray was mighty soon on hand, and no great damage was done. There was a hole several feet square burned in the roof. James Tigner and Miss Mary West were married in Omaha on Friday of last week, returning to Murray Saturday, and were met by a merry charivari party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls on Monday evening, where the occasion was duly celebrated. Miss Mary West was one of the popular young ladies of this community, well liked by all who knew her, where she was born and reared to young womanhood. The groom is a steady, energetic and prosperous farmer of this community and has proved himself a man of sterling worth among those about whom he has lived for so many years. The newly wedded couple will make their home on the James Chalfant farm near Union. The Journal joins with the many friends in extending congratulations.

J. M. Johns, of Plattsmouth, came down Tuesday morning to do some work at the Puls garage. John Hohecheidt, of Plattsmouth, came down Tuesday morning to remain over that day with his son, east of Murray. Harley, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Puls has been quite sick for the past few days, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls arrived home from Colorado last Saturday evening, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mrs. Puls' sister, Mrs. Fred Dirks. Death of Mrs. Fred S. Dirks. Pollock, who is pastor of a United Presbyterian church at Philadelphia, was down from Omaha, where he is aiding the government in some war work, for a visit with his cousins, T. H. and J. K. Pollock, of this place. Mr. Pollock is a very learned gentleman and is well informed on the things that pertain to making church work more efficient as well as upon the present war, which is his mission in Omaha and the middle west at this time. He is chairman of the National Service commission of the United Presbyterian church and is accompanied on this trip west by Rev. W. E. McCulloch, moderator of the United Presbyterian general assembly and Rev. G. E. Hiatt, of Pittsburg, the three being members of the commission organized at the suggestion of President Wilson to aid in war work both at home and across the water. While in Omaha these men are engaged in making talks to meetings over the city, they having spoken before a company of Commercial club members and will tonight address a meeting at the Presbyterian church at Twenty-fourth and Dodge streets in Omaha. Mr. Pollock is a very pleasing gentleman to meet and a fine conversationalist.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE FLAGS. Many complaints are coming to our ears regarding the dilapidated appearance the flags are in over the city, our attention was called to the one which was at the Garfield Park staff, but which is entirely gone, and the half one which flies from the court house. Looks like we could afford better flags than the conditions of the ones in use. Subscribe for the Journal.
