OVER THE COUNTY

LOUISVILLE
Courier

Mrs. Dan Phelps and little daughter Gladys, of Gordon, visited relatives in Louisville last week.

Postmaster F. H. Ossenkop is still very much under the weather and not able to attend to his official duties.

Born—Saturday, Feb. 23, 1918, to Mr. and Mrs. John Gakemeier, a daughter. The Courier joins in congratulations with the many friends.

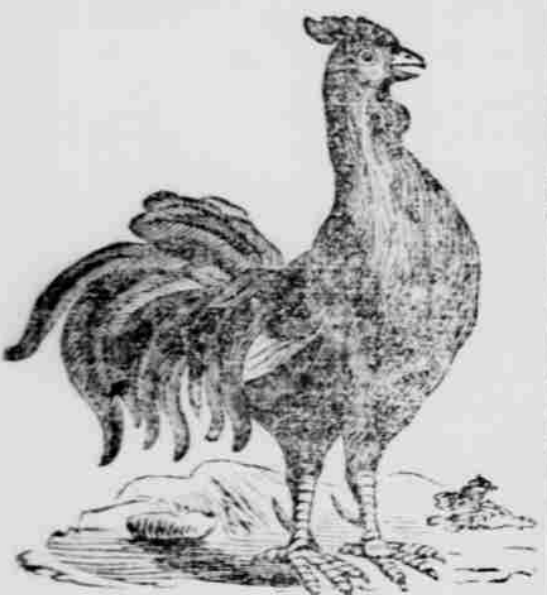

Miss Agnes Stander, who is attending school in Omaha, came home Friday for a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Stander and family.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. held their second quilting at the home of the local president, Miss Edith Shryock Tuesday. A splendid dinner was served and a busy and pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berger, who spent the winter in and around Orange, California, are now in Long Beach, visiting Mr. Berger's sister, Mrs. J. D. Ferguson. They will return to Nebraska within a few weeks.

Sam Panska, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, has been visiting his father, August Panska and family at Murdock, and other Cass county relatives and friends. He has a position with the U. P. R. R., as hotel inspector out of Omaha.

F. G. DAWSON

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard Scheel and family drove down from their farm near Washington, Nebraska, the first of the week to visit a couple of days with relatives and old friends. Mr. Scheel says he found the roads much better than he had expected.

Earl Baum, of Prague, who is at home from the U. S. naval training station at Great Lakes on a 30 days' furlough, visited his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson Wednesday. The Courier acknowledges a pleasant call.

Arthur Sjogren, Fred Terryberry, Walter Salsberg and Martin Lohnes had the pleasure of a trip home from Camp Funston to spend Sunday with their home folks. They are all well and look handsome in their uniforms and their friends certainly have reason to feel proud of these young soldiers.

Miss Lottie Koop, who is teaching in the Saunders school in Omaha, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Koop over Sunday. Miss Lottie has been promoted from the annex of the Saunders school, where she taught the 4th and 5th grades, to the main building and is now teaching the 6th, 7th and 8th grades. She is well pleased with her work, and finds it very interesting.

UNION
Ledger

W. B. Banning left Sunday afternoon for St. Louis on a business trip.

L. J. Hall returned Sunday night from the western part of the state where he had been buying horses and mules.

Food Administrator Banning made a trip to the western part of the county last week, where some people were not complying with the food laws.

A deal was closed last week whereby Geo. Shraider purchased the 40 acres of land which joins him on the north from John Chalfant for $187.50 per acre.

L. R. Upton was absent from his store several days the last week due to optical trouble. Our friend Gabe was about the busiest man in town during his absence having about all the work he cared to do.

Clyde B. Lynde, who had been here about a week visiting his parents left for Fort Monro, Sunday. He had just returned from Honolulu and received a five day furlough while on his way.

Miss Lottie Hoback was taken to Omaha Saturday afternoon where she was operated upon for appendicitis Tuesday. The last word received from her she was getting along as well as could be expected.

Frank Brinkman who has lived a mile south east of town on the farm purchased from J. H. Ruhman over a year ago and who of late re-sold the farm loaded his car Wednesday which was sent to Syracuse where he will farm.

Carl Cross was in the Ledger office Monday afternoon and reported the arrival of a daughter at their home Saturday evening. We smoked a real cigar on the occasion and hope the little Miss will not fret and cause "Dad" a great deal of trouble. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

WEeping WATER
Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, of near Plattsmouth are moving onto the farm north of town purchased of Mr. Frank Johnson, who is moving to Ord, Neb.

Floyd Cole and family, west of town, are moving this week to Burwell, Nebr., where they have purchased a farm. John Hopkins will occupy the farm vacated by Mr. Cole.

Soren Skamris was the high bidder Tuesday at the referees sale of the Spohn farm 2 miles east of town, buying the tract of land for $12,000 which was practically $90 per acre.

A letter from Francis Baldwin to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Baldwin, states he has been moved from Camp Funston to New Jersey and is now in the Locomotive Engineering department.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winter and family left Wednesday morning for Arcadia, where they will make their home. Their household goods left Saturday with Mr. Frank Jameson in his emigrant car.

Mrs. A. E. Calkins of York and her cousin, Arthur Soller, of Kenesaw, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Calkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruhga, returned to their homes Tuesday evening.

Night Watchman C. T. Noell reports an aeroplane going over the town about 5:30 Wednesday morning. He said the machine came from the southwest and made its way northward and was humming right along.

Mrs. John Noell and the children who had been spending a week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wollen, and her twin sister, Mrs. Robert Baker and other relatives here, returned to her home at Murray this (Thursday) morning.

Frank Wagoner, who moved to Loup City, onto a farm, about a year ago, is visiting relatives and old friends in this vicinity. Frank is really enjoying the muddy weather as he says he could do nothing at home for that reason and can enjoy his visit better.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lehman received a letter Monday from their son, Harold, not to write until they heard from him. The letter stated he has 48 hours land leave and before the time had expired he was notified to report for duty at the Battleship Oregon at San Diego.

Roy Malcolm was up from Camp Funston Saturday and Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. Joe Malcolm, who is quite poorly, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charlie Hall, at Nehawka. Roy stopped off in Weeping Water to visit his aunt, Mrs. Will Coatman. Roy is one of the cooks at Camp Funston.

Henry Smith returned Saturday evening from Orange, California, to which place he was called several weeks ago on account of the serious condition of his father, R. S. Smith, who was suffering with a paralytic stroke. Henry left his father much better than he had been but a long way from being a well man. The many friends of Mr. Smith here, will regret to hear of his affliction.

In remitting her subscription to the News she states it was the first letter or business she has attended to in that time. She states that she is feeling much better now, but can sit up only a few minutes at a time.

BULGARIAN CHANCELLOR
AT STOCKHOLM CASTS HIS LOT WITH THE ALLIES

Stockholm, Feb. 28.—Having sent by mail and telegraph to the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, Zhekov, at Kustendil, his formal refusal to serve longer in the Bulgarian army, Vladimir Tsanoff, chancellor of the Bulgarian legation here, delivered in person to Minister Morris the following note:

"To the American Minister, Stockholm: Having renounced service under the Bulgarian colors for the reason the Bulgarian troops have appeared in France to fight, as I earnestly believe against Europe's liberties, I have the honor to request you to transmit to the president of the United States my application for permission to enlist in the American army for immediate service in France in defense of free institutions. I have the honor to be yours very truly, Vladimir Tsanoff."

Tsanoff's only comment after seeing Minister Morris was: "I am forsaking the Bulgarian cause for the Slav cause. I am leaving the Bulgarian fatherland for the great Slav fatherland."

Tsanoff delivered his Bulgarian cipher code to the Bulgarian legation today and refused to accept 4,000 crowns back salary, which had just arrived from Sofia.

Tsanoff was closeted with Minister Morris for half an hour. At the conclusion of the interview Morris shook Tsanoff's hand, saying, "I congratulate you."

Tsanoff's parting with the Bulgarian minister was solemn, but not bitter, the minister saying:

"I am sorry. Had I known this, I should have tried to dissuade you."

LETTER FROM FREDERICKSON

From Thursday's Daily.

Mr. Webb of the Journal composing rooms has received a letter from K. A. Fredrickson, of Weeping Water, who left here a fortnight ago to complete his enlistment in the navy as an electrician and who was at once shipped to the naval training school at Newport, R. I. He likes the life very well and writes interestingly of how Uncle Sam is bending every effort to whip soldiers and sailors into training as quickly as possible.

Previous to his enlistment Mr. Fredrickson was employed as an electrician at Nebraska City and also worked at the same trade at Louisville some time ago. He is bright and capable and we expect to see him advance before the expiration of the four year term for which he is enlisted.

HAS ONE HUNDRED PER CENT

From Thursday's Daily.

Miss Myrtle W. Foster, teacher of district number one of Otoe county, and located at Wyoming, has the banner school, as she now has one hundred per cent on the Red Cross record. There are twenty-nine students in her school, and two of them are Mexican children, their father working on the section for the Missouri Pacific, but still the two little tots brought in the one dollar each necessary to make them members of the Red Cross.

DEPARTED FOR KANSAS

From Thursday's Daily.

Burdette Briggs departed on the midnight train last night for Kansas City, where he expected to join G. R. Olson, who is going from Chicago to Junction City, Kansas, and will there be engaged by the Olson Photo Co., as grinder of safety razor blades, in that department of their works. Mr. Olson has built up a very lucrative business in that particular line as well as in the photo-finishing department since locating at the cantonment at Camp Funston and hopes to do even more this summer.

Mrs. G. W. Pughley was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where she will visit over the week end.

Wool or Wolf?

—Cheat the wolf by bringing home the woollens now. In the Fall woollens won't be very sociable with the man of moderate means—in fact they will be as strangers.

—You will exhibit good judgment by buying that next winter's suit right now—while you are sure of getting the real article.

$20 to $30

buys it now—what it will be by Fall would be painful to hear.

Our Spring clothing is arriving. Just drop in and inspect the military models in Kuppenheimer and Clothcraft. You no doubt are about ready for the Spring suit.
