BYRON GOLDING,

Concerning that Case of Winter Underwear!

About January first we secured a case of men's heavy fleeced union suits at the same price we bought them for a year ago. We knew that ordinarilly we would not sell that amount of winter underwear this season and we expected to carry it over till next fall. We offered it to our trade at $1.35 for next winter's use and to our surprise we have sold about 1/2 of this case already. Now we know the people of this community believe in preparedness and so we are going to leave the balance of this case on sale at $1.35, so you can lay in your supply if you want to. You'll believe us when we say that we could not buy a car load of this same underwear today as cheap as we are offering it to you.

Men's heavy blue bib overalls at $1.75 are getting scarce!
