

WILLIAM FOX PRESENTS

THE DA BARA

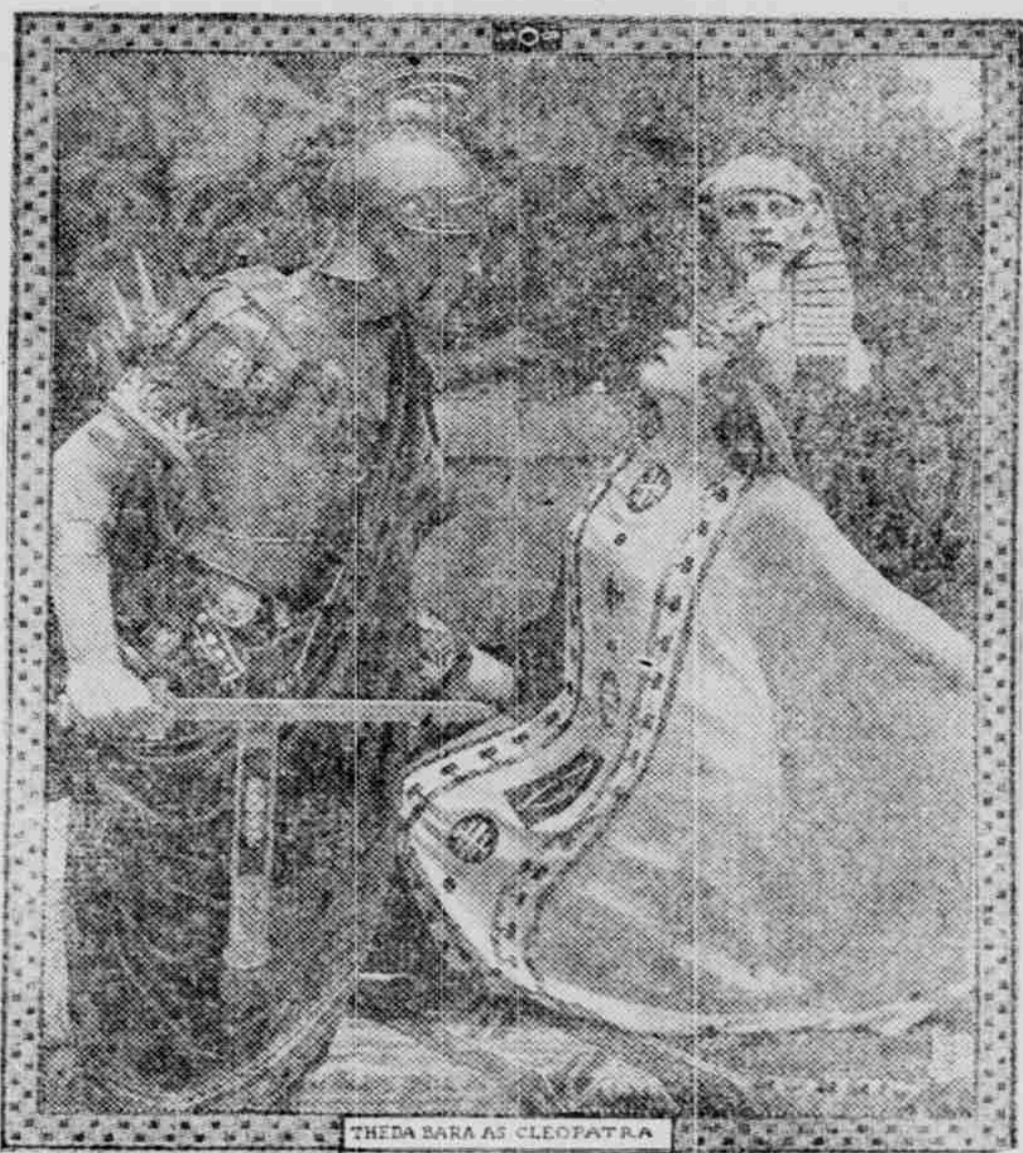

-Gem Theatre- Tuesday and Wednesday, Twice Daily- 2:15 and 8:15

SEE the Passions and Pageants of Egypt's Vampire Queen! how and why one woman overturned the world! how Cleopatra conquered the two greatest men of her time!

You'll Quit Home as Caesar Left Rome to see CLEOPATRA!

-Caesar Went 1,000 Miles to See Cleopatra- You Can See Her in Plattsmouth!

-Remember the Dates!-

-Plattsmouth, - March 12th and 13th. Twice Daily- 2:15 and 8:15

-WHY-

Did Antony Stay in Egypt? Get Your Answer at the Gem Theatre!

This is the life if you don't weaken

-It Cost Caesar an Empire to See Cleopatra- It Will Cost You 50c, 75c and $1.00

Secure Your Seats Early!

IN "CLEOPATRA"

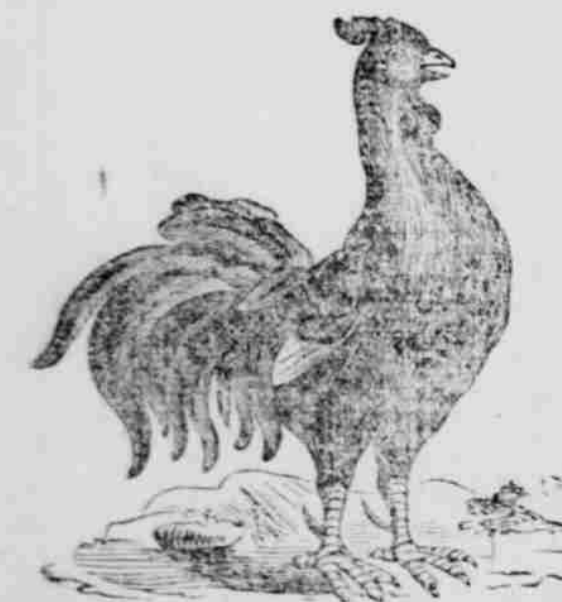

The Greatest Achievement and Advance in Dramatic and Spectacular Presentation in all the History of the Stage!

LOCAL NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily: George Dent of Elmwood was looking after some business in the county court today, having come over this morning. Miss Mary Wetencamp of west of Myard was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where she is visiting for the day. Ed Everhart of Weeping Water was a visitor in Plattsmouth today, having come over to look after some matters at the county court. Ira Bates from near Cedar Creek arrived in the city this morning and is looking after some business at the county seat and also in the city. J. Johanson of near Murdock was looking after some business in this city yesterday, and at the court house, departing for his home last evening.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

Poultry Wanted!

- Hens 20c
Springs 20c
Broilers 1 1/4 to 2 lbs. per lb. 20c
Stags 18c
Ducks 18c
Geese 17c
Old Roosters 12c
Eggs 25c

F. G. DAWSON

J. C. Spangler of Louisville was attending to some business matters in this city yesterday and while here called at this office and renewed his subscription. Mrs. Will A. Oliver departed last evening for Louisville, where she will assist in getting the household of Will Oliver, her son arranged, they just having moved to that place. R. S. McCleary from near Weeping Water was a business visitor in this city this morning, and departed for Omaha on the early train where he also has some matters to look after. August Roman and Oscar Anderson were in the city yesterday looking after some matters in the court house regarding a road near Weeping Water and departed for their home last evening. L. E. Terryberry and wife from near Murray were visitors in Plattsmouth this morning and departed on the early train this morning for Omaha, where they are looking after some business for the day. E. L. Shoemaker of Union was visiting friends and attending to some important business matters in this city yesterday. He was a pleasant caller at this office and while here renewed his subscription for another year. Peter Olson and William Kirkpatrick from Weeping Water were in the city yesterday meeting with the commissioners regarding a road some two miles northwest of Weeping Water. They departed for their home last evening. Ralph H. Meisinger, Ed. Wagner, Fred Wagner and Henry Wagner of near Cedar Creek came down to this city on the morning train to attend to some business matters and visit friends for a short time. Mr. Meisinger gave this office a pleasant call and while here renewed his subscription. S. E. Wixson, who a few days since went to Omaha for a tractor, got as far as LaPlatte and the roads became so soft and muddy that he thought it best to leave the tractor there and come on home, went to LaPlatte this afternoon to bring the machine home, the roads having frozen the mud some dryer. H. K. Davis and Charles Pankonin, both of Louisville arrived in this city this morning, coming to complete the work of making their card index for the precinct of Louisville for use of the Cass county War Relief Committee, which is listing every person of that place for war work relief purpose. They had partially completed their list some days since and come now to complete the canvass.

From Tuesday's Daily: Joseph E. Wheeler from near Rock Bluffs was looking after some business in Plattsmouth last evening. Meek Davis from near Murray was a business visitor in the city yesterday and returned to his home last evening. Adam Meisinger from near Cedar Creek was called to Plattsmouth this morning to look after some business in the city. August Krecklow of near Manley was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some business at the court house. Ph. Meisinger from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city this morning, coming to look after some business in the city. L. H. Farrell of near Eagle was a visitor in this city this afternoon, coming to look after some business at the county court. William Delles Denier, from Elmwood was a visitor in this city this afternoon, having some business in the county court. Harry Long of South Bend was a visitor in the city yesterday looking after some business and returned to his home last evening. Mrs. W. E. White of LaPlatte was a visitor in this city this morning coming to do some trading with the Plattsmouth merchants. John Stander of near Louisville was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning coming to look after some business at the court house. Mrs. V. T. Arn and children who have been visiting at Union for some days past with the folks of Mrs. Arn returned home last evening. A. A. Irvin of Weeping Water was transacting business this morning in the city, and looking after some matters at the court house as well. Martin L. Williams of Louisville was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some matters in the city and at the court house. Fred Durham of Avoca, arrived in the city this afternoon and is answering the call to go to Camp Funston with the boys on the midnight train. J. M. Patterson came up this morning from Union and departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where he was called on some business. Orin McGrady of Weeping Water was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, where he was called to look after some business for the day at the court house. D. B. Jardine and family who have been making their home near Weeping Water, where they have been farming for the past year, is moving to their new home near Louisville. Mrs. J. M. Patterson of Union who has been visiting in this city for the past few days was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon where she will visit for the afternoon. Henry Hoebner who conducts the Duff Grain company elevator at Cedar Creek, was a visitor in this city for a time Monday while on his way to his work from his home in Murray. Dow Critchfield of Bethany, but formerly of Weeping Water, and where he is interested now, was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning looking after some business at the court house. Henry Albert and wife of near Louisville were visitors in this city yesterday coming to visit with friends and were guests at the home of J. M. Jiroucek and departed for their home last night. Mrs. G. L. Meisinger and daughter Miss Dora, from near Cedar Creek were visiting with their friends in this city today, and were also looking after some business while here, coming on the train this morning and returning in the afternoon. Mrs. Bessie Gadway, of Miller, a sister of Mrs. Edward Ripple, who has been visiting in this city for some days past departed last evening for Louisville, where she will visit with friends and relatives before departing for her home at Miller. Nicholas Limpach, Guy E. Rung and Walter W. Olsen, all coming from near Greenwood, this morning arrived in the city to report for service to go to Camp Funston, with the last division of the first quota of selection, which go from Cass County. Lee Mayfield the publisher of the Louisville Courier, was a visitor in this city this morning coming to look after some business at the court house, and also to look after some matters in the city. He was a caller at the office of the Journal, for a short time. Pollock Parmele departed last evening for Camp Funston, after a two days visit in this city with his family and friends. Pollock is looking fine, and goes back to Camp

Funston, where he has been, expecting to be transferred to some other place at any time. E. L. Shumaker from Union who has been selected by the County Council of Defense was a visitor in the city today looking after seed corn, and will try and find enough seed corn that may be distributed over the county that all may have an abundant of good seed, for on this depends the coming crop. From Monday's Daily: Herbert Thacker who is engaged working in a farm near Union was a visitor in this city over Sunday and returned to his work last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lepert, residing just south of this city, are the proud parents of a new baby boy, which arrived at their home, March first. J. M. Bauer and wife departed this afternoon for Pacific Junction, where they go to conduct the farm of

M. A. Hall on the other side of the Big Muddy. Carl Lopp of near Nehawka was attending to some business matters in this city Saturday and while here, called at this office and subscribed for the Plattsmouth Journal. J. J. Tomah of near Murray was looking after some business matters in this city Saturday and called at this office and renewed his subscription to the Plattsmouth Journal. Will A. Oliver departed last Saturday for Louisville, where he goes to help his son Will unload a car of farming machinery which he has shipped there as he is making that his home. John Albert and wife were passengers to Louisville last Saturday afternoon, where they went to visit at the home of their son John Albert and family over the Sunday holiday. J. S. Mann and family who have lived in this city for the past four months, and when he came attempted to conduct a shooting gallery, moved today to Louisville, where he will engage in the same thing. Mrs. Robert Troop who has been visiting at Farnam, for the past three weeks, going at the time to care for her brother-in-law Col. Bradshaw. Mrs. Troop reports Mr. Bradshaw much improved, and also Miss Mary Troop who has been sick at that place as well is greatly improved. Spring Is Nice, But- Lack of fresh vegetable food and interrupted, changing habits make these trying weeks for any one inclined to constipation. Foley Cathartic Tablets are just the thing for indigestion, biliousness, gas on stomach, furred tongue, headache, or other condition indicating clogged bowels. Cause no bad after effects. Sold everywhere. Subscribe for the Journal.

And Only Here Such Blouses at $1.00

Picturing the four new styles on sale now!

All Wirthmor models - and true to their name worth more!

GO where you will the Nation over and you will nowhere find waists that in real service giving and value giving qualities, rival the Wirthmor that we - and we alone in this city - sell at $1.00. Add to this quality excellence the fact that these Blouses always embody the newest and most wanted style notes - and you will readily understand why the Wirthmor is the most popular and fastest selling Dollar Waist in America.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN,

Call Phones 53 and 54.

We Like to Serve.