

MANLEY STATE BANK

MANLEY, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $13,000

OFFICERS

FRANK STANDER
AUGUST STANDER
AUGUST PAUTSCH
THOMAS E. PARMELE
WM. J. RAU.

MURRAY STATE BANK

MURRAY, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $15,000

DIRECTORS

CHAS. C. PARMELE, President.
FRED NUTZMAN, Vice-President.
W. GLEN BOEDEKER, Cashier.

BANK OF CASS COUNTY

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $80,000

OFFICERS

CHAS. C. PARMELE
JACOB TRITSCH
THOMAS E. PARMELE
R. F. PATTERSON
F. G. EGENBERGER

BANK OF COMMERCE

LOUISVILLE, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $23,000

OFFICERS

THOMAS E. PARMELE, President.
CHAS. C. PARMELE, Vice-President.
PAUL FITZGERALD, Cashier.
RALPH R. LARSON, Asst. Cashier.

FIRST SECURITY BANK

CEDAR CREEK, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $10,000

OFFICERS

WILLIAM SCHNEIDER, President.
W. H. LOHNES, Vice-President.
THOMAS E. PARMELE, Director.

Our Facilities Enable Us to Handle Your Business in this County Promptly and Economically and on this Basis We Invite Your Patronage.

OVER THE COUNTY

LOUISVILLE
Courier

Fred Huff, another Louisville boy, has been called to the colors. He left Tuesday for the training camp at Funston.

Thomas Stander, who is in the employ of the Lincoln Telephone company, is at home this week for a short visit.

Dr. E. H. Worthman has been suffering from a severe cold this week, which settled in his vocal cords, causing him considerable hoarseness and discomfort.

The hand boys will give a three days' fair at the Opera House, March 18, 19 and 20. There will be prizes given to the most handsome lady and the most popular gentleman.

Tom Fisher left last week for San Francisco to enter the U. S. Naval training school. He enlisted in December, but was not called into training until the last of February.

Chris Metzgar, of Omaha, drove through Louisville Sunday enroute from Cedar Creek to Meadow, where he took the Rock Island for his home in Omaha.

William Diers, of Gresham, who has been attending market week in Omaha, came down Monday for an overnight visit with his uncle, W. F. Diers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mallau have returned from a trip to Utica, where they went, combining business and pleasure.

Mrs. S. C. Kockler has returned from a week's visit at the John Petersen home at Pleasantdale. She reports a little daughter that arrived at the Petersen home about two weeks ago.

Henry Heil has moved his family to town into the handsome bungalow which he purchased of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wilson. Mr. Wilson has purchased the house west of the Missouri Pacific tracks formerly owned by Mrs. John Kahler and they have moved into it and are fixing it up to make it more attractive and comfortable.

UNION
Ledger

Miss Lyda Clark left Saturday afternoon for Falls City where she will visit for a short time with the G. P. Barton family and other friends.

We were informed that from now on there will be no electric power during the day except Tuesday mornings until the storage batteries have been repaired.

Lemuel Barritt, who is now one of the mail carriers has been compelled to make the route on horse back the last few days owing to the poor condition of the roads.

D. B. Porter left Saturday afternoon for Tarkio, Missouri, where he went to attend a sale of Duroc-Jersey hogs. Mr. Porter has several nice specimens of this breed and intends to raise more.

A deal was closed the latter part of last week whereby C. W. Clark became owner of the hotel which he has been operating for several years. The building was owned by Mrs. Ida Davis Goldsworthy of Oatman, Arizona.

Last Wednesday evening a reception was held at the M. E. parsonage for Mr. and Mrs. Sikes and family. On account of the weather and bad roads the crowd was small, but yet in spite of the weather and no electric lights there were about forty present.

Frank Boggs, who recently started to install fixtures in the building vacated by the postoffice now has a real neat restaurant and should do a good business. The restaurant fixtures were moved from the hotel and now it is being operated as a hotel only.

Len Thacker, who has had charge of the Standard Oil trade here for some time was transferred to Plattsmouth the first of the month where he will be for some time. Roy Yonker of this place has accepted the position held by Mr. Thacker and is now skinning the mules to a good advantage.

Herman Swanson received word last Friday that his father had died at a hospital in Omaha and he with his family left at once for that place. From Omaha they went to Osceola, Nebraska, where his parents live and where the funeral was held. Mr. Swanson's friends were grieved to hear of the sad news and share the sorrow with the family.

WEEPING WATER
Republican.

Bert Reed was an over Sunday visitor in Elmwood with his wife, who has been sick at the home of her parents, but is getting much better.

W. J. Philpot, Lee Brown, Ed. Boedeker and Ed Gansemer, farmers northeast of town, shipped some cattle to the Omaha market Tuesday.

George Bennett and wife arrived Wednesday night from the western part of the state and will make their home on his father's farm southeast of town.

Mrs. Jake Shafer, northeast of town, who was quite seriously injured last week by falling down the cellar steps, is reported as getting along nicely.

George Reckard and family moved back to Weeping Water again last week from Auburn, where they have been living. They have located in the Philpot house on the hill in the southeast part of town.

Wayne Switzer, who had been here a week, returned Sunday evening to his home at Verona, Wyoming. He has sold out in Wyoming, and will move back to Nebraska and locate in Cedar county.

Dick Kirchoff, southwest of town, says he thinks the wheat is in fairly good shape, although it may be a little thin in spots. The weather and the moisture of late has been very beneficial to the wheat.

Louis Anderson and his two sons left Tuesday night with their emigrant car for Ceresco, where they have rented a farm. Mrs. Anderson and the smaller children went to Omaha to stay until the car arrived at the new home.

Tom Fisher, who left February 22 for San Francisco, where he entered the navy as an enlisted seaman, is now stationed on Goat Island. He is one of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fisher and enlisted some time ago, but was not called until the latter part of February.

Walter Olander, who left at the same time is in the same company with Tom.

Miss Agnes Rough returned Saturday evening from Galveston, Tex., where she went to visit her brother, Arthur, who is serving his country and is stationed there. She reports her brother in good spirits and getting along nicely. Miss Rough was at the wholesale house in Kansas City when the idea came to her that a number of miles carfare would be saved to visit her brother at this time so went rather unexpectedly.

J. D. Powers met with a serious accident Sunday afternoon while helping to load some railroad rails at the cement bridge up by the old mill site, when he stepped backwards off the bridge. At first it was thought that Mr. Powers was very seriously hurt as it seemed that a fall of that distance and then to light on solid concrete would injure him. He was taken to a Lincoln hospital on the evening train and on arriving in Lincoln was taken through an X-ray examination which showed that his most serious trouble was a broken head and some bad bruises.

Mr. Roy Kratz realized that the "longest way round was the shortest way home" last Sunday, when he went to Omaha via Lincoln, even though there was no conservation of time or money in it.

C. Schomaker said to this reporter last Saturday that they were having an awful time with the measles at his house. Willie, Freddie, Margaret and Redfern were all down with them at about the same time.

Carl Stone is the first to report young chicks to this office this year. He has a hen with 14 little chickens hatched from 15 eggs, which is a remarkable record considering that the thermometer has stood at below zero several times since the old hen commenced incubation.

EAGLE
Beacon

Mrs. C. H. Longacre was called to Greenwood last week on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Hohan.

Clarence A. Herriek and wife announce the arrival of a fine boy at their home on March 3. They are receiving congratulations from their friends.

Private Everette Smith arrived at home on Tuesday from Camp Greenleaf, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for an eleven day furlough. He is glad to be among former friends.

Fred Leidig has purchased the property in the north part of town occupied by George Trunkenbol. Jr. He will take possession soon. W. S. Campbell, of Lincoln, was the former owner.

Henry Spahnle, who is at Camp Funston, had the instep of his foot fractured several weeks ago by a kick from a mule. He has been laid up but expects to get a furlough soon.

Miss Dessie Hursh of Broken Bow was in town a day or so last week looking after her property here. Her new business property on Main street is completed and is now occupied by Longacre.

Arthur Gardner, of this city, is the proud father of twin boys which arrived at his home Saturday evening. Arthur thinks they are a good pair and is glad they have taken up a permanent residence at his home.

Herman Bergman was enabled to leave the Lincoln hospital Saturday and is now at home with his family. It is hoped he will have no further trouble from the malady which has had the better of him for six months.

T. S. McMaster, of Nora, Neb., has leased the old Vanlandingham home of Frank Lanning and will move his family here in the near future. Mr. McMaster is a carpenter and contractor by profession and will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to our little city.

Word received by his parents states that Henry Renner has arrived in France. He writes that he landed all right and had a fine trip. He likes France fine and will write his impressions of that country at another time. He is allowed to send one letter a week.

NEHAWKA
News

Miss Ida Belle Downey spent last Sunday in Lincoln with her parents. Grandma Behrens is slowly recovering from a long siege of the la grippe.

Gust Nelson, of Frontier county, arrived in Nehawka Tuesday for a visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Eva Fowler had a homesick attack and hied to Weeping Water on the afternoon train Friday.

Miss Dorris Vallery, who is attending University at Lincoln spent the week end here with her sister, Mrs. F. R. Cunningham.

Miss Fannie Warden, who has been making her home in Nebraska City the past three months, returned to Nehawka Monday.

Rev. E. A. Fletcher took Will Albion to Omaha Tuesday, where the latter entered a hospital. Mr. Albion is a relative of the Fletcher family.

Miss Basler longed for the safety of city life so much that she left on Saturday for Lincoln, but returned to her work on Monday morning.

Mr. Roy Kratz realized that the "longest way round was the shortest way home" last Sunday, when he went to Omaha via Lincoln, even though there was no conservation of time or money in it.

C. Schomaker said to this reporter last Saturday that they were having an awful time with the measles at his house. Willie, Freddie, Margaret and Redfern were all down with them at about the same time.

Carl Stone is the first to report young chicks to this office this year. He has a hen with 14 little chickens hatched from 15 eggs, which is a remarkable record considering that the thermometer has stood at below zero several times since the old hen commenced incubation.

ELMWOOD
Leader-Echo

John Parriott has just returned from a trip to Wyoming, where he has been looking at land.

Floyd Morgan came up last Sunday from Camp Funston and spent a few days visiting with his wife and other relatives.

Jas. Berry's moved from the farm near Wabash which they farmed last year to the Fred Bockelman farm near Murdock.

Mrs. Mary Reid left on Saturday morning for Akron, Ohio, to visit her daughter, Mrs. George Crawford. Mrs. Eugene Hall accompanied her as far as Lincoln.

Mrs. Frank Lenz returned to her home at Rock Island, Ill., last Friday evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ed Rosenow and her little daughter, who will make a short visit there.

C. Schneider accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Frank Lenz, as far as Omaha on Friday evening on her return to Rock Island, Ill. He remained until Saturday to attend to some business matters there.

Mrs. John Colbert and Grandma Colbert came up from Weeping Water last Friday and spent the day visiting with friends and relatives here. The latter called upon her old time friend, Grandma Hollenbeck.

Wm. Mendenhall has purchased a fine 160 acre farm near Manley, Nebraska. The farm is known as the Yokum farm and is one of the best in that section. The price paid was $185.00 per acre or about $39,000 for the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stolz, of Milford, Neb., are here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bornemeier. Mr. Stolz is a brother of Mrs. Bornemeier. Mr. and Mrs. Stolz were married a week or so ago and are taking the opportunity to spend part of their honeymoon here.

Last Saturday Tom Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne, was taken sick with appendicitis and was taken immediately to Lincoln, where an operation was performed. He passed successfully through the operation and his father, who went with him stated that he was getting along fine recovering nicely from the effects of the operation.

Mr. Rogge has announced that the Union Lumber Co. will build a new elevator at this place and at present thinks that the elevator will be ready for use for next year's crop. In all probability the elevator will be built of cement or steel and made absolutely fire proof. This will be of interest to all who will be glad that they have decided to build.

Notice of Petition
In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.
In the matter of the Estate of John W. Gillion, Deceased.
To Mary E. Gillion, James C. Gillion, Olive Gillion, his wife, and to all other persons interested in said Estate, creditors and heirs:
You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 3rd day of March, 1918, a petition was filed in this court by Howard J. Gramlich, wherein he alleges that one John W. Gillion, then a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, in the State of Nebraska, died intestate in said county on November 23, 1917. That at the time of his death he was the owner of the undivided one-half of the following described real estate to-wit: The south-west quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twelve (12), North, Range Nine (9), East of the Sixth P. M., in Cass county, Nebraska, subject to the dower right therein of Mary E. Gillion, as in said petition set forth. That said petitioner, Howard J. Gramlich, has become the owner of the above described real estate by sundry mesne direct conveyances from the heirs of said deceased. Said petitioner prays the court to enter a decree establishing heirs of said John W. Gillion and to enter a finding that all of the debts of the deceased have been paid, including funeral expenses, and for such other orders as in the premises may be proper. That said petition is set for hearing in this court on the 15th day of April, 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which hearing you, or any of you may be present and object, if you so desire.

Dated at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on this 3rd day of March, 1918.
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
By FLORENCE WHITE, Clerk. (m11-14v)

Notice of Contractors
Sealed bids will be received at the office of the County Clerk in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, up till NOON on Monday, April 15th, 1918, for building wood, steel, and wood and steel bridges, concrete arch and box culverts, and other concrete work, such as viaducts and abutments, for the year 1918, as provided by law.

Plans and specifications now on file in the office of the County Clerk at Plattsmouth, Nebraska.
Separate bids may be filed for each class of bridge work and for concrete arch and box culvert work.

All bids to be opened on Tuesday, April 23rd, at eleven o'clock a. m. The Board of County Commissioners reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

The Board of Commissioners reserves the right to build all culverts and other concrete work, such as viaducts, at a cost of $500.00 or less, to accompany each bid.

ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Clerk.
(Seal)—m11-14v.

ORDER OF HEARING
And Notice on Petition for Settlement of Account.
In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.
State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss: To the heirs-at-law and all persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth P. Edmunds, Deceased:
Regarding the petition of John W. Edmunds praying a final settlement and allowance of his account filed in this court on the 3rd day of March, 1918, and for assignment of estate.
It is hereby ordered that you and all persons interested in said matter may, and do, appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county, on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a weekly newspaper printed in said county for one week prior to said day of hearing.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of said Court, this 7th day of March, A. D. 1918.
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
(Seal)

FOR SALE.
I have for sale the following described land:
1200 acres, Cherry County, Neb., 800 acres at Edison, Furnas Co., Neb.
160 acres, 5 miles from Tomax, Custer county, Neb.
480 acres one mile from Calloway, Custer county, Neb.

These places are now rented, all have good improvements and can be bought one third cash payment and balance 5 year mortgage at 6 per cent interest. Thomas E. Parmele, Office in Bank of Cass Co. 9-1mo

LOCAL NEWS

From Friday's Daily.
Louis Henning from near Cedar Creek was looking after some business in the city today.

Dr. B. F. Brendel of Murray was called here this morning on some business coming up in his car.

Thor Boyles of Elmwood was a visitor in this city today looking after some business at the court house.

Ray Howard of near Mynard was a visitor in this city this morning and was looking after some business.

Ben Hoffman was in the city this morning from Elmwood and was transacting some business at the court house.

Fred Toole from Wabash, was in the city this morning looking after some business and was before the local board for physical examination.

Arthur Crook and wife from near Union were in the city today doing some trading with the merchants and looking after some business in the city.

James Hesenflow of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some business in the county seat, and also some matters to attend to in the city.

E. V. Cole of Mynard was attending to some business matters in this city yesterday afternoon and while here called at this office and renewed his subscription to the Daily Journal.

Uncle William Burke who is sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Spangler, south of this city, is reported as being no better, but is still very sick, and weak from his long continued illness.

Ben Hankinson returned this afternoon from a trip to Crookston, where he went with Robert Troop to look after some land which the latter has there. Mr. Troop will remain for a couple of weeks.

John Bauers of Clearwater, arrived in the city this morning, and is visiting at the home of his brother, Tony Bauers, and at the home of his sister, Mrs. Tim Wooster living in the southwest portion of the city.

Henry Ost, from near Memphis, was in the city looking after some business and returned home last evening. Mr. Ost was formerly a resident of Nehawka, and has been farming near Memphis for the past three years.

Will Grebe and sister arrived here for a short time yesterday, from Eustis, where the occurrence, in which the elevator man was beaten up a few days since. He says that the times were rather exciting, but there was no signs of a German uprising.

Asa Johnson of Avoca, a member of the firm of Johnson Brothers, who are dealers in hardware and implements, was a visitor in the county seat today, having some business to look after at the court house and also in the city. He returned to his home this afternoon.

Forest Leonard of Beaver City, who has been visiting with his brother, southwest of Mynard for some time and who, was at the hospital at Omaha for some time, where he was operated upon for appendicitis and is just now recovering, departed this morning for his home in the west.

George Smith and son Earl drove in from their country home south of this city for a short visit with friends and to attend to some business matters. While here Mr. Smith and son called at this office and ordered the Plattsmouth Journal sent to Mrs. W. J. Dailey at South Omaha.

Mrs. Dailey is a daughter of Mr. Smith.

GUARDIAN'S SALE.

In the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska. In the matter of the application of Nora A. Powers, Guardian of Marvel E. Hale, minor to sell real estate.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an order of James T. Beasley, Judge of the District Court of Cass County, made on the 28th day of November, A. D. 1917 for the sale of the real estate hereinafter described, there will be sold at the south door of the court house in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 27th day of March, 1918 at 10 o'clock a. m., at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Commencing at the Northwest corner of lot five in Porter Place and addition to the City of Plattsmouth Cass county, Nebraska, thence running East along the North line thereof 677.65 feet, thence South parallel with the East line of said Lot 74 feet, thence West parallel with the North line 709.93 feet to the West line of said lot 5, thence Northeastly along said West line to the place of beginning; Also the following tracts, commencing at the Northeast corner of said lot 5 in said Porter Place, thence running Westerly 526 feet, thence South parallel with the East line of said lot 145.70 feet, thence East parallel with the North line 526 feet, thence North 145.70 feet to the place of beginning, in Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska.

Said Sale will remain open one hour, the right is reserved to refuse any and all bids.

NORA A. POWERS,
R. B. WINDHAM, Guardian.
Attorney.

You should write or telephone at once to A. HOSPE CO. of Omaha for their list of used pianos and for their catalogues of new high grade guaranteed player pianos ranging in price from $395.00 up. They invite correspondence and comparison. 3-11-14wskwlv.

WANTED—By married man, a place on a farm, capable of handling any farm or machinery. O. Sarratt, R. F. D. No. 5 Nebraska City, Neb.

Carl Anderson who is an employee of the Western Machine and Foundry Company, departed this afternoon for his home at Omaha, where he will spend the Sunday holiday.

Subscribe for the Journal.

Poultry Wanted!

Hens ..... 20c
Springs ..... 20c
Broilers 1 1/4 to 2 lbs. per lb. .... 20c
Stags ..... 18c
Ducks ..... 18c
Geese ..... 18c
Old Roosters ..... 17c
Eggs ..... 12c
..... 25c

F. G. DAWSON

Asa Johnson of Avoca, a member of the firm of Johnson Brothers, who are dealers in hardware and implements, was a visitor in the county seat today, having some business to look after at the court house and also in the city. He returned to his home this afternoon.

Forest Leonard of Beaver City, who has been visiting with his brother, southwest of Mynard for some time and who, was at the hospital at Omaha for some time, where he was operated upon for appendicitis and is just now recovering, departed this morning for his home in the west.

George Smith and son Earl drove in from their country home south of this city for a short visit with friends and to attend to some business matters. While here Mr. Smith and son called at this office and ordered the Plattsmouth Journal sent to Mrs. W. J. Dailey at South Omaha.

Mrs. Dailey is a daughter of Mr. Smith.

Uncle William Burke who is sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Spangler, south of this city, is reported as being no better, but is still very sick, and weak from his long continued illness.

Ben Hankinson returned this afternoon from a trip to Crookston, where he went with Robert Troop to look after some land which the latter has there. Mr. Troop will remain for a couple of weeks.

John Bauers of Clearwater, arrived in the city this morning, and is visiting at the home of his brother, Tony Bauers, and at the home of his sister, Mrs. Tim Wooster living in the southwest portion of the city.

Henry Ost, from near Memphis, was in the city looking after some business and returned home last evening. Mr. Ost was formerly a resident of Nehawka, and has been farming near Memphis for the past three years.

Will Grebe and sister arrived here for a short time yesterday, from Eustis, where the occurrence, in which the elevator man was beaten up a few days since. He says that the times were rather exciting, but there was no signs of a German uprising.