

LOCAL NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Sam Goodman from south of Mynard was looking after some business in the city today.

J. M. Jordan from near Cullom was a visitor in this city this morning, coming to look after some business.

W. F. Gillespie, the veteran grain man of Mynard was a visitor in the city last evening looking after some business matters.

Peter Petersen of Louisville was in the city yesterday looking after some business and returned home late last evening.

M. C. Core of Louisville was a business visitor in the city this morning coming down to look after some matters at the court house.

Watson Long from near old Eight Mile Grove, was in the city accompanied by his son, looking after some business for the afternoon.

Clarence Meisinger of Cedar Creek was visiting friends in this city Monday and while here called at this office and renewed his subscription.

Frank Schlistemeir from near Nehawka was a business visitor in the city last evening, coming up in his car and returning home late in the evening.

James Deles Denier of Murray was visiting friends and looking after some business matters in this city yesterday and was a pleasant caller at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Long, who have been visiting at South Bend, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, for the past few days returned home this morning.

Miss Dora Nolting departed last evening for Murock, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Emil Rieckl, who lives near that place, and will visit for some days.

A. F. Gansemer of near Murray, departed this afternoon for Malvern and Red Oak, Iowa, where he goes to look after the purchase of some horses for use on his farm.

Glen Valley from old eight mile grove southwest of Mynard was a visitor in this city today, coming to meet C. W. Davis, a doctor from Omaha who comes to vaccinate their hogs.

R. S. Rich, a brother of Herman Hough and S. Davis, both of Weeping Water, came up this morning and later departed for Omaha, where they are looking after some business for the day.

George W. Rhoden was in the city from near Murray this morning, and says that while Mrs. Rhoden is somewhat improved in health, she is not progressing as rapidly as he would like to see her.

Mrs. Nick Klaurens and son, Roy, and Miss Vera Burdick, all from Nehawka, drove up this morning and departed for Omaha, where they are spending the day with friends and will also look after some shopping as well.

Philip Schaefer of Cedar Creek was attending to some business matters in this city Monday and while here took time to call at this office and renew his subscription and the subscription of John Schaefer at Creighton, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Capen from near Murray, drove to this city this morning and took the Burlington train for Omaha, where they are spending the day visiting with some friends and looking after business affairs as well.

Asa Johnson of Weeping Water and Avoca, was in the city last evening coming over in his car, to see about the renting of a building at Weeping Water, for an implement house, he having one at Avoca, and wanting to establish a house also at Weeping Water.

Superintendent of the Burlington shops, Wm. Baird has been suffering for some time past with an affection of one arm and side known as Neuritis, which has been giving him a great deal of pain. The affection has been overcome to a certain extent by medical aid, and Mr. Baird is now feeling slightly relieved, though he is still suffering a great amount of pain.

M. Farland, wife and daughter Miss Vera, who have made their home just across the river, where they have farmed for a number of years, departed yesterday afternoon for Ashland, where they will make their home in the future. They have rented a farm there and departed yesterday to live on the place.

From Monday's Daily.

Harvey Shipley and wife were visiting at LaPlatte this afternoon, where they went to look after some business for a short time.

Simon Clark and wife were visitors in Cedar Creek over Sunday, with their daughter Mrs. Robert Stivers, and returned home this morning.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson of Union, who is visiting in the city, departed this morning for Omaha, where she will spend the day with friends.

Lee Cole was a business visitor from near Louisville last Saturday and after looking after the business which called him here returned to his home later in the day.

Mrs. James Ault and father John Renner, and little Esther Stokes, were visitors in Louisville over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Green returning home this morning.

Mrs. John Twiss of Louisville was a visitor in this city last Saturday coming to have her daughter Margery treated who is not feeling well and returned home last Saturday evening.

P. M. Meisinger was a passenger to Benson yesterday, where he is having some dental work done, having begun with the dentist there before removing to this city and having to go to have some completed.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton was a passenger to Nehawka this morning where he is spending the day on official business, and has an invitation for the return with him, a man charged with the illegitimate sale of intoxicants.

Paul Haynie and wife of Glenwood, Iowa, who have been visiting at the home of their son Ralph J. Haynie for the past few days spending the week end with them on the farm home northwest of the city departed last evening for their home at Glenwood.

Jack McNatt from near Rock Bluffs was a visitor in the city this morning and was looking after some business for the day. Mr. McNatt is not enjoying the best of health now has been during the entire winter, we are in hopes that with the return of spring the good robust health may again come to him.

W. E. Wixson, living south of the city and wife departed this morning for Lincoln, where Mrs. Wixson will visit for some time with friends. Mrs. Wixson who was at the hospital at Omaha for a number of weeks this winter had not regained her strength sufficiently to enable her to withstand the work at the home and goes for a visit that she may have the needed rest to enable her to gain the desired strength.

From Tuesday's Daily.

George Reynolds from near Rock Bluffs was a visitor in this city this morning, where he is looking after some business for the day.

E. H. Shurloff was a visitor at Louisville last evening staying over night and giving instruction to a juvenile band which he has there.

Robert Patterson and wife from near Rock Bluffs were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they are looking after some business for the day.

Peter E. Ruffner departed last evening for near Cullom, where he is superintending the cutting of timber from some land which he has there.

William Delles Denier, the attorney from Elmwood was a visitor in this city and at the court house where he was looking after business today.

J. B. Seyboldt from near Murray was in this city this morning enroute for Omaha, where he was called to look after some business for the day.

Miss Viola Warren of LaPlatte, who has been visiting in the city for a short time at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Wilfong, returned to her home last evening.

Peter Halmas departed this morning for Seward, where he is attending a fine stock sale, and where he expects to pick up some fine stock for his herd on the farm west of the city. Mr. Halmas' herd is one of the finest now and he is continually trying to improve it.

Boyd Porter, who is now employed in Omaha as a switchman with the Missouri Pacific railway, was a visitor here and at Mynard for a short time, and returned this afternoon for his work. He was accompanied on his return with Earl Leesley, who has some business to look after there.

Frank Bashus and wife who have been visiting in the city of Omaha, since Monday morning returned home this afternoon. While there they also visited at Ft. Crook, where they were conferring with the quartermaster regarding the care of the Rifle Range, of which they are the caretakers.

AUGUST TARTSCH VERY SICK.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. A. C. Tartsch, while coming to the city was suddenly stricken with a dizziness which caused him to fall to the pavement, and when the passers by sought to assist him in arising, they thinking he could get up said they did not need to help him. A. C. Bach and P. F. Goos seeing him rushed to his assistance and took him home where he was placed in bed. The physicians think that he has suffered a stroke, and the relatives have been called to his bedside on account of the seriousness of the attack.

SOCIAL WORKERS FLOWER CLUB

There will be a meeting of the Social Workers Flower Club, at the home of Mrs. Peter Mumm Jr., south of the city Wednesday, March 20th, at which all the members of the club are desired to be present, as well as the business which will come before the club, they expect to have a jolly time. Remember the place and date. d&w

DEPARTED FOR THEIR HOME.

From Tuesday's Daily.

S. C. Martin and wife who are uncle and aunt to S. S. Gooding and who have been visiting in this city for the past few days, departed for their home in Des Moines this afternoon. Mr. Martin and wife who have just returned from a trip to the west, which included a stay in California, during the entire winter. They are just now returning from their trip there.

Announcing Our Spring Exhibit of Correct Millinery!

—A Splendid Showing of Smart Spring Styles

This season our designer, Miss Snyder, comes to us from New York, direct from Gage Bros.' designing department.

Friday and Saturday, March 15th-16th

—a useful souvenir to each lady attending.

THE STYLES—Include clever Poke effects, nifty Turbans, Sailors, large and small; Watteau effects; smart Tams and the classy irregular hand made shapes.

THE HATS—are of hand-made Imported Braids, Lisere Italian Milans and finely Sewed Hems.

THE TRIMMINGS—Facings of Taffeta or Georgette Crepe; Flowers and Beaths especially good; Gire Ribbon is much in demand; Wings and Lacquered Quills and Smart Bows and Novelty Ornaments.

THE COLORS—Black is very good; Browns and Tans, Navy, Gray, and Wine. Sombre colors predominate this season.

THE PRICES—While there has been an advance in price on this season's goods, most of our orders were placed last fall at the old price and will not effect this season's selling price.

AT $5.00—We have an unusually good assortment of splendid values.

AT $7.50 TO $12.50—We include our very best hand-made patterns that compare favorably with much higher priced models.

AT $2.50 TO $5.00—We show a complete line of Misses and Children—both for school and dress—principally Mushroom, Pokes and Sailors.

A Useful Souvenir to Each Lady Attending
Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16.

EMMA PEASE

DOCTOR DAVID ZIRA FROM BABYLON

From Tuesday's Daily.

David Zira who was born just a few miles out of Babylon, has been in the city lecturing on the east and its condition, giving his observation of the relative positions and conditions of the fighting nations.

He left Constantinople about a year ago, and is now lecturing on the conditions which prevail. Speaking of the conditions of Armenia, he had to say, that at the beginning there were about three million people that at the present time there are but one million and two hundred thousand. Many have been massacred, others starved to death, and still others driven away. Thousands of people are now back in the mountains, subsisting on grasses and barks of trees, anything to keep life in them. He departed this afternoon for Nebraska City, where he will lecture.

DEPART FOR THEIR HOMES.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. Eldora McCarthy and son, Benjamin McCarthy of Cambridge, who have been visiting with L. L. McCarthy and family, the former who is a son of Mr. McCarthy departed for their home in the west this morning.

HAVE COLLISION THIS MORNING.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning at the crossing of Sixth and Main streets, two cars came together, one being driven by Arthur Sullivan, a Dodge Brothers car, the other one a Ford delivery owned by the Hartford Coal company and driven by Ray Burrows. It is claimed that the cars were moving but slowly, but six spokes was broken out of the wheel of the delivery car. Otherwise no damage resulted except the crumpling of the fenders on the Dodge.

their Gretna Green, and here under the benign influences, of the Cass county court house, after having secured a license were united in marriage by his honor, Judge Beeson. Those to witness the plighting of their vows, were the clerk in the Judges office, Miss Florence White, and county clerk Liebershal. They departed happy even if it were the second time for them both.

MUST BE ABOUT THE FIRST ONE

From Wednesday's Daily.

C. L. Martin plowed his garden yesterday, and is figuring on planting some potatoes today. Charlie is of the opinion that there is nothing like getting an early start, and evidently is the first on the ground, as a gardener this spring. Charlie says the ground plowed nicely.

DEPART FOR HIS IOWA HOME.

From Wednesday's Daily.

J. C. Holmes of Independence, Iowa, who has been visiting in the city for the past two weeks a guest at the home of his son Willis Holmes and wife of this city, departed this afternoon for his home, and was accompanied as far as Council Bluffs, Iowa, to assist the father in making the change of the trains, as he has some short time since suffered a fracture of one of his ankles, and at this time is compelled to walk with the aid of crutches. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes are therefore accompanying him to that point to make the change.

CARD OF THANKS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Committee in charge of the Market last Saturday wish to thank the public for their generous donations and assisting in making this market successful. All are becoming alive and beginning to realize that it is their Red Cross.

The committee wish to thank the telephone girls for their patient assistance in the soliciting, Mrs. Bookmeyer, who donated a beautiful centerpiece, Mr. Roy Smith, who donated 1 dozen photos valued at $5.00, Julius Pitz for a basket of apples, the basket being woven by him. Mr. Heisel for a sack of flour. The splendid sum of $200.00 was realized, when cash is deposited.

We thank the telephone girls for their patience and patriotism in helping the Committee solicit for these Markets as it means a lot of additional work for them and they have shown their desire to help by being patient and helpful at all times.

- MRS. C. A. ROSENCRANS, Chairman.
- MRS. F. H. DUNBAR.
- MRS. ED. EGENBERGER.
- MRS. T. E. PARMELE.
- MRS. J. E. WILES.
- MRS. TOM SVOBODA.
- MRS. CHARLES T. JANDA.
- MRS. EMMONS PTAK.

WERE MARRIED THIS MORNING.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Slipping away from their home near Fremont, where the groom is engaged in farming, Louis Scott, a forty-seven year old lover, and Freda Palmeter, his thirty-four year old sweetheart, come to Plattsmouth as

BUYS A NEW FORD CAR.

From Thursday's Daily.

George N. Dodge is now the possessor of a new Ford Touring car of the 1918 style, and is well satisfied with the article. Mr. Dodge has been driving a Ford for a number of years and is well pleased with that make of car, and when purchasing a new one clings to that make. He traded the one which he had in on the new one.

HAD EYE INJURED YESTERDAY

From Tuesday's Daily.

William Miller, one of the section force in the shop yards crew, while attempting to draw a spike in the shop yards, had the head pull off when pressure was put upon it, the head flying and striking Mr. Miller in one of his eyes, cutting the lid, and injuring the member quite badly. The contusion was closed by a few stitches, but it will be some time before the eye will be well again.

RETURNS FROM NORTH.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Miss Lelia Bennett, who has been at Clarks, South Dakota, attending the funeral of her brother, returned home last evening and was accompanied as far as Omaha by another brother Leland O. Bennett, who from Omaha, went to Fort Logan, Colorado, where he goes into training for service in the coast artillery.

Take Children Out of Danger.

If you saw a child on a railroad track you would endeavor to remove the little one from danger. When a child is "snuffling" or coughing, isn't it your duty to get him out of danger of severe consequences? Foley's Honey and Tar gives relief from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Contain no opiates. Sold everywhere.

IN COUNTY COURT.

From Tuesday's Daily.

In the matter of the estate of James McCartney, deceased of the west end of the county, whose estate amounted to about five thousand dollars the final hearing was held today, and the administrator James I. McCartney dismissed.

A demurrer was heard this morning in the case of Julius Langhorst and Fred Manners of Elmwood, which was overruled by the court and ten days given for answering. The case is for commission for the sale of real estate.

GETS ONE HUNDRED AND COSTS.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday on complaint C. D. Quinton, sheriff went to Nehawka, and brought to Plattsmouth with him Charles Burton, charged with the having of intoxicating liquors, and when arraigned before Judge Beeson pleaded guilty and was assessed a fine of one hundred dollars and costs. The costs amounting to just $9.99. The fine was paid and the matter settled, and Mr. Burton given his liberty. And so the game goes merrily on.

MAKE THE LIBERTY GARDENS 100 PER CENT THIS YEAR

From Tuesday's Daily.

John V. Hatt has rented a number of gardens, and will be pleased to rent all which are offered, and would like all those who would like to have a garden leave their order with him, and all who have ground which would do for a small garden as well. There will be no charge for the getting of the two ends of the proposition together. Come all you citizens of Plattsmouth and see if we cannot make this garden proposition a hundred per cent proposition. It will pay in many ways.

FOR SALE

Red River Ohio seed potatoes. Call phone No. 4122. m11-4td-4tw) C. L. MAYABB.

Box Paper and Correspondence Cards at the Journal office.

To the man who has never worn

Styleplus

If you have been paying around $21 and $25 in the past, take a look at Styleplus before you pay more.

They have thoroughbred style. They have genuine tailoring. They have reliable fabrics.

We refer you to hundreds of men in Plattsmouth who are wearing Styleplus and advising their friends to buy them.

By concentration of extensive resources and facilities on certain definite grades, the makers heighten efficiency and lower costs.

For spring there are two grades. Each is the big value at the price.

Styleplus Clothes $21 AND $25

Each grade the same price the nation over

America's Only Known Priced Clothes!

If you have never worn them you're the man we want to see. Come in.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"