

BOYS FROM HERE HAVE BEEN IN BATTLE 'OVER THERE'

LETTER FROM RALPH ALLEN, WRITTEN APRIL 3, TELLS OF EXPERIENCES.

Eight Plattsmouth Boys are Seeing Active Service in the World's Greatest of Battles.

From Friday's Daily. A letter received yesterday, written on April 3rd, from just behind the lines in France, tells of how the boys from here are faring.

The letter was from Ralph Allen, and tells of their having been at the front and having served their stated time in the trenches, being at the time of writing in the resting camps behind the lines, while others took their places in the trenches.

In the letter, Ralph states that the boys from here are all well and feeling fine. His own birthday occurred on March 22, and he said he would tell his mother when he returned how he spent the day.

It is a matter of great satisfaction to the many friends and relatives of the boys from here, to know that they were all feeling well and enjoying life in France at such a late date as April 3, and it is probable they have all continued in that state as no word has been received to the contrary.

DUXBURY BROTHERS LEAVE ON NO. 2 YESTERDAY AFTER-NOON FOR GREAT LAKES

High School Students at Station to Show Appreciation of Service of Fellow Classmates.

From Friday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon as the Duxbury brothers, Aubrey and Marion, left for the east on No. 2, bound for the Great Lakes naval station, to enter training at the radio station, taking up a course in wireless telegraphy, they were given a merry farewell at the station by their many friends here.

The boys add two more to the list of high school boys who have entered the service of the nation and two additional stars appear on the High school service flag by reason of their going. They were accompanied to the train by the members of the various classes in the high school, with a band and with flags flying, and the boys and girls united in grand style to give the various school and class yells.

The brothers, who are fine specimens of young manhood, hold a high place of esteem in the hearts of their many friends, who were pleased to demonstrate their expectation of the things these young men will do on the occasion of their departure yesterday. They have grown to manhood in this city, and their actions have endeared them to the school, to their teachers, and to the public generally. The members of their family were present, and it surely should be gratification to the mother who was at the station with her sons to enjoy the demonstration which their friends made as testimony of the worthiness of the young men.

From Thursday's Daily. W. P. Kimball, District Traffic Chief of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, entertained the Plattsmouth telephone operators at a very delicious four-course dinner on Wednesday evening at the Wagner restaurant.

Co.; R. O. Parks, Dist. Traffic Chief of the Southern district and W. P. Kimball, District Traffic Chief of the eastern district. These talks were greatly enjoyed by all.

Covers were laid for the Misses Irene Pendl, Grace Paxton, Anna Stevers, Hulda Goos, Marguerite Porter, Blanche Ladner, Selma Hansen, Mrs. Pearl Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Gann and Master Earnest Gann.
