

ENOCH MORGAN'S
SONS CO.

Lend Him
A Hand

BUY
LIBERTY
BONDS

Buy
SAPOLIO

For PATRIOTISM

For ECONOMY

"Actions speak louder than words—Act—Don't Talk—Buy Now"

LOCAL NEWS

From Saturday's Daily

Wm. Vanner and family were in last evening from their home near Mynard attending the Red Cross Fair.

Henry Guthman drove over last evening with a crowd to attend the Red Cross Fair, and to watch the parade.

George P. Meisinger from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city last evening looking after some business in the city.

J. L. Smith of near Nehawka was a visitor in the city last evening coming up from his home to visit the Red Cross Fair.

John Barkhurst of Union, accompanied by his son Forest was in the city this afternoon looking after some business for the day.

John Simmons of Murray was a visitor in this city this morning, where he was looking after some business for the day.

James Hesseflow from Cedar Creek and family were in the city last evening watching the parade and attending the Red Cross Fair.

Miss Emma Boyer, of Emerson, Iowa, arrived last evening from her home and is visiting at the home of Martin Nelson northwest of the city.

Miss Minnie Reuter and Hulda Leachens from near Wabash were in the city with him coming to visit with friends and to do some trading.

Charles Christweiser, was in last evening from Nehawka, and was looking after some business in the city, and visiting at the home of his parents B. Christweiser and wife.

Herman Beck from west of Murray was a visitor in Plattsmouth last evening with his family coming to take part on the Red Cross Fair which was a great success last evening.

Wm. Schneider of Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city last evening, visiting the Red Cross Fair which assumed high proportions and enjoying the raising of the two honor flags as well.

B. R. Nichols of near Murray was a business visitor in the city this morning coming in with his family in a car, and after having transacted business with the merchants, returned home this afternoon.

Mont Robb, of Union was a visitor in Omaha yesterday morning, where he looked after business during the day and in the afternoon came to Plattsmouth, where he remained over night staying for the purpose of visiting the Red Cross Fair.

George Shoeman departed last evening for Lincoln, where he is attending the funeral of S. D. McCaul who was killed the first of the week, by having a switch engine run over him in the Burlington yards on Salt Creek bridge. The young man killed was a son-in-law of Mr. Shoeman. The funeral occurred today at Springfield.

Robert E. Jackson and brother John Jackson, who have been working near Murray on a farm, were exposed to the smallpox and thinking they would better be at some place which would be like home, concluded to go to Rockport, Mo., where they have a sister living until the time for their taking the smallpox has passed. The Jackson Brothers tell of coming from the Ozark region in Missouri and say it is a good place to live, with good land, cheap and also wages, which are six bits per day. Their home is at Norwood, Missouri.

From Friday's Daily.

Frank Boedeker of near Nehawka was attending to some business matters in this city yesterday afternoon.

John and George Lobner from near Louisville were in the city this morning looking after some business for the forenoon.

Ben Beckman from near Murray was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning looking after some business at the court house.

Lloyd Gopen was a visitor in Plattsmouth last evening, coming to look after some business from his home near Murray.

John Thierolf, from Cedar Creek, who has been looking after some business in Plattsmouth, returned to his home last evening.

Peter Meisinger from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city this morning, where he was looking after some business for the day.

W. S. Wetencamp, from west of Mynard, was a visitor in Plattsmouth last evening, looking after some business for a few hours.

Frank Sheldon, of Nehawka, was a business visitor in the city last evening and was also looking after some business at the court house.

Dan Lynn of near Union was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, coming up in his car to look after some matters at the court house.

James Spence of Louisville was a visitor in this city this morning, coming down to look after some business at the office of the county clerk.

John J. Hennings from near Cedar Creek arrived in the city this morning and is visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. M. Tritsch for the day.

Frank Vallery of Murray and Tom Cromwell of Grant were in the city this morning looking after some business regarding some real estate transactions.

Alonso Layton who has been visiting with friends in Plattsmouth for the past few days departed last evening for Cullom, where he is visiting at the home of Sam O. Hackenbers.

L. J. Mayfield and wife and W. F. Diers and wife were over last evening coming in their car to see the boys before they departed and to say goodby and godspeed to the Louisville quota.

George Edmiston and wife and Mrs. Mollie Gearnes and Frances Diekenson, all from near Union, were in the city last evening looking after some business matters in the county seat.

Mrs. O. A. McDonald of Murdock arrived in the city this morning and is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kelly of this city and with her sister Mrs. Charles Ault, for the day.

L. C. W. Murray, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Plattsmouth yesterday looking after some business and also visiting with his son, Albert Murray, living in the southern portion of the city.

Earl and Troy Wiles from south of Cedar Creek were in the city today, coming in to look after some business, and to see their friend Will Gobelman away as he departed for Ft. Logan, Colorado.

Wm. Heeney of Weeping Water motored to this city yesterday afternoon to attend to some important business matters and visit friends for a short time. He was a pleasant caller at this office.

Joseph E. Wiles is having a serious wrestle with a carbunkle on the back of his neck and while many people say they are worth five dollars each, Joe says forty cents would be a satisfactory price for him.

L. G. Todd of near Union was a visitor in this city, for a short time today stopping on his way from his home to Omaha, where he was looking after some business for the day. He was driving up with his car.

Mrs. Arthur F. Hull of Union who is visiting in this city for the week with her mother, Mrs. J. C. York were passengers to Omaha this morning where they are visiting for the day and will also do some shopping.

W. F. Gillespie and wife were in from Mynard this morning doing some trading and Mr. Gillespie tells of having just received from near Perry 7,000 bushels of corn, and that he had not as yet delivered it all either.

Frank Pankonin, was in from near Louisville, bringing with him the family of Henry Fornoff, who were coming to bid good-bye to Will Gobelman on his departure with the boys as they departed for the camp at Ft. Logan, Colorado.

E. A. Opp was up last evening from Nehawka, coming with his brother, who departed this morning with the selectmen for Ft. Logan. Mr. A. E. Opp remained over night and until the departure of the train this morning, bringing his brother up in a car last evening and returning home this morning.

From Thursday's Daily.

Jesse R. McVey came up last Saturday from Murray and is visiting here for a few days.

Albert Doestl, of Ashland, was a visitor in the city this morning, and took home ten bushels of seed corn with him in his car.

O. T. Vergin and wife of Murray were in the city today looking after some business for the day and trading with the merchants.

Phillip Keil and family from near Murray were in last evening looking after some business, and visiting with friends for the evening.

Clarence Busche, from near Cedar Creek was looking after some business in this city today.

J. R. Vallery from northwest of Murray was a business visitor in Plattsmouth this morning looking after some business matters.

Frank H. Johnson of near Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city yesterday, where he was looking after some business for a few hours.

Mrs. V. M. Mullis departed last evening for Louisville, where she goes to visit at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Newell.

J. W. Kinser and his assistant George Verhule departed this afternoon for Murray, where they begin the plastering of a new home for Wm. Puls of that city.

Clyde Hoover and John Stokes, of near Elmwood, were in the city last evening, coming over for a few bushels of seed corn which they obtained at the Nelson Jean elevator and returned to their homes.

Ray Hasdon and wife, and W. W. Kirkpatrick and wife of near Weeping Water were in the city last evening, looking after some business at the court house. They drove over in their car and returned home late in the evening.

There were two officers of the Salvation Army in the city yesterday, who were soliciting for that order, and report they met with good success. They departed in the afternoon for Louisville to continue their work of raising funds.

Yesterday a crew of men was engaged in moving a large safe from the place heretofore occupied by Mrs. Mary Heinrich to the Perkins house, where it will do service as a lodging place for the valuables of the many who patronize this popular hostelry of Plattsmouth.

Frank Barcus, who has been at Casper, Wyoming, for the past year or so, arrived in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday evening, coming to arrange for joining the army. Frank is a telegraph operator and was thinking seriously of taking up radio work, which he may yet conclude to do.

This morning Frank R. Gobelman went out to Cedar Creek where he has a man working on the home of John J. Meisinger, which he has had entirely repaired, and which Mr. Gobelman is finishing inside and out. Frank went out this morning to take some materials for the work that is in progress.

A. F. Seybert has a hen that is the mother of a chick hatched at his place yesterday with four legs. It may be that Andy, being fond of drumsticks, himself, expects to try raising a style of quadruped chicks, for the extra revenue they would bring on the market, but our opinion is that he had better cut it out as there is nothing to it.

A. H. Wichell, Wm. Segers and son W. H. Segers all from Elmwood, were in the city this afternoon looking after some business matters having driven over from that city with their car. They are all fine gentlemen and prosperous farmers of the vicinity, and are all zealous patriots for the winning of the war. They returned to their home this evening.

IN HOSPITAL AT SAN FRANCISCO

From Friday's Daily.

A letter received yesterday on the 20th birthday of Clyde Kaufman, son of Mrs. Andrew Kaufman from San Francisco told of his illness. In March the mother had heard from the son then at San Francisco, which told of the squad in which he was situated being ready to go at any time. Not hearing anything more from her son Mrs. Kaufman thought he had gone to France, and had been expecting to hear from him there. The letter which came from a lady by the name of Mrs. Harris, said that Clyde had been in the hospital for some time, and that he had undergone an operation for appendicitis, and had been very sick, but was better at this time, and while still weak was not in any grave danger, and was improving.

THIS IS THE WAY THEY DO THINGS

From Friday's Daily.

Miss Viola Haynie, who is teaching at Gordon, and where there was a fire, which hindered the school for some time, and again the small box stopped school for another period, writes that in a drive for the selling of War Savings stamps, that in her room which only has 43 pupils, that they sold $512.50. This puts assisting the government in capitol letters and the saving in this means in italics. They sure are worthy of special mention.

VISITING AT MASONIC HOME.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. J. C. Bowers, of Ashland, Mesdames G. E. Thompson and N. E. Munson, of Lincoln, were in the city yesterday and visited at the Masonic home, inspecting the institute and visiting the home in general, together with those there, although they came especially to visit with their friend, Mrs. Stella Dumfery.

They were well pleased with the institution and its appointments and had high words of praise for the way it is conducted. They departed for their home on the afternoon train yesterday.

WERE VISITING IN THE CITY.

From Friday's Daily.

J. G. Stewart, the general storekeeper for the Burlington system, of Chicago, and D. C. Curtice, general inspector of the stores of the Burlington, were in the city yesterday looking after some business for the road and visiting with the storekeeper of the Burlington here, Mr. E. C. Hill. They departed last evening on the afternoon train for Lincoln, where they will look after some business for the company and then go on through the west on a tour of inspection.

WILL SPEND SUMMER ON COAST.

From Friday's Daily.

Misses Georgia and Florence White have just received a letter from their sister, Miss Lillian White who has been staying at Phoenix, Arizona, for some time, on account of her health and the letter tells of it being greatly improved. A short time since Miss Lillian White departed for Los Angeles where she will stay for the summer.

ALL SUITS SHOULD HAVE TWO PAIR OF PANTS

From Friday's Daily.

L. W. Egenberger was looking for some kind of cloth which would make a pair of pants, to match his suit this morning. The pants of the suit has suddenly become of no use on account of an accident which happened last evening. Louie had a cigarette, which he was using, and getting out of the car for some purpose laid it on a board in the seat of the car, and when he got in again he had forgotten, until the burning of his trousers told him it would be necessary to have a new pair of pants.

WILL ESTABLISH A NEW INDUSTRY (?)

From Friday's Daily.

A committee of citizens of this city, comprising Mesdames, R. E. Mayfield, Carl Anderson, M. S. Birggs, D. W. Clarke, Peter Herold, Miss Mary Mayfield and Masters Richard and Poissall Herold departed this afternoon for LaPlatte, where they went to arrange for the leasing of the lakes along the railway for fishing purposes, and if the proper arrangements can be made, they will keep a force of fishers there during the summer, and can the catch for the market in this city. They have formed a close corporation, and a set of officers and board of directors (?)

EGGS FOR HATCHING

S. C. Rhode Island Reds and S. C. White Orpington eggs for hatching at $1.25 per 15, $6.00 per 100. A. O. Range, phone 3513. ifw

NOTICE.

From Monday, May 6th to Saturday, May 11th, the Street Commission will haul away bottles and t'n cans. None but those piled up and ready near the alley will be taken. GEORGE R. SAYLES, City Clerk.

Journal Want-Ads Pay!

The World's Most Accurate Corn Planter

And the Remarkable Tests that PROVE IT!

Planting Accuracy

IF YOU could plant 20 more perfect hills of corn out of every 100 than you now are planting—it would add hundreds of dollars to your bank deposits this year. Yes sir, it would mean 7 more bushels per acre! It would mean $350.00 more profit for every 40 acres you planted!

The famous J. I. Case Corn Planter will actually do this. We want to show you how. In fact, we want to prove to you that this is true.

Come into our store any day and we shall be glad to demonstrate this machine. We want to show you the polished beveled plates, the two cut-offs, the drive from the main axle, and a host of other features. But best of all we want you to see right here a proof of accuracy in planting that will surprise you—it will do the same thing on your own farm.

JOHN F. GORDER, Implement Dealer
Plattsmouth, Nebraska

WILL SPEND SUMMER ON COAST.

From Friday's Daily.

Misses Georgia and Florence White have just received a letter from their sister, Miss Lillian White who has been staying at Phoenix, Arizona, for some time, on account of her health and the letter tells of it being greatly improved. A short time since Miss Lillian White departed for Los Angeles where she will stay for the summer.

ROBERT WALLING NOT INJURED.

From Friday's Daily.

In the World Herald, there was a report that the 17th balloon company at Ft. Omaha, the one in which Robert Walling is, had met with an accident, which killed two men. The fact being that it was the 14th instead of the 17th and Robert Walling telephoned that he was alright but that five of the men had died.

MADE A NEW HOUSE OUT OF IT.

From Friday's Daily.

Gideon Archer and George Forbes have just completed the painting of the house which J. H. Donnelly lives in and have made the place look

NEBRASKA'S ONLY "OWN DAUGHTER"

From Friday's Daily.

The Fontenelle Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution are very proud to have living in their midst Nebraska's Only "Own Daughter" Mrs. Elvira Tewksberry. The Chapter is glad to announce that Mrs. Tewksberry has kindly consented to be in the parade to-night, leading "The Daughters" who will walk and ride in the place of honor will be our "Real Daughter," Mrs. Tewksberry was four years old when her father enlisted in the Revolutionary war, and as she has a wonderful memory, she tells many interesting facts of America's war for independence.

G. H. Petersen of the Western Machine and Foundry company, was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon where he will visit over Sunday with his family.

DON'T BE MISLED!

Plattsmouth Citizens Should Read and Heed This Advice.

Kidney trouble is dangerous and often fatal. Don't experiment with something new and untried. Use a tested kidney remedy. Begin with Doan's Kidney Pills. Used in kidney troubles 50 years. Recommended here and everywhere.

A Plattsmouth citizen's statement form a convincing proof. It's local testimony—it can be investigated.

Edward Martin, machinist, 1499 Vine St., says: "Whenever my kidneys get out of fix or act irregularly, a box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieves the trouble. Occasionally my back starts aching, but it requires only a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills to relieve me."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Martin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Stationery at the Journal office.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND

Little! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold wrapper. They melt with the tongue. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Also CHICHESTER'S PILLS DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years' experience. Sold by Druggists Everywhere.

GROW A WAR GARDEN

We handle all kinds of

SEED

Onion Sets and Seed Potatoes!

We will have a large line of Tomato, Sweet Potato and Cabbage Plants.

HATT'S

clean suit of underwear. We can help you out at this juncture because we have the

Famous

MUNSING WEAR

This is underwear comfort "DeLuxe." We can unionsuit the whole family—men, women and children. Early purchases make prices as low as 75c and up. Good suits for men in Munsing at $1.50.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"