County Superintendent Miss Alpha C. Peterson and her assistant, Miss Opal Fitzgerald, visited the school here last Friday morning.

George Comer, who is now located at Camp Funston, was home the latter part of the week, visiting his relatives here. He returned to camp Sunday afternoon.

A large number from this place attended the big Red Cross carnival in Plattsmouth, which was held there the three last days of last week. They had a very nice entertainment and we understand their financial standing is very good since the affair.

D. C. LaRue received word Sunday afternoon that his sister-in-law, living at Geddy's, S. D., was very low and not expected to live. The flyer was stopped here that evening and he left at once for that place.

Derwood Lynde was the only one from this place who left Tuesday with this number of the Cass county draft quota, all of whom went to Fort Logan, Colorado. They left Plattsmouth Saturday morning over the Burlington.

E. L. Shoemaker was in Lincoln two days of last week in the interest of the State Council of Defense, and the convention of co-operative elevators of the state. The 130 elevators represented put in the full time, but were obliged to adjourn before completing their work. Another meeting will be called after harvest.

L. J. Hall went to Syracuse last Thursday, where he helped with the Red Cross sale there that afternoon. He was one of the seven auctioneers present to assist in the work and the proceeds of the affair totaled, we are told, about $3,500.00. The band played America, and when it was rendered the crowd was asked what it was worth. Several hundred dollars were received this way.

Eugene Roddy and Earl Hathaway went to Omaha last Friday with the latter's father, where they enlisted in the Navy. The two boys passed a satisfactory examination a couple of weeks ago and as soon as they got matters straightened up at home they left. Very little has been heard from them so far, but they are located at Camp Logan, Illinois, just out of Chicago. Eugene Roddy was assistant cashier in the bank and his place will be filled for a time by Miss Jaenett Patterson of Plattsmouth.

The home guards held a very interesting business meeting at the M. W. A. hall Monday evening. A fair sized crowd was present and it was one of the best meetings they have yet held. It was decided to buy uniforms for the boys and if the present plans go through they will have them. The men at the head of the organization have plenty of pep and you may confidently look to see something doing in the near future.

F. H. McCarthy was elected to fill the vacancy of Eugene Roddy, as treasurer. Eugene enlisted in the navy last Thursday. The boys were treated to several selections of music by the company's jazz band. Should you hear them playing one of these evenings, you will know it is "Bill" Banning at the bass drum and not a charivari party.

LOUISVILLE

Courier

Mrs. Scott McGrew has received word that her brother, George Kinison has arrived safe in France.

A car load of bass and crappies are to be planted in Carter lake at Omaha this spring by Commissioner O'Brien.

S. C. Keckler has accepted a position at Union as manager of the Farmers elevator. The Courier wishes him success.

Arnold Schliefert and Miss Esther Vogler, of Manley, drove over to Louisville Saturday evening to attend the Joyland picture show.

The Louisville Boys' band "scored a hit" at Plattsmouth last Friday, at the Red Cross fair. Louisville may well feel proud of her band.

Miss Anna Carlson, of Omaha, and Miss Esther Nord, of Plattsmouth, were guests of Mrs. Ralph Twiss on Wednesday of last week.

Arthur Stander, Prof. Becker and Frank Ross were among those who went to Omaha Sunday to hear Gipsy Smith at the Auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krecklow and family, of Manley, were in Louisville on Saturday and attended the Joyland picture show in the evening.

The Cedar Creek Red Cross Chapter will hold a fair on Friday evening. They invite everyone to join them and have a good time and at the same time to do your bit for the noblest of noble causes.

Fred Terryberry, Louis Baumgardner, Ralph Twiss and Martin Lohnes came up from Camp Funston Saturday evening. They were met at Lincoln by the Terryberry car. The boys returned over the Rock Island Sunday afternoon.

Roy Clifford, who has been in the U. S. naval training station in San Francisco, instructs us to send his Courier to Philadelphia as he was transferred to the Atlantic coast recently, having finished his training. He is hoping to be sent across in the near future.

Rev. C. L. Lundberg, of Cairo, Iowa, formerly of Louisville, visited old time friends here last week. Mr. Lundberg now conducts a meat market, which is operated by his eldest son, and while he does not devote all his time to preaching, he is still doing considerable ministerial work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schliefert gave a dinner Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Steel and family and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Raymond. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond were married on last Friday and will soon leave for their new home in Utah, and the dinner was given as a farewell to them. Mr. and Mrs. Steel reside on the Schliefert farm southwest of Louisville.

Martin Sjoeren is another one of those progressive farmers who believes in having things up-to-date. He has installed electric lights in all the buildings on his farm east of town, Scott McGrew doing all the wiring, etc. George Delezene and son, Virgil, having just finished building a hog house for Mr. Sjoeren are now erecting a large cow barn.

The hospitable country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schoeman was the scene of a pleasant gathering last Sunday, at which time they entertained the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Nichols and family; Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rentschler and son, Leon and Mrs. Amelia Schoeman, all from Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. August Wendt and family of near Murdoch and Mr. and Mrs. William Wendt and family. The pleasure of the occasion was greatly augmented by some fine music furnished by Mr. Nichols' family orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stohman and little son have returned home from Virginia, where Walter was in the band in the U. S. Navy. He received a medical discharge and came home to stay. He will assist Herman Dale in his Manley implement business and will go to house keeping as soon as he can rent a house. He was in town Saturday shaking hands with old friends and paid this office a pleasant call.

Miss Elizabeth Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spence, of Havelock, has been visiting Mrs. William Myers and Miss Margaret Reihart and other friends and relatives in this vicinity. Miss Spence spent part of the winter with her sister, Mrs. Charles Housel, in Chicago. Her brother, Guy, well-known in Louisville, belongs to the U. S. Marines and is now at Quantico, Va. He enlisted in the Marines several years ago and at the expiration of his term of enlistment, he re-enlisted after spending a few months visiting home folks. He is the fourth son of Mr. Spence and was born in Louisville.

Walter Johnson, of this place, has enlisted in the Navy.

Emma St. John was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Orren Pollard was surprised on Friday to see her mother, Mrs. White and brother and family, Everett White. They motored down from Lincoln to spend the day.

The Malcolm Pollard family had the following at Sunday dinner: Rowena, who teaches at Springfield, Hall, who is at Camp Funston, Oren Pollard and family and Morris Pollard.

Frank Resnick went to Omaha on Saturday night, returning to Nehawka Monday afternoon, with a new Chevrolet touring car.

John Lloyd is shipping a car of machinery and several head of fine horses to his farm in the western part of the state this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doughty, Frank Trotter and Miss Lovah Reynolds spent Sunday last with the William Trotter family at Douglas, Nebraska.

Mr. Will Countryman was circulating a petition for signers in this school district Wednesday, whereby he desires to be admitted to the Nehawka Consolidated schools of this district. The district in which he now resides has voted to release him.

Mrs. Grace Bird and children, of Riverside, Calif., arrived in Nehawka the middle of last week, where they spent a couple of days with the Magney family. Mrs. Bird was formerly a resident of this place, and her trip back to this county was for the purpose of visiting with friends and relatives.

There is one man in Nehawka at least, who is not averse to the "yellow peril," the dandelion. He thinks they are a very pretty sight to behold of a morning when he arises and takes his first peep out of the window at the lawn. He also made the remark that if they were not so "confounded numerous" every woman would be crazy about them. He is of the opinion that nature made a mistake by not giving a variety of colors, such as pink, blue, red and green dandelions.

Word was received by Mrs. L. C. Pollard Tuesday that Victor Conley, of Nehawka, had received an appointment as an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserves. Victor has been quartermaster on the Saranacca of the United Fruit company's steamship service, making trips to South American ports and nearby islands. A few days ago he took examination for, and received a Third Mate license, the next in line. Shortly afterward came this appointment.

The friends of Mrs. Henry Schoemaker will be sorry to learn that her health had become such that an operation was necessary at once. She underwent the surgical operation Tuesday of this week, Dr. Dermody of Omaha being the chief surgeon. The cause was a pus formation and the nature of the operation is such that it will not be known at once what degree of success has been attained. At present writing today (Thursday) she is resting quite easy. A highly trained nurse is in attendance upon the case.

A move has been started to purchase a service flag for Nehawka. A few subscriptions have already been taken. It is proposed to buy a flag to hang across Main street and it will contain a star for each soldier boy gone or who will go hereafter to serve his country in the war. Donations for this recognition of honor to our soldier boys will be received by Mrs. H. L. Thomas or by Mr. D. C. West. Send them a $ or a V spot at once and thus show your respect to the boys in khaki.

Atty. Wm. Deles Denier, Walter Reeder and Emil Rosenow motored to Plattsmouth on Tuesday to attend to business matters.

A. N. McCrory of Lincoln was visiting with friends and relatives in Elmwood last Saturday.
