OVER THE COUNTY

ELMWOOD

J. M. Stone, president of the Elmwood State Bank, was up from Nehawka on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Youtis's son, Elmer, and wife are visiting them and will remain while he is convalescing from a recent operation.

A ten pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Richards of near Wabash last Saturday. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Wm. McCaig, who attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Hall here on last Thursday visited friends and relatives until Tuesday when he returned to his home at Blackwell, Oklahoma.

On Monday Fred Mencheau purchased the 80 acres of land known as the Ed Bobbitt farm between here and Alvo of Mrs. Ed Gustin and Mrs. G. G. Douglas. The consideration price was $175 per acre.

Mrs. Blanche Harger and children who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clapp, left on Saturday for their home in Chicago. Henry, Jr. took them to Lincoln in the car and they took the train from that place.

Last week B. I. Clements, F. W. Buckemeyer and Emil Kuehn took a trip to Wyoming, going to Douglas, where they took in the oil fields of that place. They spent several days there and were very much pleased with what they saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fleischman are rejoicing because of the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home on Wednesday. Both mother and baby are doing nicely. Of course Herman feels quite puffed up. Congratulations are extended to the parents because of this happy event.

On last Friday a bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller. Both mother and baby doing nicely and of course Melvin is stepping pretty high. The proud parents have the congratulations of their many friends and best wishes for the baby and that he will some day be a full fledged farmer.

On Tuesday evening the house on the G. W. Hylton farm two miles east and a half south of Elmwood was destroyed by fire. This farm was occupied by the Oliver Chandler family. The family were out doing the chores and the flames were discovered by the Amon Royer family. The fire gained rapid headway and the house with most of the furniture was soon in ashes. The house and furniture were insured.

On last Friday afternoon George W. Worley went to the creek to catch fish. He had succeeded in catching four or five nice "bull heads" and had thrown his line and hook up on the bank and commenced skinning the fish when he looked around for his hook and found that a bull snake had swallowed it. Now George had to have the hook, so he performed an autopsy on the snake. His friends asked him what he had been drinking, but he vouched for the truth of the story. So he can catch bullsnakes as well as bullheads.

LOUISVILLE

Courier

Mrs. Mary Shockley and little son of Lincoln, visited friends in Louisville last week.

Mrs. Ellen Haddon visited her daughter, Mrs. Earl Baum, at Prague, over Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen Haddon went to La-Platte Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Henry Iske and family.

Herman Kabe and family, from Utica, drove down Saturday to visit over Sunday with his brother-in-law Edward Mallau and family.

Harvey Ball enlisted in the navy this week and has been sent to the Great Lakes training station. The best wishes of his many friends will follow him.

William Meachem is nursing a burned hand which was caused by a steam plug in the engine of the cream station blowing out and which made it necessary for him to take a few days' lay off this week.

George Ossenkop received notice on Tuesday from the county draft board to be ready to leave for the training camp upon 24 hours' notice. George received the word most cheerfully and says he is ready to go any day.

Mrs. Sigrid Schmarler and two children are visiting at the home of her brother, John Sjogren, near Weeping Water this week, while John is at the home of his father, Martin Sjogren, helping with the corn planting.

R. F. Kahler has received word from his brother, Walter Salsberg, telling of his safe arrival in France. Walter left Camp Funston several weeks ago and his family and many friends will be relieved to know of his safe journey across the water.

Rev. and Mrs. S. Keiser and grandson drove to Unadilla last Thursday to visit old friends. Rev. Keiser filled the M. E. pulpit at that place for six years before coming to Louisville. He drove back the same day and Mrs. Keiser remained over until Tuesday for a more extended visit.

It is indeed a credit to Louisville precinct to be able to claim that not a single name had to be reported to the State Council of Defense for a refusal to buy the full amount of Liberty bonds asked for by the government. It is surely gratifying to know that Louisville can boast of a one hundred per cent record.

Mrs. W. W. Valentine, of Pocatello, Idaho, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mayfield, over Sunday. Mrs. Valentine's daughter, Miss Mildred Valentine, is with her mother, but remained in Omaha with relatives. They left this week to visit Mrs. Valentine's son, George, and family in Ohio.

Charles Fosberg had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare last week that he valued at not less than $200. He secured the services of a veterinarian but their united efforts were unable to save the animal. This was a great loss to Mr. Fosberg and one that he could ill afford, but he bears it philosophically and says it is all in the life of a farmer.

Ray Frans cannot stand prosperity and the result is he is now driving a classy Buick roadster.

R. E. Hastings, of Ohio, departed on the Wednesday morning train for home after a three weeks' stay here.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson and son were passengers to Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon, where they spent Sunday with relatives.

Geo. Shrader and wife, Miss Verna Harris and Harold Daniels autoed to Beatrice in the former's car Saturday, returning home Sunday.

William Hastings of Lead City, S. D., came to Union Monday on the midnight train to see his mother, Mary E. F. Hastings who is very sick at John Lidgett's.

D. C. LaRue returned home on last Wednesday from South Dakota, where he has been at the home of his brother, whose wife was very sick.

A deal was closed the latter part of last week whereby J. H. Ruhmann bought the south forty acres of land and house from E. E. Leach just east of town. This is the same property Mr. Ruhmann sold to Mr.

Leach a few months ago. It is a fine piece of property and can be sold readily for a fancy figure.

Mrs. Belle Frans returned home the latter part of last week from a couple of weeks' visit with her son, who is stationed in the army at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa., and with relatives in Virginia. Her son, John, is getting along fine and likes army life. He is in the tank service and with a detachment of selected men.

Dean R. Lynde, of Kansas City, came in Saturday evening and spent Sunday with his parents, M. Lynde and wife. Dean is purchasing agent for the United Iron Works of that place and has a fine position. Trainmaster A. B. Kelly and mother, of Falls City, accompanied him here, and also spent Sunday with the Lynde family.

We received a card from Eugene Roddy last week stating that he and Earl Hathaway, who enlisted in the Navy a short time ago were located at Camp Logan, U. S. Rifle range, Zion City, Ill. The two boys are in the same tent and enjoy the life thus far fine. If any one wishes to write to either of the boys their address is Co. P, 2nd Regiment, at the above place.

Mrs. R. A. Spencer and little son leave this evening for Alliance, where Ray is now in a barber shop.

J. W. Teegarden, Henry Crozier, John Colbert and L. P. Wolcott left Tuesday morning in the Wolcott car for a visit at Camp Funston.

The latest reports from Mrs. W. L. Hobson at the hospital in Lincoln are that she is getting along nicely, but will not be home for a week yet.

Col. Wm. Dunn returned Wednesday from a couple of weeks' visit at the ranch in Wyoming. He reports four inches of snow out there last Friday.

Mrs. T. J. Collister returned Sunday evening from DeWitt, where she had been visiting for some time with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Seymour, going there to accompany her home.

Letters have been received lately from Morgan McCurdy and Frank Baldwin, both somewhere in France. They say nothing as to the military events taking place, but report themselves as well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spangler went to Omaha Tuesday and brought home their little daughter, Mildred, who had undergone an operation at the M. E. hospital for appendicitis. Mildred is getting along nicely and was glad to get home.

Mrs. Peter Crabtree, of Denver, arrived Sunday for a couple of weeks' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Lee Marshall. She came down from Raymond in the car with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Graves and daughter, Miss Ethel, whom she had been visiting.

Miss Maude McNamee had the misfortune to get her left hand quite badly mashed Tuesday at the Telephone office while the mechanic was working at the switch board. The table part dropped on her hand with considerable force causing a painful injury.

F. H. Gorder has sold his home to Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Ploetz, of Osmond, Neb., who are here visiting. Rev. Ploetz, will take a vacation from the ministry for a time. Mrs. Ploetz is a sister of Mr. Gorder's. Mr. Gorder will build or buy a home closer in.

Dr. and Mrs. M. U. Thomas left Monday morning in their car for Chicago to visit their daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Thomas, who is taking training at a hospital there for a Red Cross nurse. Her husband is in France. They expect to be gone two or three weeks.

B. L. Philpot left Wednesday evening for Chase county to look after his farm interests as his man, Ed Lewis, was operated on for appendicitis Sunday night. Mrs. Philpot took Bert to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening and also took Miss Marie Fitzgerald, who had been visiting them since Saturday.

DeForest Cunningham, of Nehawka is here this week with a force of men, a traction engine and three trucks. They are hauling in walnut logs from the W. L. Bates farm. They brought in 34 large logs at one trip this morning. The estimates on the 34 logs was 3,000 feet of lumber. This is bringing logs to the loading station at a pretty rapid rate.

EAGLE

F. L. Dysart came up from Auburn Sunday and spent a few days with the Dysarts of this place.

Darwin Yoho enlisted in the coast artillery at Lincoln the 9th, and left that evening for Fort Logan, Colo. Mr. and Mrs. James S. Dysart spent Sunday in Tecumseh. They were the guests of their son, Porter Dysart.

The dance at Lanning hall last Friday evening was largely attended and a look-in indicated that all present were enjoying themselves.

The Eagle bank has just completed the installation of a heating system in the basement, and hope to be able to keep warm—this summer.

The Misses Laura and Ella Anderson and Miss Dorothy Brown of Lincoln, accompanied Prof. and Mrs. A. K. Wilson to the baccalaureate services Sunday evening.

John Williams, who has been at Elsie, Neb., constructing a house for Charles Trumble, returned to Eagle last week. He contemplates going to Lexington, Neb., where he will remodel a home for John Lanning.

On Wednesday afternoon at the German Lutheran church south of Eagle was solemnized the marriage of Miss Florence E. Streeter of Palmyra and Mr. Herman D. Olschlager of Unadilla, son of our fellow-townsmen, William Olschlager.

Another business changed hands in Eagle last Friday when A. A. Alloway sold his restaurant business to O. M. Ward, who will continue to serve the public with eats, etc. He has erected a lighted sign above the doorway, and he and Mrs. Ward will greet you with a smile and courteous treatment.

The baccalaureate services were held last Sunday evening in the Lanning hall, which was filled to overflowing with the friends and patrons of the Eagle schools. The audience was delighted with the excellent music rendered by the Wesleyan orchestra, and the sermon delivered by Rev. Harmon was a most pleasing and forceful one.

NEHAWKA

News

We'll soon lose the school marms, but the kids we'll have with us always.

Mr. and Mrs. Ern Carroll and children called at the Goodman home Monday.

Mrs. Anna Harshman and family called at the George Wonder's home Sunday.

The J. G. St. Johns family and Crete Harshman were Lincoln visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hoback and F. M. Massie and wife drove to Omaha Wednesday, returning same day.

Among the fifteen men who will soon be called to fill the quota from Cass County, we note that of James I. Blake of Nehawka.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hoback, entertained at Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore of Murray, and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Massie.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Chapman entertained at Sunday dinner the former's parents of Omaha and brother and family of Benson.

Last Thursday Marion Tucker quietly slipped away and went to Marine Corps. Wednesday of this week Alfred C. Anderson, another Nehawka boy followed the same example and enlisted in the Marines. These young men had previously taken the examination, and it only remained for them to put in their appearance at the recruiting station in Omaha. The boys will go to Paris Island, S. C., for the preliminary training. One by one the young men are finding the places most acceptable to them. Not one word of regret that they have to go has been heard from any of them.
