"RARIN' TO GO" HE SAYS

From Friday's Daily. Carl F. Schmidtmayr, who has enlisted a number of times, but on account of physical deficiency, was discharged from the service, one time after having been at Kelly Field for some time, as a member of the Aviation corps.

While he was much pleased to have been accepted, as an enlisted man, he was disappointed when his feet gave out and he had to be returned. Not being discouraged he again applied, but did not succeed in getting by examination until he was chosen as a selectman, when he has so far successfully passed the examination and with the other boys will depart in about a week for Camp Dodge near Des Moines.

Carl is greatly pleased with the prospect of again getting into the service.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Yesterday morning at the Methodist Hospital Mrs. C. C. Wescott underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor from her breast.

This tumor has been giving the lady trouble for some time, and yesterday with her husband in attendance, the tumor was removed, and the operation a very successful one.

Mrs. Wescott after having recovered from the effects of the operation was resting at the hospital as well as one would be expected under the circumstances, and hopes are entertained of her speedy and permanent recovery.

The many friends of this lady will be pleased to know a fther having gotten along so nicely with the ordeal.

Parents who have children to educate will do well to write for circulars of the Grand Island Business College of Grand Island, Nebraska.

It is one of the largest and most prosperous Business Colleges in the United States and is making a special offer to a limit number of young people of good character who will enter at this time and prepare themselves for business and Civil Service positions.

Good positions are positively guaranteed to graduates.
