LOCAL FIGHTING ALONG THE WEST BATTLE FRONTS

GERMANS RAID BRITISH POSITIONS UNDER COVER OF A HEAVY BARRAGE.

Remarkable Aerial Activity Continues with Both Sides Participating in Fighting.

In the battle zones in France there have been numerous local engagements, particularly in the Somme sector. The Germans, under cover of a heavy artillery barrage, made a raid on the British lines at Bucquoy, on the line to the southwest of Arras and captured prisoners.

In the Kemmel region, on both sides of the Lys river, in the Flanders battlefield, there has been very heavy artillery fighting, on the Scarpe river, in the region of Arras and south of the Somme between Moreuil and Montdidier, the big guns have been in action, according to the official statement.

Aerial Activity Continues.

The remarkable aerial activity along the western battle front continues, with both sides participating in air fighting and bombing operations.

If the Germans repeat their attempts to bombard Paris from the air, Americans will feel a keen interest in the attacks, because the American aviators now are aiding in the defense of the French capital.

The German troops that faced the Americans along the lines of the Toul sector have been replaced. For some time the Teutons there were units which had been withdrawn from Russia.

Replaced by Bavarians. These now have been replaced by Bavarian reserve regiments. It is probable that the men withdrawn have been hurried north to participate in the coming renewal of the great German offensive in Picardy and Flanders.

In spite of Berlin's promise that the German forces would not penetrate further into Russia, a large Teuton army is reported to be within twenty-five miles of Karsk, in the Dnieper-Don region.

CHARGED WITH SEDITION

From Friday's Daily.

John Koop of Louisville was in the city yesterday, answering a call to appear before Judge M. Archer, justice of the peace, where he was charged by the county attorney A. G. Cole, with sedition, in that he circulated a report which in its tendencies would have the effect to deter the prosecution of the war, and interfere with the workings of the Red Cross. When arraigned he pleaded guilty to having said the things which he was charged with but said in extenuation of his case that he read the report circulated in the World-Herald. Mr. Koop went home last evening and this morning returned to appear before the district court, where he will be arraigned on the same charge.

This morning Mr. Koop came back from Louisville, where he had gone last evening, and was arraigned before district Judge J. T. Begley, and charged as above, to which he pleaded guilty and was fined $50.00 and costs of the prosecution, which amounted to $15.50 making in all $65.50 which was paid.
