LEAVE FOR CAMP DODGE, IOWA

Depart This Afternoon by Special Train Over the Burlington—Several from Here.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning at eleven o'clock the fifteen Cass county boys who depart this afternoon for Camp Dodge, near Des Moines, Iowa, were lined up on the court house campus and the roll called, which showed all present. Division was then made into squads for each of which a man was selected as the one in charge. They were dispersed for dinner and returned after the noon hour. Just as we go to press they are marching to the Burlington station to embark at 3:50 on a special train for Des Moines, and from there will go to Camp Dodge, a short distance away, over the interurban railway. Besides the boys from here, there were a large number coming on the afternoon train from the south over the Missouri Pacific to transfer here onto this special train.

The fifteen to go from this county to fill the quota of call No. 381, are listed below, together with their order number and the profession or occupation of each. Every one of them is in Class One:

1192—Floyd Rockwell...Pool Hall Op.

COULD NOT COME HOME FOR RAIN

From Tuesday's Daily.
G. H. Tams departed with Mrs. Tams Sunday, for Omaha, where they visited with their daughter Mrs. Fred Reasner, for Sunday and a rain coming up grew worse on Sunday evening raining all night, with the result that they were compelled to remain over night, and waiting until it looked good yesterday the day slipped by and finally Mr. Tams came home leaving the car and Mrs. Tams there until the weather should get better and the roads so they could return.

IN UNITED STATES COURT.

From Tuesday's Daily.
C. L. Heger was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he goes as a witness in the United States district court in the case wherein Frank Luce who sold a book to Mr. Heger took a check drawn to Collector of Customs Geo. Loomis, endorsing the same in order to get the money. The case is being heard today.

RETURNS FROM STAY IN EAST

From Tuesday's Daily.
Last evening Hermia Gradoville returned from Portsmouth, Va., where she has been for the past six weeks nursing her brother Charles Gradoville, who was taken sick while serving in the navy, and who has been in the hospital, for the past three months. Miss Hermia reported her brother getting along nicely now, and will soon be in condition to return home on a furlough.

THEY KNOW HOW TO DO IT.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The patriotic Americans of Louisville have the pleasing faculty of knowing just how a thing should be done, and do not fail to make good on a proposition, when it is presented to them. This morning four of the gallant sons of that city departed for the training camps, and at the station were given warm words of approbation, as they assembled to take the train for this city, to join the quota from this county.

The band of Louisville, which is a real band, and one which knows and can produce good music, for they were in his city at the Red Cross Fair, with hundreds of citizens assembled at the Burlington station, when the boys were to depart, playing national and patriotic airs, while addresses were given by the patriotic citizens, with the fluttering of many flags and hearts as well. The good bys were said, and the "God Bless You" pronounced, while George Ossenkop, Glen E. Dorsey, Floyd Rockwell and Irving S. Eager, the portion which that city is furnishing for the quota of this county left. The rousing cheers which resounded, as the train pulled out, presaged the victory, which this country is winning for civilization, and unless the boys who are now departing, make good time in getting to the front, will be late in seeing, for the time is coming in the near future when the hosts of the champions of liberty, are going to win the battle for the cause of humanity.

MAKE TICKET AGENT PRESENT.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The travelers insurance company of Hartford, Conn., have presented the Burlington ticket office a very neat and convenient device whereby they can compute instantly the amount of the war tax on a ticket by turning the cost of the ticket on a disc to a certain line, which just opposite will appear the amount of the war tax. This is very convenient and will be a time saver for the seller of tickets, especially will it be convenient when there is a rush on. Besides this the machine also tells that 25 cents insures for three thousand dollars for a days ride.

WILL SPEND TWO WEEKS VISITING IN THE EAST

From Tuesday's Daily.
W. A. Robertson and wife departed this afternoon for Omaha, where they will be joined by Messrs. and Mesdames George Chatburn, B. A. George and L. W. Moore, who will depart for the east, to attend the Mystic Shrine meeting, which is to be held at Atlantic City, N. J., during next week. The party will stop at Chicago, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Albany and New York City, as well as at other places in the east for brief visits while away and expect to have a most enjoyable time. They will be gone in all about two weeks.

BRESLINS WILL PLAY 2 GAMES.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Arrangements have been perfected for a ball game between the Breslins of Omaha and the Red Sox of this city for Thursday afternoon and also for Sunday. They have played in this city a time or two and proved a good team at that time and we are hoping that they will on these two occasions.

GOES TO MOVE FAMILY HERE

From Monday's Daily.
John M. Schirk departed last Saturday afternoon for Alliance, his former home, where he goes to move the family and household goods to this place, and they will make their home here. Mr. Schirk is the newly appointed foreman in the Burlington machine shops, and the removal of his family to this place from their former home at Alliance adds one more family to fast growing Plattsmouth.

IS JOINING THE NAVY.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Howard Drulliner, son of Rev. F. M. Drulliner and wife former pastor of the Methodist church here, but now at Red Cloud, arrived in the city last evening and is visiting with his friends here for a short time, being on his way to Omaha where he is enlisting in the navy.

CASS COUNTY SOLDIER BOY WEDS AT CODY

EARNEST L. TRUMBLE, OF EAGLE AND MISS QUINN OF PALMYRA MARRIED

FIRST SERVICE IN NEW CHURCH

Groom a Member of Machine Gun Battalion at Camp Cody—Wedding Was at Deming.

From Monday's Daily.

Camp Cody, Deming, N. M., May 23, 1918.—(Special to the Evening Journal).—A wedding of much interest to the residents of southern Cass county, was held on Wednesday, May 22nd in this city when Sergeant Ernest L. Trumble, of Co. C, 126 Machine Gun Battalion, stationed at Camp Cody, was united in marriage to Miss L. Marie Quinn, one of the charming and accomplished young ladies of Palmyra, Nebraska.

The wedding was a very quiet one owing to the fact that the groom is on active duty with his company, and attended by only the members of the family of the minister and Corporal Warren L. Trumble, brother of the groom and Roy A. Vickers, both Cass county boys in service with Co. C.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. McClure, pastor of the Christian church at Deming, and who for a number of years was pastor of one of the leading churches at Lincoln, Nebraska, where he was a close friend of the contracting parties.

The ceremony was the first service to be held in the handsome new church building, just erected by the members of the Christian faith at Deming, and was a fitting induction of the house of worship. The scene was most impressive as these two estimable young people stood before the altar plighting their vows that were to join them for life's happiness. The bride was very charmingly gowned in a traveling costume of dark blue silk while the groom was attired in the service uniform of the army in which he is serving.

The wedding will come as a surprise to the many friends of these popular young people in Cass and Otoe counties, and all will join in wishing them many years in which to enjoy the happiness and joy they both so well merit. The bride has been reared to womanhood near Palmyra, and is one loved and respected by all who have the pleasure of knowing her. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Trumble, of Eagle, and is a young man who has spent his lifetime in Cass county, where his friends are legion. At the call of the President in 1917, Mr. Trumble volunteered his services for the cause of world democracy and enlisted in the machine gun company of the 6th Nebraska infantry, and with this organization departed for Camp Cody, where he has since been stationed and with his company became a part of the 126 Machine Gun battalion.

Sergeant and Mrs. Trumble will continue to make their home at Deming for the present at least, and are located in a charming home on South Silver street.

CLASS OF 1915 HOLDS REUNION.

From Monday's Daily.
Saturday evening at the M. W. A. hall fourteen members of the class of 1915 of the Plattsmouth High School met for their annual reunion. The early portion of the evening was devoted to pleasant social conversation, after which dainty refreshments were served in the dining room.

The business meeting was then called to order by the President, Will Richardson, at which time it was decided to retain the same officers as in the past, namely, Will Richardson, president; Kate York Hull, vice-president; Clifford Cecil, secretary and treasurer. As Mr. Clifford Cecil has been called to the service of his country, it was decided to elect an acting secretary and treasurer during his absence and Mrs. Sophia Hild Parkening was elected.

Then the members of the Class of 1915 proceeded to write a letter to each young man of the class now in the service, who are Leon Stenner, Guy Crook, Emil Hild and Clifford Cecil.

The members of the Class of 1915 in attendance were Nella Cook Doerr of Beardstown, Ill., Lillian Hartwick Briggs of Winner, S. D., Robbin Richardson Todd of Nehawka, Neb., Catherine Egan, Grayce Fight Sattler, Essie Buttery, Marie Spies, Leta Lair, Will Richardson, Mary Hetherington, Norene Schulhof, Kate York Hull, Sophia Hild Parkening and Ola Kaffenberger.

SHOWER THEIR TEACHER.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Yesterday the Girls Club of the Plattsmouth High School, had planned to have a meeting at the home of one of their members Miss Betty Beeson, but owing to the showery weather they did not go to the country to celebrate at Clover Lodge, they stopped at the Turner hall on Washington avenue, where they had a shower for one of their teachers. While the weather was showery, it suggested a good time for a shower which was given to their teacher Miss Bertha Driftmeyer, who is soon to wed.

A FORMER PLATTSMOUTH BOY IS MAKING GOOD

From Monday's Daily.
The following is clipped from a Los Angeles paper sent here that his former friends might know of what Dan Helps, who departed from here some years ago and has since been making his home in the west, is doing:

"Lonesome, but happy, F. D. Wiley, of the Wiley Motor Stores company, is 'carrying on' the local automobile accessory business while his brother, Dana Wiley, as well as Dan Helps, one of the valued employees, have enlisted to help 'carry on' the battle for democracy.

"Dana Wiley recently passed the examination as a cadet flyer in the aviation corps and he is now stationed at San Diego, after having spent two months in training at Berkeley.

"Dan Helps, who acted as chief clerk for the auto supply house, has gone to Camp Lewis with the contingent which left Long Beach yesterday."

RETURNED FROM STAY IN EAST.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Mrs. L. W. Whitaker, wife of First Lieut. L. W. Whitacre, arrived in the city this morning from a stay of some length at Chillicothe, Ohio, where Lt. Whitacre was located. Lt. Whitacre departed a few days since for New York, to await the departure of the division for the other side, and Mrs. Whitacre returned here and will in a few days depart for her former home at Hastings.

ENTERS OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP IN INDIANA

From Monday's Daily.
Vinton Thomas, who was in the city during the greater portion of last winter, and who had supervision of the work of putting in the sewer through the Burlington shop yards, passed through this city yesterday on his way to Indianapolis, Indiana, where he goes to enter the officers' training camp and take the stiff course of training necessary to fit one to become an officer.

REUNION AT HOME OF MISS GASS.

From Monday's Daily.
Miss Gass entertained a number of her relatives at a week-end visit last week. The meeting of relatives from different parts of the country was a most pleasant experience to all. Those present were: Mrs. Belle Gass and daughters Lucile and Helen; Misses Frances and Mae McKinley, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Luella Carter of Bellevue, Neb.

This Widow Was Helped.

Mrs. A. Walden, 460 Glenn Ave., Fresno, Cal., writes: "I had a fever and it left me with a cough every winter. Foley's Honey and Tar helps me every time. I am a widow 66 years old." Nothing better for bronchial, grip and similar coughs and colds that hang on. Just five for croup and whooping cough. Sold everywhere.

You will always find the very best in stationery at the Journal office.

MEMORIAL SERVICES ON SUNDAY A. M.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH WHERE A LARGE CROWD WAS GATHERED TO PAY TRIBUTE TO DEAD HEROES

Principal Address Delivered by Rev. A. J. Hargett of the Christian Church Here.

From Monday's Daily.

Yesterday morning a large and patriotic crowd of Plattsmouth people gathered at the Methodist church to participate in the Memorial services which were held in honor of the fast disappearing members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The musical portion of the service was in the hands of the chorus of the Methodist church, while Rev. Truscott of that church acted as Master of Ceremonies. Rev. H. G. McCluskey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, offered the invocation and implored divine power for the righting of the wrongs of the world in a strain of fine language and excellent ideas. Rev. Truscott read the lesson of the morning, and made announcements, among which was the adding of two stars to the service flag of the church for Frank Barcus and Leslie Dalton.

He then introduced Rev. A. J. Hargett of the Christian church, who delivered the address of the occasion. Beginning with the Feast of Belshazzar, he read and interpreted the hand writing on the wall, "Mene Mene Tekel Upharsin," meaning, "Thou hast been weighed in the balance and found wanting." The rights of the people had been taken away from them in the times when the Belshazzar feast was being celebrated, therefore the kingdom was taken from him and given to another. The king was not equal to the emergency and lost his throne. Again, when the people of Greece faced the emergency, they proved equal to the test and established the first democracy which the world is fighting to preserve. Again, when the Civil war was drawing to a close, he reverted to the time when a portion of the field of battle was to be dedicated as a national cemetery, that Abraham Lincoln, the champion of liberty, got the black race freedom as well as the white, and made that memorable address, the famous Gettysburg speech.

Following this the speaker paid special tribute to the old soldiers who sat before him and whose ranks were fast growing smaller, for the portion which they had in the preservation of the country and liberty to its citizens.

Those of the Grand Army in attendance were Wm. McCauley, Thos. Wiles, Justice Lillie, Thomas W. Glenn, A. Jack, W. H. Freese, W. S. Askwith, N. H. Isabel, Ezra Brown, R. B. Windham and Wm. Gilmour.

Following this Rev. Hargett addressed himself to the boys in khaki who are going out now to fight for the nation, and stated that when they return they will come back the cleanest set of young men that ever left an army or went into one, and after fighting hand and hand with citizens of other civilized nations so effectively against a common enemy they will demand a church here in America, not many churches but one church whose forces are in harmony, united for the evangelization of the world, and not a lot of different churches that are fighting one another. He particularly wished it might not be "my church" or "our church" but one united body of Christian people, bent on attaining a common objective.

The services were closed by the singing of a patriotic number, while the congregation stood reverently as the Grand Army and Relief Corps, together with the boys of the present army passed out, after which the congregation dispersed.

EXHIBITION DRILL LAST NIGHT.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Some hundred and twenty-five soldiers from the camp north of the city put on an exhibition drill last evening, at the Red Sox ball park, which was witnessed by over three thousand people, and the movements of which was very pleasing to the crowd assembled, who manifested their appreciation by vigorous applause, in the way of hand clapping at some particular nice demonstration of the well drilled men, and judging from the continuous demonstration of the pleasure of the people it is reasonable to judge the movements were all climaxes.

REGISTER ON JUNE FIFTH.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Everything is in readiness for the registration of those coming 21 years of age in the last year, on June 5th—Wednesday of next week. To provide for those living in the western part of the county the local board has designated a second place for registration, outside of Plattsmouth, namely, at Weeping Water. Registrants may visit the place nearest their home and complete their registration duty on that day.

One thing which the board wants registrants informed about is the fact that it is necessary in registering to be able to give the father's name and place of birth, which shall include town or city, state or province and country or nation. If all would come before the registration officials possessed of this information, the work of registering them would be made comparatively easy.

The registration in Plattsmouth will be under the local board and at Weeping Water J. M. Teegarden, C. E. Butler, M. U. Thomas, Frank Davis and J. L. Corley have been appointed to take charge and see that all are properly registered.

Every man who has become of age in the past year is in duty bound to appear before one of these registration boards, under severe penalty for failure to comply with the law.

WILL ENTER THE ARMY SOON.

From Wednesday's Daily.
C. A. Spacht, the teacher of athletics in the Plattsmouth High School for the past year, who has just finished the school year, departed last evening for his home at Alliance, where he will stay for a short time to visit with his family and friends after which he will enlist in the navy.
