Decoration Day

To-day America has been called to the defense of those same principles and liberties for which we are honoring our heroes this Memorial Day.

We have read of the glorious traditions of America, of the patriotism and valor of its sons—to-day we see them.

Stern duties are before us now. We are engaged in the world's mightiest conflict—the struggle of might and right. Whether right triumphs depends on every one of us.

Are you doing your part?
