WRITES FROM FRANCE.

From Wednesday's Daily. A letter yesterday was received from Eddie Ripple which was written from France on the 7th of May, and is about as late as any have heard from the eight Plattsburgh boys who went to the war from Glenwood last summer. The letter tells of how the boys are getting along in the east, and says that their health is fine and that they are all enjoying the life over there, expressing the belief that they would be back before long.

GET BOOZE, BUT NOT THE MAN.

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday a boy notified Chief of Police Barclay of there being on the road leading to the bridge over the Platte river, three suspicious looking suit cases. Immediately Mr. Barclay repaired to the spot, and upon searching found the three suit cases, and in them a quantity of whiskey. They brought the goods to the city and turned them over to the court, but as there was no one there or evidence of any one having been lately he could not find the one in whose possession it had been. It is reported that a couple of people offered a young man a drink, but he not taking anything refused the proffer, and they thinking that probably he would notify the authorities, must have cached it.

A SPINSTER'S BREAKFAST.

From Monday's Daily. Another pleasing social event of the spring season, was the delightful Spinster's Breakfast given by Mrs. Henry Herold and Misses Barbara and Mia Gering, at the pretty Gering home on North Sixth Street, Saturday morning, at 8:30. This charming breakfast was given in honor of the brides-to-be, Miss Marie Donnelly and Miss Edith Dovey and was simple but beautiful in its appointments. The handsome parlors of the Gering home had been most appropriately decorated with flags, while the table was beautiful with a generous use of the garden flowers. The breakfast was most capably served at the appointed time, covers being laid for sixteen guests.

Following the serving of the breakfast, the morning hours were devoted to the making of booklets, illustrating the groom's effort in winning the bride. These little booklets were of the army brown color and will be cherished by the brides in years to come.

Another enjoyable feature of this pleasant entertainment was the Spinster's Redemption Chance, which provoked much merriment.

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.

From Monday's Daily. Last evening a man was brought down from Greenwood who gave his name as John Smith, but whose name later was proved to be Adele Carlson. He was charged with being insane and from the action it is testified he was guilty of, it had the semblance of a very unbalanced mind. It is claimed he was addicted to a very loathsome habit which had weakened his mind. He had gone to a home where there was no one save the woman alone, and the house dog refused to allow the man to come in the yard, whereupon he got a pole and ran the dog away, frightening the woman very badly. He was given a hearing this morning before the board of insanity, and dismissed, as they did not have jurisdiction, which would have warranted them in giving him a cow-hiding.
