OVER THE COUNTY

LOUISVILLE
Courier

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinton at their home in the country west of town last week.

James Stander left the latter part of last week for points in Kansas and Missouri, where he has extensive land interests.

Joe Youngquist, of Nehawka, visited friends in Louisville last Thursday. He has two boys in service in France who went from Camp Funston.

Elmer Anderson, of Schenectady, N. Y., arrived Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, after an absence of several months.

Howard Phelps, a 1918 graduate of the Louisville High school, left on Monday for Fort Morgan, Colorado, where he has accepted a position in a motorcycle and tire repair works at a remunerative salary.

The old Platte river has been on a rampage this week and spilled itself all over the bottom lands. Some of the boys had a great deal of sport spearing carp. The overflow was caused by heavy rains in the western part of the state.

Mrs. Edward Joachim and little son, Edward, went to Omaha Friday to meet Mr. Joachim, who was returning from a trip to Perkins county, where he recently purchased land on a former trip and had gone out to close the deal.

Mrs. Sidney McCoull, of Lincoln, is here for an indefinite visit with relatives. Since the recent death of her husband in Lincoln, she has settled up her affairs in that city and will make her home in this vicinity for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Seybert drove to Plattsmouth Sunday to spend a few hours with their daughter, Miss Iva, who is employed in the telephone exchange at that place.

Mrs. Fred Neumann took her little son to Omaha Friday, where he is receiving medical treatment for a trouble of long standing, and from which he seems to be recovering.

Mrs. Fred Brammer and her little daughter, Gertrude, left Friday to visit Mr. Brammer's sister and family near Scribner. The sister has been ill with heart trouble for some time and Mrs. Brammer will remain for a time to assist in the care of her sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt Scheel, of Washington, Nebraska, are receiving the congratulations of their friends upon the birth of a fine little boy that arrived Tuesday, June 4, 1918. Henry Wegener drove to Washington Tuesday to take his mother, Mrs. Fred Wegener up for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Scheel and family.

Miss Francis Davis closed her school Friday with a picnic. We understand she will teach the coming year near her home in Weeping Water.

Mrs. Goldie Emmons and children left on last Friday for Redding, Iowa where she will visit her sister and other relatives and friends for a few weeks.

Friday, June 28th is National War Savings Day. Put a chip of patriotism on your shoulder that day. Pledge yourself to buy War Savings stamps on that day.

Miss Lucile Grieser, of Lexington, Mo., arrived here the first of the week to visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, this summer.

Grandma Bailey and Mrs. O. G. Bailey went to McCool Junction, Nebraska, on Thursday morning, where they will visit for a while with the former's sister, Mrs. Sarah Bryant.

A number are talking of pasturing a few sheep on their lawns this year and have already ordered them. Grandma Bailey has a cute little lamb which has been feeding on the lawn lately.

On Monday evening George Miller, Guy and Bryan captured two young raccoons in the timber near town. The old one succeeded in getting away but they brought the two young ones home and will make pets of them.

J. P. Cobb was down from Lincoln on Tuesday, where he was at the bedside of Mrs. Cobb, who has been very low in the St. Elizabeth's hospital after a most serious operation. He says she is doing very well at present. He returned to Lincoln on the same day.

Miss Edith Renn received a letter from her sister, Mrs. John DeFrance, of Burdette, Alt., Canada, and she says they have had several snow storms on their garden and that men were plowing with their overcoats on. They are doing nicely there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Stone motored over to Nehawka to spend Sunday visiting with relatives. Mr. Stone says that they had a very severe hail storm in that section on Saturday night, taking in a strip of territory about a mile wide. The hail beat down the crops and in the gullies it had been washed until it was 5 or 6 feet deep with hail, some of them running up to the size of an orange. One of the Pollard orchards south of town was badly damaged.

Mrs. Charles Wentz, of Hastings, Neb., arrived on Tuesday night to spend a week visiting her brother, D. E. Jones. Mr. Jones is getting along quite well, but is still rather weak, being unable to stay up very long at a time.

Clyde McNamee, who is in the aviation camp at Fort Worth, Texas, was home on a furlough this week. He and his wife came down from Council Bluffs Wednesday evening to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McNamee and family.

Forty-nine babies are reported by local chairman, Mrs. C. E. Butler to have been brought in for examination Tuesday in the Government's Child Welfare Registration, held at the M. E. church basement Tuesday. The data gathered in these examinations as to the number of children under five years of age, their sex, condition of health and development will be tabulated by our government and the facts gained will be used as a basis for building up and bettering the children of our land, that they may make the healthy and efficient citizens they should be, when they grow up.

Miss Irene Philpot and Walker Gilmore of Murray left Wednesday evening for Venango. Miss Irene will keep house this summer for her brother, Albert, while Walker will assist on the ranch as broncho buster and cow puncher.

Miss Ruth Parker returned Saturday from Ray, Colorado, where she has been for some time with her sister, Mrs. George Hageman and family. Ruth is carrying her left arm in a sling, on account of getting it broken by being hit by an auto while in Colorado.

J. T. Hoham accompanied his wife to Rochester, Minn., last Monday. She will undergo an operation for the removal of goitre at Mayo Brothers institute.

THE CALLS TO SERVICE
From Thursday's Daily.

There are now three calls before the local board of action, though all of the information is not in their hands as yet. The first call is for fourteen from this county, for which registrants can enlist up until tomorrow night, this call is known as number 586, and is for 14 men to go to the state university for special training, for a period of two months or thereabouts, and as for artizans, not soldiers although they will be given military training. These are to go to Lincoln, entraining from there on June 15th, one week from Saturday. The next call is for 31 men, and is known as call 658, and are for men who are to be sent to Camp Funston within five days of June 24th. Call 674 is also for 31 men and are to be entrained about the same time and are to be sent to Ft. Riley for training. The enlarged camp, at that place, including army, city and detention camp, and Camp Funston, is capable of training about 130,000 men.

A MOTHERS DAY LETTER.
From Thursday's Daily.

George F. Kearnes of Company I, 168th Infantry and a portion of the Rainbow Division, of which some thirty were killed a few days since in an engagement in France, writes his mother, Mrs. Rachel Kearnes a very nice letter on Mother's day, in which he tells of the times the boys are having there. He also tells of how nice France is with the approaching summer. He speaks of the other boys who are all right and feeling well at the time of the writing of the letter. He tells also of them all writing their mothers on Mother's Day.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

If you are a sufferer from stomach troubles, indigestion, headache, etc., then it is very apparent to anyone that a remedy which will clean out thoroughly the stomach and at the same time invigorate the digestive system must bring relief from the annoying conditions. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine consists of bitter herbs of eminent medicinal value which clean the stomach and of pure red wine which strengthens the system. It is a very palatable preparation and you will be delighted with this remedy. A medical monthly writes in the May number: "It is all right as is everything that comes from the Triner's laboratories." Price $1.10. At drug stores. Triner's Lintment is an equal for rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sprains, swellings, sore muscles, tired feet, etc. 35c and 65c at drug stores, by mail 45c and 75c.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-1343 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.
