FOURTEEN GO TO LINCOLN IN LATEST CALL

NAMES OF MEN VOLUNTEERING AND SELECTED TO ATTEND UNIVERSITY.

OTHER LISTS IN A FEW DAYS

Thirty-One Each to Go to Funston and Fort Riley—Class One is Fast Growing Smaller

From Saturday's Daily.

Before selection of the men included in the call to special training at the state university at Lincoln was made, the list was held open until last evening, to accommodate voluntary enlistment of properly qualified registrants, as was provided at the time the call was issued a week ago. As a result a number of the fourteen selected to go from this county voluntarily offered themselves for induction in advance of their order number and were accepted.

After the number of men volunteering was disposed of the board at once proceeded to fill out the current quota by selecting men properly fitted to receive the training from those first in line for service.

The fourteen men to go from Cass county in this special call are but a small part of 927 who will be gathered together at the state university June 15th, and there trained intensively for two months in various branches of mechanics, but more especially airplane, tractor, auto and auto-truck engines. In addition to the special instruction they will be given along this line the men will receive a fundamental military training and they will be under regular army orders, an officer and assistants having been detailed from the regular army to look after that part of the work.

The special instruction afforded along mechanical lines will be most valuable and useful to the men lucky enough to receive it, and at the expiration of two months it is expected they will be sent across, where the service of mechanics is greatly in demand just now.

In a few days there will be announced two other calls of thirty-one men each to be sent to Camp Funston and Fort Riley, respectively. When these have been taken the ranks of class one will have been badly shattered.

The men selected to go to the state university at Lincoln, for the course in special training are:

George N. Halmas, Greenwood; Alexander Hardy, Weeping Water; John R. Heller, Greenwood; Wm. Meacham, Louisville; Leland S. Briggs, Winner; S. Dak. Fred A. Stahl, Grant; Neb. Emil H. Erlander, Union; J. Leonard Meisinger, Plattsmouth; Albert J. Waga, Plattsmouth; Edward G. Ott, Plattsmouth; James Leipert, Plattsmouth; Claude A. Stillinger, Plattsmouth; Lew A. Stanton, Weeping Water; Guy L. Clement, Elmwood.

SHERIFF SELLS CAR ENGAGED IN LIQUOR TRANSPORT

Bidding Not Spirited and Case Roadster Only Brings $400—Car was Mortgaged is Claim

From Saturday's Daily.
This morning at the south door of the court house, Sheriff Quinton sold the Case car which has been in his possession for some time. The car was captured together with a man, who gave his name as Joseph Brown and who was engaged in using the car with which to transport booze.
The Prince Auto company, of Omaha, claims a mortgage on the car, and declare they were not aware of what use was being made of it. At the sale this morning the bidding was not spirited and the car was sold to Clyde H. Fuller for $400, the money being turned in to the county court. It is claimed that the rights of property will be tried by the holder of the mortgage.

Jack McNatt, of near Rock Bluffs, was in the city this morning, looking after some business for the day.

CHURCH WEDDING IS SECOND WITHIN WEEK

AND, LIKE ITS PREDECESSOR, THIS ONE, TOO, TOOK ON A MILITARY ASPECT

A MOST IMPRESSIVE AFFAIR

Miss Edith Lillian Dovey Became Bride of Lieut. Floyd Harding Yesterday Afternoon.

From Thursday's Daily.
St. Luke's Episcopal church was the scene of another June wedding yesterday afternoon—the second one within a week's time—which like its predecessor was beautiful and militaristic in its appointments, when at 1:30 o'clock Miss Edith Lillian Dovey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dovey, was united in marriage to Lieutenant Floyd Harding, of the 41st Infantry, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harding, of Council Bluffs, Iowa. The church auditorium was a veritable bower of June blossoms, the color scheme being in yellow and white. The front of the altar was banked with branches of syringa and ferns. Just above the appointed place where the happy young couple took their vows was canopied a large American flag.

Preceding the entry of the bridal party, Mrs. John W. Falter, sister of the bride, sang very sweetly, "At Dawning," by Cadman. Scarcely had the last strains of the song died out when the patriotic strains of our own national song, "The Star Spangled Banner" were sounded on the organ by Mrs. George Falter, of Falls City, and sister of the bride, to which guests and relatives stood in honor. And immediately following, Mrs. Falter sounded the lovely Lohengrin wedding march, which announced the coming of the bridal party.

The procession was led by the ushers, Lieutenants Cooley, Powell, Fitzgerald and Reinke of the 41st Infantry of Fort Crook, while the groom, Lieutenant Harding, accompanied by his best man, Lieutenant Gerald Marsh and Father Wilbur S. Leete, rector of the church, entered the church auditorium from the sanctuary and awaited, at the altar, the coming of the bride. The ushers were followed by Master George Thomas, dressed in cassock and cotta and carrying the cross. He was followed by Master Edward Patterson, nephew of the bride, who was dressed in cassock and cotta, and acted as flag bearer.

Then came Mrs. Rosa F. Patterson, sister of the bride, as Matron of Honor. She was attired in a yellow organdie gown, trimmed in fine insertion. She wore a yellow and white georgette hat and carried a bouquet of Mrs. Ward roses and yellow and white daisies, tied with yellow ribbon and white chiffon.

She was followed by the ring bearer, little Miss Suzanne Falter, niece of the bride, who was dressed in dainty white embroidered Swiss, trimmed with a large yellow ribbon sash. Around her head was a band of yellow moline on which were fastened yellow daisies. The band terminated in a large moline bow at the back of her head, the ends of which fell to the bottom of her dress. She carried the ring on a tiny white satin cushion, a white tassel hanging from each corner.

The bride then entered the auditorium of the church, being led to the altar by her father, Mr. George E. Dovey. She was very charming in her wedding gown of white organdie with overskirt of broad and narrow tucks, the waist full and held in by a crushed belt and extending into little ripples over the hips. The veil was fashioned into a little cap, the front of which was fine lace forming a coronet. The veil, which hung to the hem of her wedding garment, was caught at the back of the bride's head with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and white daisies tied with heavily embroidered chiffon sash.

Father Wilbur S. Leete, Rector of St. Luke's church read the marriage lines. Just before the ring was placed on the bride's finger, the little ring bearer handed it to Lieutenant Jerry Marsh, the best man, who gave it to Father Leete, and it was then taken to the altar where it was blessed. It was in this very church that the parents and three sisters—Mrs. R. P. Patterson, Mrs. George Falter and Mrs. John W. Falter pledged their marriage vows, and then to yesterday marked the second wedding anniversary of one of the sisters—Mrs. John Falter, which made this marriage ceremony of the youngest daughter and sister most impressive.

As the bridal party left the church, Mrs. Falter played Mendelssohn wedding march for recessional.

Mrs. John W. Falter wore a beautiful gown of pink, with picture hat to match, while Mrs. George Falter was dressed in blue and wore picture hat to match.

Following the ceremony, a lovely wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, to which relatives and close friends had been bidden. The living rooms had been made very attractive with a generous use of peonies, pink roses and ferns. The dining room was prettily decorated with the yellow moline and yellow and white daisies. An elegant two course wedding luncheon was served, the color scheme of yellow and white being carried out in the service. Those assisting in the dining room were Misses Nora Livingston, Mary Rosencrans, Gretchen Dannelly, Claire Herrman of Watertown, Wis., and Charlotte Hayes of Milwaukee, Wis.

This wedding, which was to have been a very large affair, was made as simple as possible on account of the illness of the mother of the bride and because of the expected orders for the transfer of the groom's regiment to Camp Funston.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Harding departed on the afternoon flyer for a short wedding trip, after which they will be stationed at Camp Funston. The bride is a very charming young lady, and is very popular in the younger social set. With her pleasing and winning way has won many friends. She attended school in this city for a number of years, as well as devoted some time to the study of voice culture. Many times we have heard her sweet voice in vocal selections.

Lieutenant Harding, well not so well known, has visited in the city a number of times and has made many friends in this short time, whose best wishes will ever attend him and his sweet young bride.

The out-of-town guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul Rainke, Lieutenant and Mrs. George Fingerson; Lieutenants Cooley, Marsh, Fitzgerald, Powell, all of Fort Crook, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harding, parents of the groom; Mrs. Dollie Dick Burgess, Mrs. Jay C. Aid, Miss Mary Aid; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels of Council Bluffs; Mrs. T. R. Rutledge of Omaha; Miss Marjorie Kimball and Mrs. Belle Gass and daughter Miss Lucille of Lincoln; Miss Charlotte Hayes of Milwaukee, Wis.; Miss Claire Herrman of Watertown, Wis.

WRITES FROM FRANCE.

From Saturday's Daily.
Mrs. O. L. York just received a letter from her son Frank who is in France, where he is a railroad station agent, having gone with a regiment of railroad workers some months since. Frank wrote his mother on Mother's day, and wished to remember her, and tells of the good times which he was having, says that he is a long way from the zone of fighting, and where there is absolutely no danger, and that he would much prefer being nearer to the front. He says that there is plenty of work to do, but that he enjoys the work, and as it keeps him out of doors a great deal of the time that it is a healthy occupation.

Al Tolander of the Western Machine and Foundry Company, was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where he is visiting for over Sunday with his family.

INCREASING DEMANDS FOR MEN TO SERVE

CALLS ARE COMING IN THICK AND FAST THESE DAYS AS SOLDIERS GO OVER.

JUNE QUOTA IN STATE 5,000

Plattsmouth to Send 31 Men on the 24th to Camp Funston—Another 31 in Few Days.

The calls are coming in rapidly now for men to take their places in the various training camps and be trained for warfare. The contingents have been pretty well emptied by the sending across of large numbers of the men drafted last fall and others are at concentration points awaiting their turn to cross the ocean. This is largely responsible for the present-time heavy drafts of men, and with the training camps again filled it is probable the situation will ease off for two or three months. With the number being called to Funston in the present call, those scheduled to go to Lincoln and those who will follow a little later to Ft. Riley, this state will have furnished in June alone, over 5,000 men, or nearly as many as had been included in calls going before. And incidentally this call and the following one will so deplete the ranks of class one, that it will be necessary to soon get into the "coming-21" youths who registered a few days ago.

Following is a list of those who are selected to go to Camp Funston, on or about the 24th of this month, the exact date not being yet known, but it will be made public as soon as the information comes to hand:

- 923 Anton Jensen, Omaha
- 928 Fred H. Verburg, Plattsmouth
- 977 Henry Westend, New Orleans

CALLED EAST BY SICKNESS

From Saturday's Daily.
John S. Rhoades departed last evening for Decatur, Michigan, to which place he was called by the illness of a sister, Mrs. Manes Bruner, whose condition is serious and who will undergo an operation upon the arrival of her brother. The case is so serious that it is deemed best to await the arrival of the brother, leastwise she might not be able to see him. It is hoped that when he shall arrive he will find the sister in a much improved condition and that she may withstand the shock of the operation and recover her health.

CONCLUDE THE PAVING OF CHICAGO AVENUE

From Saturday's Daily.
The ninety days is more than up, and the avenue is open for traffic. There has been a good deal of trouble in the getting of this work done, much dissatisfaction, had been manifested, but the work is completed and is now using for public traffic. The next thing is for the city to accept the work, and pass upon its quality. This will be done when they shall have gotten to the matter. The engines barricades which has closed this public thoroughfare, will we hope be cleared away, so that traffic can flow in and out of the city without the necessity of going out and around the city some other way as has been the case for so long.

VISITOR FROM IOWA

From Friday's Daily.
J. Z. Adams, an old time friend of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, of the Auto Malleable and Power Co., was a visitor at their home for a few hours yesterday in this city. Mr. Adams operates a large sheep ranch, near Melrose, Iowa, and his business called him into this locality and he took advantage of the opportunity to pay Plattsmouth a visit. Years ago he was quite a frequent visitor in this city, and in passing over the beautiful hills as he terms them, he cannot help but notice the many changes, the many new and beautiful homes that have been erected, and in his own language, "a beautiful place to live, and not truly appreciated by the average Plattsmouth citizen." In company with Mr. Young, he paid the Journal office a pleasant call, and we found him a very pleasant gentleman, and when such remarks are made of our good old town, we feel that we really are making a greater advancement toward a more beautiful city than we realize. May we see ourselves as others see us. Miss Catherine Young, returned home with Mr. Adams and will spend her summer vacation on the large sheep ranch near Melrose.

MADE AN EXCELLENT ADDRESS.

Last evening Judge Allen J. Beeson, in his four minute talk at the Parmele Theatre made one of the best addresses, which it had been the lot of the people of this city to listen to for some time. The judge's remarks were to the point and concise, bearing on facts and bristling with points which any and all could understand, showing that he was well acquainted with the subject on which he spoke.

THIS WOMAN HAD SUFFERED SINCE SHE WAS A CHILD

MRS. O'NEILL GAINS EIGHTEEN POUNDS ON TANLAC AND TROUBLES ARE OVERCOME.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have actually gained eighteen pounds" was the remarkable statement made by Mrs. Mamie O'Neill of 2601 1/2 Welton St., Denver, Colorado, recently.

"Ever since I was a child" Mrs. O'Neill continued, "even as far back as I can remember, I have had trouble with my stomach. Everything I would eat soured on my stomach causing awful pain and at times I would almost smother from the gas which would rise up around my heart. My trouble became worse as I grew older and finally I got to where I dreaded to eat anything on account of the dreadful suffering it caused me.

"I tried every kind of medicine, I think, that is made for stomach trouble, both in tablet and liquid form, but nothing ever did me any good. I fell off in weight, was very weak and when night came I was so tired I could hardly move. My brother in Pueblo told me of the fine results he had gotten from Tanlac and advised me to try it. The result is, I'm just beginning to enjoy the blessings of good health. I can't remember when I was in as good physical condition as now and it's the first time since I was a child that I could eat without suffering afterwards. My appetite is splendid and I can eat just anything I want and enjoy it, and I know if my food did not agree with me I could never have gained so much in weight. I sleep well every night now and Tanlac has built up my strength until I can do my work without getting the least bit tired. I now recommend Tanlac to everybody, because of what it has done for me and I'm buying a bottle now for a friend of mine for I believe it is just what she needs."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke & Co., in Alva by Alvo Drug Co., in Avoca by O. E. Copps, in South Bend by E. Sturzenegger in Greenwood by E. F. Smith, in Weeping Water by Meier Drug Co., and in Elmwood by L. A. Tyson.
