Mrs. Earl Powers and little son went to Auburn Saturday night to visit a few days. Mrs. Powers now has three brothers in the service, one in France and one at the Great Lakes and the other at Ft. Logan, Colo.
Miss Jeanette Teegarden returned Saturday evening. She didn't wait to return with the family as she leaves soon for Bellingham, Wash., and in company with three girl college friends will go camping on the coast.
Mrs. L. V. Sloan and little girls who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McNamee, left Saturday morning for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, their new home. She was accompanied as far as Lincoln by her sister, Miss Maude McNamee.
Rich Hobson is carrying his left arm in a sling, due to too much Fourth of July celebration. His arm was burned by some explosive, which defies the "safe and sure" idea. Rich looks as though he were a veteran just back from the front line trenches but he doesn't complain.
Mr. and Mrs. George Olive and Mrs. Olive's mother, Mrs. Emma Deibhaugh, and H. Lee Marshall autoed to Ft. Des Moines Monday to see Ben Olive. They found him quite well. They also saw Walter Phillips. The rest of the Weeping Water boys are gone.
Charles Philpott came in from the ranch Sunday night. He reports things going nicely out there, only a little dry just now, although there is plenty of pasture yet. He says the oats crop is a little short but the wheat is good and just ready to harvest when he left.

Mrs. T. F. Jameson went to Murray Wednesday to visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Brandel and family. Mrs. Jameson is finishing up her summer visits and will return to Lincoln soon.
Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey of Grand Island, arrived Wednesday morning for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Heebner, southeast of town. Mr. Bailey was a former citizen of this community and filed on 56 acres of land in 1865, west of the Dave Mills farm.
In order to conserve every bushel of wheat from any danger of destruction whatever, our two elevators are to be guarded every night by Home Guards while the heavy movement of wheat is on during the harvest time. The first watch put on Tuesday night. Two men, one from each of the two companies of Guards constitute the guard. They are armed and prepared to handle any situation that might arise.

A. H. Waltz and family left on Thursday for Akron, and Ft. Morgan, Colo., by the auto route to look after his interests there. Will be there a couple of weeks and will be glad to have any of the Elmwood friends call on them. Write them when you will be there or inquire of B. T. Shanholts's office, Ft. Morgan.
The boys of this end of the county composed of Elmwood, Eagle, Alvo, and Murdock have decided to organize a community band. On Tuesday evening a number met at Alvo to organize. Mr. Trunkholz of Eagle was chosen as leader. It is hoped to have about 30 in the band. The object is to get up a band that can be used for any occasion. This is a good idea as a band cannot be maintained by one town and by all going together it will be easy to maintain a good band. We can look for some band concerts in the near future.

ing her niece Mrs. Bailey of Milford, Nebraska, this week.
The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin who has been quite sick is much better.
