PAGE FOUR.

The Plattsmouth Journal PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter R. A. BATES, Publisher SUBSCRIPTION PRICE: $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE Peace talk in Germany is all DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CON-VENTION AT LOUISVILLE | bunkum. -:0:--The Democratic County Conven-Wonder if Kola in Russia is any tion will be held at Louisville on relation to Coca Cola. Wednesday, July 17, at 10 A. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to ---:0:---The doom of the kaiser is plantthe state convention to be held at Hastings on Tuesday, July 30, 1918. ed in the heart of every American and Cass county is entitled to 19 patriot. delegates thereto. The democrats of -:0:--the various precincts are requested "Dainty refreshments" in most to meet on Saturday, July 13, to instances means almost enough for their voting places and select such delegates as they are en- one bite. to the Louisville convention. -:0:--Other business of importance will The way the American soldiers come before the convention. By win the iron cross is to pick them G. H. GILMOUR. order of off of prisoners. County Chairman. -:0:--"Remember the Lusitania!" is the The weather man is queer. slogan that should inspire the heart He'd just as well turn on the of every American patriot. -:0:--water. Don't telephone in the afternoon -:0:----A loafer is a poor specimen in this during the hot season, because the other end of the line may be in the town. bathtub. - :0:-----The slacker has no countenance --:0:----Don't forget those War Savings these days. Stamps you are going to buy, but buy -:0:---Nobody can accuse the early them today-don't wait till tomorcantaloupes of having used too row. much sugar this season. -:0:----

-:0:--ginning to think the new newspaper A good woman often marries a bad man, so she can reform him. But you never heard of a good man cracked it up to be. doing anything like that for a bad woman.

-:0:--

As was to be expected, the move- adopted. But don't worry. If they ment to educate our singers at are not, others will be. home instead of abroad suits everybody except the singers and the reighbors.

PLATTSMOUTH SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL.

THE OLD MAN.

Backward, turn backward,

O Time, in thy flight;

Make me a boy again,

Make me a boy again,

A knapsack and gun.

Just twenty-one,

Give me the muscles

I had years ago,

Give me a step that's

Not wabbly and slow.

Give me the strength that I may play my part.

All I have now for War is the heart.

Give me the vim and

The vigor of youth,

That is the truth.

Give me a chance

Far away France.

It is to be told:

Back to the fireside;

Time, you're a criminal,

You've made a counfounded

-----:0:------

THE GREAT PARTNERSHIP.

A hundred million of us are facfacing life and death; and the result women have opened their purses to of high virtue at a 4 per cent profit, vicious, but a tie of no mean force

That's plain to see,

Old slacker of me.

You're no good-too old."

What a chastisement it

I'll fight till doomsday, and Turn back the decades and

To sail with the legions for

So I can fight.

So I can shoulder

KINGS NO LONGER RULE.

A great many nations united with value. We desire to do what we can this country in celebrating the Fourth of July and several have made it a legal national holiday, course that gives the fullest freest among them France, Brazil, Peru, scope to such capacities as we may and Cuba. That means the adoption DOSSESS.

of the principles contained in the Declaration of Independence. The whole civilized world, outside of the Central powers, has at least come to the point of acknowledging that all governments derive their just powers from the consent of the people. There is, outside of those nations with which this nation is now a war, no longer a claim made that there is a privileged class having more.

the hereditary right to rule. In some of them there are still kings, but the kings do not rule. In them, parliament elected by the people rule, and the king must obey the Ledger. laws enacted by these parliaments.

The principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence, were not first announced on its promulgation, but Jefferson put them \into words that will live and influence the world for ages yet to come. He said that some of them were selfevident, and so they were but it has taken nearly 150 years for the rest democratic ruler of Great Britain of the world to accept them. They has not been slow to learn the fine were not intended to appy only to points of the game. the colonies which proclaimed them.

They were principles that applied to all mankind .--- World-Herald.

YOUR PLACE AND MINE.

-----:0:-----

ing Washington, facing Flanders, The world is not so narrowed that here is not room for all. The spirit in national unity already surpasses may climb as high as it pleases, and all expectation and all precedent find its place beyond the clouds among us. Ten million men and where there is illimitable space, and the spirit is the more important part lend the nation money; not an act of us, we know. And still there is though the refusal would have been among those people and between one great task of winning the war. We are anxious to count for our full do best. We anxiously weigh the pros and cons and decide on a

The place is there, if we can find it. There is something for every one to do. None need or should be idle. Struggles for social priority, salves for wounded vanity, jealousies and bickerings and wire-pullings and fictions that take energy-all these seem worse than wicked superfluities in this time when each must pull his own weight and considerable

If we have not found our places, it is our business to find them as soon as we can and devote ourselves to our work .--- Philadelphia Public

-:0:-TWO GEORGES OF ENGLAND.

nied. And so it was that the American colonies declared their inde-

On this Fourth of July somewhere near London two teams composed of American soldiers are going to play a baseball game and King George is going to pitch the first ball. ,Arlie Latham, of Yankee diamond fame, has been coaching the king and this

It is not shocking that George true should have been first to open- istered for the draft are a part of the ica's national pastime. He has eat done everything possible to refute it en our buckwheat cakes `at mess and clear that man's good name. time with the American soldiers. He

Another family whose standing has has mingled with his own war workalways been good, is, since the ers, taking a personal interest in their affairs. He has been seen at smoking out of some dirty charac- ernment in its efforts to borrow or all times of the day and night in ter assassins, now declared above interfere with or discourage, by word camps and hospitals. He has been reproach. The erstwhile gossips ex- or act, the successful sale of bonds a busy man, not an ornamental king. plaining that there never was any

And this King George has learned, desire on their part to do wrong to plenty of elbow-room for the ground- it is healthier and happier for the the wronged. This is no time for ing on this goodly frame the earth, ruler as well as the people to be the gossip. No time for stabbing in the tution, the army and navy, the uniand all the guns and axes and torch- crowned head of a constitutional beck. We have no room for pro-es ere the war is ended will not monarchy where democracy may Germans. No room for disloyalists

MONDAY, JULY 15, 1918.

PUT SOME OF IT IN OUR BANK WHERE

IT IS ABSOLUTELY SAFE ALL OF THAT PAY BELONGS TO YOU-PUT IT IN THE BANK OR IT WILL SOON BELONG TO SOMEONE ELSE.

ARE YOU ALWAYS GOING TO BE A "HORSE IN A TREAD-MILL," WORKING FOR MONEY THAT OTHERS GET?

WHEN YOU

GET

THE MONEY YOU WASTE, IF IT WERE PUT IN OUR BANK, WOULD SERVE YOU OR KEEP YOU MIGHTY WELL SOME DAY.

START A BANK ACCOUNT NOW. WE PAY 31-2 PER CENT ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS. COME TO OUR BANK.

OPEN SATURDAY NIGHTS FROM 7:00 TO 9:00

military forces though not yet callly denounce the man and that, findshould become interested in Amering the charge untrue, should have ed to the colors.

> 3-He must not wilfully interfere with any man who wishes to enlist in the army and navy.

> 4-He must not hamper the govor thrift stamps.

5-He must not abuse or defame our form of government, the constiform or the flag.

6-He must not threaten to in-

-:0:----The Hun Kaiser doesn't ask his subjects for what he wants-he just takes it without thanks or apology. How different the United States way of borrowing and pay interest.

----:0:------Kerensky, having become accustomed to being called the man of the hour, can hardly complain at being referred to in Paris as a hasbeen, now that the hour has passed.

-:0:---Nearly every nation except the Central so-called Powers helped us celebrate our Fourth of July this year. And it is hoped by next year we shall have them by the scruffs of their various necks and make them jump around and enjoy it too.

-:0:-A contemporary has quoted this department as saying that no male quartet can sing. We are sorry this impression has gone abroad. We had no desire to draw the line so closely. What we meant to convey is that no male quartet ever has.

-:0: Petitions are being circulated for R. L. Metcalfe for United States senator on the democratic ticket We are not for Mr. Metcalfe for senator, but are for ex-Governor Morehead who made a great record while Chief Executive of the great state Nebraska.

-:0:---Nebraska's contribution to the Red Cross fund in the recent drive is officially announced as standing at $2,300,000. Wisconsin gave $2,-250,000, Iowa, $2,509,317, Michigan $5,000,000 and Illinois $10,123,000. Considering its population Nebraska carried on creditably as compared with the other states in the central district.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy Hall's Catarrh Meditaken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrh Medicine was prescribed by one of the best physicians

Some of the best reading about the American army these days is beship later. ween the lines-between the Ameri-

The post office department is be-postal law is not what Kitchin

-:0:----

Possibly all the taxes suggested by the Treasury Department will not be can line and the Hun line. -:0:-

Emperor Charles and Empress Zita are at outs, and from all accounts the war in the palace is being as badly conducted as that at the front.

-----:0:------There are twenty-seven royal famlies in Europe, eighteen of which are of German origin. Quite a job to exterminate the whole bunch, but it nust be done.

-:0:--The German press professes not to understand what President Wilson was talking about in his Fourth of July speech, but that doesn't matter. All our allies do.

-:0:---The original home of John Brown, back in Connecticut, burned. However, if his spirit is hesitating what to do, suggests the Ottawa Herald, there is another original home of his remaining at Osawatomie, Kans.

-:0:--If the road between town and Platte river bridge is not repaired pretty soon travel that way to Omashoulder to shoulder straming to do ha will have to cease altogether. That's what those who travel that way tell us.

-:0:---Leon Trotzky has said that beminded will deplore. And if the tween Japanese and German occupation of Russia he would perfer the German. It is suspected that this is not the only subject upon which the Bolsheviki and the kaiser cordially agree.

----:0:-----It is easy enough, too, to vote for prohibition, and so do away with the legally regulated liquor traffic. But it is not so easy to prevent liquor being sold illegally. And the bootleg whisky is the rottenest poison. A very little of it drives men mad and makes them completely irresponsible. -:0:---

"How that man ever makes money is more than I can see. He can't keep his mind on the war, or politics, or baseball or any other subject them and the government. Ten mil lion more will share in the partnercamps of refuge.

-----:0:-----

Millions more of men and women who little dreamed a year ago of deviating from their daily round at the country's call have gone to camps and hospitals and trenches. There the nephew of Lee has taken the hand of the grandson of Grant, the White Mountain boy is keeping step with the Hoosier, and the young millionaire is wapping anecdotes and "makings" with the plumberunless the plumber has won ni spurs. We have never had a school of equality approaching a draft army facing common work and common peril. Those who are not yet called to this onerous service are getting at home an appreciable lesson in fraternity. It takes a stringent time like the present to put individual men and classes on their mettle in confederate effort. And classes are approaching each other. A lady throws open her parlors to a congress called by her butler to consider food-saving. In general-for the exceptions, though noisy, are few-capitalist and laborer stand > their best. In general labor gains increasingly for its services, and capital pays the larger bills of the war, a fact that few of the right-> small-salaried man feels the pinch more than either, the tightening of his belt will probably not impede a desirable expansion of his better sentiments. The few who stand aloof and "strut their uneasy hour" are growing lonelier every day. If anyone thinks that they are many, little reading in the history of the civil war on either side will soon alter his opinion. He will easily convince himself of the prime fact that never before, not in the war for independence, not in the war for the union, or any other time or over any other question, has America enjoyed such unanimity .- Ernest Hunter Wright, in Century.

poil the greenery and the pleasant of a down-trodden nation

But the place of man or woman is at present not the place of ease, but he place of service; not the post of dreaming, but the post of doing; not the standpoint or viewpoint far aloof from all that is hard and perilous, but the coign that is as close to the front as duty decides it shall be. The front is not three thousand miles of salt water distant. The front-line trenches may run through your back yard or down your street, even though they do not bristle with bayonets, or reverberate with the pendence and planted the seed of guns. We may be soldiers, vigilant democracy in a newer world. that no enemy shall cross No Man's And from that seed has sprung a Land and take us prisoner, even though we hear about us only the great tree, the furthermost branches of which have extended across the music of birds and insects in the grass, and the cattle are placid in Atlantic. The spirit of the Fourth will be manifested in all parts of the meadow, and peaceful rural loveliness is round about. In miles the France and England. The king of fever and foray, the cries of mortal England, the direct blood descend-anguish, the flaming doors of the ent of the ruler who by his tyranny caused the seed to be planted less fiery furnace are distant, but if we have the least imaginative capacity than two centuries ago, tool or sympathetic realization, "the" part in the celebration of America's Independence day. The contrast is war has long ago been recognized as 'our" war, and has come home to us. enough to make George III turn over in his grave. So that those of us who are patriots-and who are not?-are restless if we have not found some way of making ourselves useful in the in his troubled mind the events of

Star.

-:0:-

Buy Flour and Substitutes when you can get you will save money and tongues have done untold damage.

have free play without royal med- and no room for the sneaking curs jure bodily or to kill the president that would rob a man of his good dling than to be the autocratic head name. If a man is a traitor to It is a long way from George III America, shoot him as soon as you to George V. George, the tory, and have proved that he is. If he is a George, the democrat! One hundlying, black-hearted villain who red and forty-two years ago George would rob his fellow man of his III sat upon the throne and ruled an good name under the guise of patenslaved nation with the same autoriotism, like a Hun would rob a cratic will the kaiser today rules the woman of her virtue, treat him as you treat the traitor and the Hun. German people. The Prussianism

 Norfolk, Neb., Press. which grips Germany is not unlike the tyranny which then gripped the -:0:-English people. Liberty were de-

Meatless and wheatless days in the United States, almost entirely self-imposed, have had a bigger part in the fight against the Hun than generally realized. Scarcely any one has found any great inconvenience in giving up his T-bone steak or his whole-wheat bread and very few have contemplated just what a part this little sacrifice has played in the maintenance of the allied food supply.

this year, the United States exported 80,000,000 bushels of wheat Europe. Over 50,000,000 bushels of that amount, according to Hoover, was saved by the voluntary sacri-In the steel covered towers of fice of the American people. Potsdam the kaiser may well reflect Porkless days made possible shipment of 30,000,000 pounds of one hundred and forty-two years of pork products to the allies in March. English history. 'The beginning of Beefless days enabled the United this span was marked by thirteen States, in the same month, to meet small democratic colonies fighting the demand for 70,000,000 pounds of against the toryism of one nation, frozen beef and throw in an addithe end is marked by all the dem tional 16,000,000 pounds for good simply ask for a kidney remedyocratic nations of the world united measure. Allied commissioners have [in a death struggle against the autothe highest praise for the help the cracy of kaiserism. All men and all people of the United States are women in the nations at war with voluntarily giving to relieve the food Germany and her allies know which situation. It is another one of the side will be victorious .-- Lincoln many things Kaiser Bill didn't expect from the Americans. Stay with it .-- Lincoln Star. THE CHARACTER ASSASSINS. -:0:---WHAT CONSTITUTES A PATRIOT. For months past certain Norfolk citizens have had their names ban-1-He must not make or repeat died about by unscrupulous gossips false statements for the purpose of whose whispers of the disloyaly of interfering with our naval or milithe persons under the lash of their tary success.

2-He must not incite to disloyalty, insubordination, mutiny, or reof the United States.

7-He must not encourage resistance to the United States or opposition to its cause.

> 8-He must not support or advocate the cause of our enemies. 9-He must not urge or incite the curtailment of production of war materials.

> 10-He must not be a party to any plot or conspiracy to overthrow the government, oppose its authority, obstruct the enforcement of its laws, destroy its property, or violate any of its laws.

CANNOT EXIST

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in Plattsmouth.

How can doubt exist in the face of such evidence? Read here the enforsement of a representative citizen of Plattsmouth.

Louis Kroehler, prop. hardware In the ten months up to April of store, 521 Main St., says: "About a year ago, I had a pain in my back and I was so lame I couldn't stoop. My kidneys were weak and I had a tired, languid feeling nearly all the time. Headaches were common. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills from Edward Rynott & Co.'s Drug Store and they soon relieved me." (Statement given April 10, 1912.)

On February 22, 1916 Mr. Kroehler said: "I still hold the same opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I first endorsed them. It has been several years since I have ha dto take a kidney medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't get Doan's Kidney Pills-the same that Mr. Kroehler had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Lame Shoulder.

This ailment is usualy caused by heumatism of the muscles. All that, is needed is absolute rest and a few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it.

A. L. Furlong from Rock Bluffs made his regular journey to this city today to look after some business for the day and to do his weekly trading.

AND RYE