THE RED SOX PLAY THE FIELD

THE MERCHANTS OF VENICE OR FLORENCE, OR WHATEVER IT IS, PLAYED BALL.

PLATTSMOUTH WIN 2 TO 1

Very Neat Game, Though Filled With Errors and Striking Good Plays.

From Monday's Daily.
Last Sunday the game between the Red Sox and the Merchants of Florence, was pulled off per the agreement, and while we had some of the regular players off on a vacation, and others crippled, the game which they put up was one better than that which the visitors played. We had a number of glaring errors, which was only retrieved by brilliant plays elsewhere. In the beginning Stimpson was a little too strong, but soon came under the wire in good shape. He walked the first man who made a run before the next man had been put out on a foul. Foran, after having been given his first attempted second, and Herold with more powder in than he had thought, put the ball over Turner on second, and before Grassman could get it Foran had successfully navigated with third and home plate thus making them a run, the only one during the entire game, and this only by the reason that the ball went too high and the sheep failed to eat all the weeds. There were individual plays of note for the team was made up of some four or more teams, and it was not possible to tell who were the ones which represented the Florence Merchants.

James Skoumal, who by the way, is a former Plattsmouth boy, was a hummer, as he played on third and also as batter. Of the seven who saw first and two of them walks, he had three of them. During the second inning, Skoumal made third, and the only one outside of the incident of the first inning. The tally sheet shows a record of goose eggs throughout. The men slipping around so easily in the first only put the boys on their mettle, and in the last half of the second, Stimpson got a swat at the ball which netted him two bases, and made third when Grassman got a single to first. Skoumal kept the ball and Stimpson not knowing it, stepped off the base and was tagged out. In the fourth, Turner was forced to second, but was caught and put out there, while Edwards was treated the same way, when Herold made a two bagger, and came home on Gradoville's hit. Gradoville was at third when Stimpson went out on a fly. No one got past second after that until the last half of the ninth inning when Edwards was given a walk and earned second, when Herold got a fair hit, and Edwards came home, and ended the game, the results being as follows:

Some of the spectacular plays were made by Edwards on first, when he caught three hot ones straight from the bat, and by McCarty in center field, Grassman at short and Gradoville on third.

WILL GO TO HARVARD TO COMPLETE TRAINING
From Monday's Daily.
Frank Barkus who has been visiting here for the past week, departed yesterday morning for Chicago, and is returning to the Great Lakes training school, and will there go to Harvard, to complete his training in the Radio Telegraph. Mr. Barkus was an operator, and this has given him an added experience, which has materially assisted in the acquiring a proficiency in this work. Just at this time the government is not receiving any enlistments where the applicant is not able to receive fifteen words per minute.

MARRIED AT LEDGERWOOD, S. D.
From Monday's Daily.
Frank Kalacek who has been staying in the north for some time, was possessed with the idea which the first man, Adam, got, that it was not well to live alone, and took unto himself a wife of the South Dakota people and is just at this time visiting with his relatives and friends here. They will make their home in the north, but will visit here for a short time. Albert Codek and wife from the same place, Lesterville, S. D., accompanied them and will spend a few days here also.

THOMAS WILLS DID THE TURN.

From Monday's Daily.
The matter of the condition of the roads between the Masonic home and the Platte bridge, which has come in for such a scolding at the hands of everybody from Duluth to San Antonio, and from Seattle to Savannah as well as the people at home, has been made better. It has come from a source not looked for but for which the public are grateful, nevertheless. Thomas Will who lives on the road between here and the bridge took his teams and hired man, and went after the road, from the Masonic home to the river, probably cost him some twenty-five or thirty dollars, but he got results in that the road is in pretty fair condition at this time. The putting of the road into passible condition is erasing a blot from the name of Plattsmouth and Cass county in her honor roll among the cities and counties of the state. It is an added convenience to everyone who have to travel over the road. Thanks to Mr. Wills for his kindness, he had no more obligation to make a road of this kind, than a hundred other people, but he did have what those should have had who did not fix the road, an inclination to remove the stigma, of an almost impassable road which led past his home.

LOUIS MINNER ENTERS SERVICE.

From Monday's Daily.
Louis Minner who was a barber in this city for about two years, but who went to Council Bluffs some time since, returned here last evening and went with the boys to Camp Dodge, where he will enter the training. Louis is the fourth of the family to go, the other three having been in the service for some time. Mrs. Minner will live with and keep house for her father, who has a fruit farm near Council Bluffs.

Mr. Minner was in class two but in the reclassification withdrew the dependency clause and was placed in class one, and now goes.

REASONS FOR NOT REPORTING.

From Monday's Daily.
Thomas H. Niece transferred to Kirkwood, Ark., Paul F. Jung transferred to Pappillon, Charles P. Hill on District board, W. A. Core, W. J. Dietrick, Fred Reichman are off for thrashing, after which they will report for service. Thomas J. Hennegar of Weeping Water has his leg broken.

NOT ACCOUNTED FOR TO DATE.

From Monday's Daily.
When the lists were called and checked up this morning by the local board, Fred Reike of Stockton, Cal., Frank and Mack Riggs, of Brighton, Mo., Luther H. Hutsell of Hugins, Mo., and Claude Riggs, who has been working for W. S. Jean just south-west of the city did not respond. The man at Stockton, Cal., nothing has been heard of him. Frank and Mack Riggs had gone to their home to visit the folks before they went, and have not returned as also is the case of Luther H. Hutsell, who went to Hugins, Mo. Claude Riggs has left and where is not known.

ONE OF THE MANY INSTANCES.

Mr. F. T. Lapitz, Britt, Iowa, writes: "Being a user of Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine for the past 12 years, I cannot recommend a better family remedy than Triner's American Elixir as we cannot do without it. In thousands and thousands of other households Triner's American Elixir has made good in the same way. It is not a beverage, it is a remedy which must be taken in doses and, as Mr. D. C. Oudshorn, Chemist of the Board of Health of the State of West Virginia declared on Nov. 26, 1915, it has to be looked upon as to be a medicinal preparation. If you are troubled with constipation, indigestion, headaches, flatulence, nervousness, general weakness, this remedy can be relied upon. Price $1.10. At drug stores. Triner's Liniment is an excellent preparation for rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sprains, swellings, etc. At drug stores 35 and 65 cents, by mail 45 and 75 cents. Joseph Triner Company, 1333-1343 S. WEEPING WATER HOME GUARDS ARE AFTER SOME DELINQUENTS NEAR THERE.

From Monday's Daily.
The mission of the home guards is to do the things necessary, which the law in its broader application or more specific sense, does not take cognizance of, and the company which was organized at Weeping Water, have not lost the view of what they are there for. This morning they were in when the boys were going away and desired to take the matter of the delinquency of a family in that neighborhood, who had few of their substitute to the hogs, had boasted that they had gotten two of their sons out of the draft and would get the other one out. While there were a number of the boys young men, the father had rented the farm to the sons, in order to keep them the manager of the farm, and they hired out by the month to the boys, which they seemed to think would cover the legal phase of the matter. The county attorney was out of town and they had to defer the matter until his return.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

From Monday's Daily.
Mrs. George E. Dovey, who has not been in the best of health for the past months and who has not been improving as much as her relatives and friends would like, was taken to the Wise Memorial Hospital in Omaha yesterday. It is hoped that her illness may yield to the treatments and care received at the hospital and that she may soon be able to return to her home in usual good health. Her large circle of friends will be sorry to learn of her continued illness and hope she may enjoy a speedy recovery.
