

EARL L. MURRAY IS WOUNDED IN FRANCE

CARD FROM HIM TO J. W. HALE TELLS OF BULLET HOLE THROUGH LEFT ARM.

IS RECOVERING AT HOSPITAL

Writes Card On Day of Death of His Friend Private Eddie C. Ripple Jr.

From Tuesday's Daily. A card was received this morning by J. W. Hale, from France telling of the wounding in the left arm of Earl L. Murray, which occurred before the death of Edward C. Ripple, his chum, as the card was written from a hospital in which he was receiving treatment on the day of the death of Mr. Ripple. The card said that Earl was in the hospital, and it was written on his birthday July 28th. The card did not say how serious, the wound was other than that a hole was through his arm.

While we have had notice of the death of Mr. Ripple some time since, the casualty lists, if they had the account of the wounding, were overlooked by his friends here. It is hoped that the wound is not serious and that Mr. Murray is getting along in good condition. It seems a coincidence, that they, two fast friends should be injured so near the same time, the one to death, while the other should write to America on the date of the other ones death, not knowing anything about the nearest friend being killed.

THEY ARE SURE A LIVE BUNCH

From Tuesday's Daily. The Juvenile band of Louisville and a bunch of boys with pep, vim and go-a-head-a-tive-ness, and are making the people in this county set up and take notice, that they are music makers. They have now on a carnival for next week, which will be from the 26th to and inclusive of the 31st.

They will have a good one and there is no rubbing that out, for we have heard this band do some playing and they can do it. This afternoon the band with a few others of the younger citizens of Louisville, and as well as this list of the older head: Wm. Diers, George Sjogren, C. G. Mayfield, D. E. Smith, Edward and Fred Osenkopp, Frank Wheeler Howard Jackman, John Sash, James Stander. They are strutting things. They paraded this city and gave some excellent music, and departed for Murray, and also will make a number of other towns of the county returning to their town via Weeping Water and Manley today, and another time taking other sections of the county as an advertisement for the carnival. They are surely boosters.

WILL PROBABLY COME SUNDAY

From Tuesday's Daily. Elin Smith of near Union was a visitor yesterday at the home of his wife's parents C. H. Biggs and family, as were also Mrs. Wm. Fox of Omaha, who had come down hoping that they might be able to meet Burl Biggs at home, as he is expected to come for a seven days furlough. Mr. Burl Biggs did not get the furlough and will probably come next Sunday.

RECEIVES NOTICE OF PENSION.

From Tuesday's Daily. Judge M. Archer as attorney for pension claims, has received word from Washington from the pension department, of the allowance of a pension to Mrs. Emaline Brown of Murray, a widow of Wm. A. Brown of that city, dating April 29th, at the rate of $25.00 per month. Mr. Archer has been very successful in the arranging for the payment of pension claims.

CALVES TAKEN UP.

Strayed, four spring calves, taken up on my farm, 4 miles northwest of Murray. Owner can have property by proving ownership and paying expenses. C. F. DeJung.

MASHES HAND THIS MORNING.

From Tuesday's Daily. While employed in the Burlington shops this morning, where he was working as a carpenter on the repairing of box cars, Jack Neitzel had the misfortune to have an end post of a box car fall on his hand with the result that the member was mashed badly. The end of the post caught the fleshy portion of the left hand just on the edge tearing the flesh away, and making a bad incision. The Burlington physician dressed the wound, and Jack is destined to take an enforced lay-off for some time.

BYRON ARRIES REPORTED WELL

ANOTHER LETTER FROM HIM TELLS OF HIS BEING WELL FROM THE WOUND.

From Tuesday's Daily. A. M. Arries received a letter from his son Byron today in which he tells of being well from the wound received, and is receiving some much needed rest, and will be in condition shortly to return to the camp of the fighters. A letter from Don also tells of having a letter from Byron and tells of his brother having a slight wound. These are gladly received, as they are a means of relieving the minds of their folks and friends from apprehension. Don had asked a pass to go to his brother but the exigencies of war, precluded the issuance. It is expected that while Byron is off he may be given a pass to visit with Don.

Not alone are the parents and relatives of Mr. Byron Arries pleased to know of his getting along so well but his host of friends here and elsewhere.

HOME GUARDS WILL PUT ON DRILL

From Thursday's Daily. One invitation of the management of the Old Settlers Association at Union, the Home Guards of this place will put on a drill, at the picnic on Saturday the last day of the picnic, at five in the evening. The Home Guards of this city are well trained and a bunch of boys, who are in the matter because their hearts are right, and they are desirous of doing what they can in this time of stress. Not only are they trained to maneuver, and the act the part of soldiers, but they are right in all matters of citizenship. The Home Guards as organized in this county are capable of doing much active service if they should be called upon for such service. The matter of their training is only the better workings as they are in position to work as a unit, not alone as a military body, but as a compact organization of citizenry, which will make their influence felt for the right in any matter which may arise.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.

From Thursday's Daily. The returns of the election have been very slow in coming and it was not possible for the paper to have an abstract of the vote cast yesterday. We will try and have the same for the readers by tomorrow. We have seen enough to insure that Morehead has carried the county by a good majority for the position of U. S. Senator and Governor Neville again is nominated for Governor.

With W. B. Banning for lieutenant governor on the democratic ticket, while on the republican ticket Ross Hammond seems to have carried the county for U. S. Senator, McKelvie for Governor and P. A. Barrows for lieutenant governor.

SAYS THE WEST IS VERY WET.

From Tuesday's Daily. George Kroeger and H. F. Englekemeier who have been in the western portion of the state for the past week arrived in this city this morning and report that the weather has been so wet out there that threshing has been retarded, and the lagoons which abound in that section are filled with water. They saw yesterday morning T. L. Amick and Fred Haffke who are looking over the country out there, and who went to Cheyenne yesterday morning to look after some business, but expect to return home soon.

PAY TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER DEAD

FIRST TO ENLIST FROM THIS CITY, AFTER STATE OF WAR DECLARED TO EXIST.

FIRST OF OUR BOYS TO DIE.

Was Eager To Do For His Country And For the Cause of Humanity.

From Monday's Daily. Eight hundred people of this city assembled yesterday afternoon to pay tribute to the honor of Edward C. Ripple Jr., who was the first American soldier to die in France from Plattsmouth. The meeting was begun by the invocation of the mercies, and blessing of Almighty God on this Nation and this people, and was reverently listened to by the people standing with bowed heads to the will of the Father.

Following was a violin solo by Miss Agnes Knoflieck, which for pathos and touching tenderness, was very expressive in telling of the virtues and graces of character of the one whom the people had assembled to honor. Following was the reading of the eulogy of the departed by Judge Begley, who par-took of his history, his ideas of loyalty to government, to home, to friends and how he interpreted the encroachment on the liberties of the world by autocracy. The article paid a tribute to the character, and action, of this young man, who the narrative said has paid the debt which this country was owing to Lafayette, when he gave his life in generous gratitude to the French Republic in its hour of need. This young man, in the flush of that life, which he gave for the cause he loved, was just on the threshold of that greater and broader life of service to humanity, placed all upon the altar, and paid in full the life of his for the liberty of his country and mankind.

The reading of this tribute was received with manifestation of it being in accord with the ideas of all the people. D. C. York following, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Touchingly was the words of the song rendered, and the fullness of the meaning was much impressed on all who heard the song. Then followed the address by Dr. S. P. Cresap of Nebraska City, in which he paid tribute to the man and memory of the young hero, who has with him taken seven others to fight for his country. The reviewing of the later history of the war, showed, how the war was forced upon us. The Star Spangled Banner was sung by the audience, after which Rev. McCluskey dismissed the assemblage.

DECISION IN THE BETTS CASE.

From Tuesday's Daily. The matter of the case of Betts vs. Betts, wherein Wm. Betts sued for a separation from his wife, Lelia, which held the boards for a few days at the time of trial, was handed down this morning by Judge Begley in which the decree of divorce was given to Mr. Betts, with custody of the children, and that he was to pay in alimony $3,000.00 and $500.00 in attorney's fees, while a certain deed which he had given her in settlement was set aside. The defendant is given forty days in which to prepare and file a bill of exceptions.

RUBBLE CAR RUNS OVER FOOT.

From Tuesday's Daily. While working on the repair track at the Burlington shops last evening F. D. Daniels, had the left foot run over by a rubble car loaded with material for the use of workmen who were employed on the tracks. The weight of the load and the car was sufficient to badly bruise and mash the foot, and Mr. Daniels is compelled to resist from working until the foot is well again. He is getting around with the assistance of a cane, but is not making much of an out even at that.

BURGLARS ENTER SHINING PARLOR

ENTRANCE MADE THROUGH REAR DOOR, $28.40 TAKEN ALSO 1,000 CIGARETTES.

From Monday's Daily. After midnight Saturday night, or rather Sunday morning, someone entered the shining parlor of Sam Canos, and relieved him of $28.40 and a quantity of cigarettes. The key had been kept in the lock and some one evidently who knew had made entrance by boring holes through the panel of the rear door, until large enough to allow their hands to slip through when they turned the key, and opened the door. They found the money in the desk sitting near the door, and then appropriated the smokes. The hole was small and it required a small hand to be able to get it through. The work is supposed to have been done by local talent. The matter of a lot of young boys loafing about a business place with nothing to do, and not working is a menace to any business and to society. The place for a young man is at home, unless he is employed. This is another of the numerous instances of this kind, which has happened lately. It looks like this matter of these petty burglaries should be cleared up. If no other way, the blood hounds might indicate who the culprits are. As it is, it is a menace to all business men, and no one feels safe in his belongings, whether valuables or money. It is high time it should be stopped.

HEARS FROM BYRON ARRIES

PARENTS RECEIVE TWO LETTERS AND CARD YESTERDAY TELLING HIS CONDITION.

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Arries received 2 letters from their son Byron, telling about the wound which he received while in action on the western front in France on July 20th, the first letter was written on July 23, and says the wound is slight, and that he hoped to be back in the fight in a few days. He said we sure have the Helmies on the run now. The second letter was written six days later on the 29th of July, and tells of his having been removed to a base hospital, where he is being treated. He seems impatient that he should be kept from returning to the front where the fighting is going on. While the wound is one not of a serious nature, as stated by Byron himself, and while he expected soon to be well, the people there are caring for all wounds very carefully, than the trouble with them may be kept down to the minimum. This is one proper way thereby the recovering is made at an earlier date, and more sure when it has recovered.

HE SEES MUCH OF COUNTRY

Been in the Trenches, Now On a Scouting Detachment, Likes It Better.

GLENNE ELLIOTT WRITES HOME

A VERY INTERESTING LETTER FROM GLEN ELLIOTT WHO IS NOW IN FRANCE.

HE SEES MUCH OF COUNTRY

Been in the Trenches, Now On a Scouting Detachment, Likes It Better.

From Tuesday's Daily. July 20th, 1918.

Dear Mother: I received your welcome letters, one today and one yesterday, and I shall try and answer them tonight. I am well and feeling fine, and have been ever since I have been here. I am not with Company F any more. I am on detached service, with the 2nd Battalion Scouts. I went into the trenches with Company F, about three weeks ago, June 26th and saw a little action. It was a quiet sector though, so there was not much fighting. We were back to the rest camp for about two weeks, then we were sent up here to another quiet sector. This time I am with the scouts so I don't have to stay up in the trenches. We are billeted back behind the lines in a deserted French village which is much nicer than the trenches. I have been out on a few patrols into "No Man's Land" and I rather enjoyed the game. There is not nearly so much danger in it as you might suppose and I like it much better than living in the trenches all of the time.

We have guard or fatigue work to do, we get much more sleep than the men in the trenches. I have seen a lot of country since I have been over here as we seldom remain in one place very long. We hike a lot with all of our equipment on our back, and ride in side door sleeper, (box cars) and trucks if we are going far or are in a hurry to get to a certain place. I am rather like the fellow whose letter is in the Journal. I don't enjoy the scenery when traveling full speed as it is a weary old grind up the said scenic hills, and let me tell you France has many such hills too. One of the fellows in the scouts said he didn't mind hiking at all while going through towns, where there are lots of pretty girls to wave at him, but that he got awfully tired, as soon as he hits the country. I'll admit that does help some but as there is so much more of the country than of the towns it don't go very far. The French people always give us a hearty reception where we go, and do lots of little things for our comfort. The French soldiers too are a jolly set and we have lots of fun with them, trying to talk to them. Occasionally I run across one who can talk a little and we manage to get along fairly well.

Well I must close for this time, with much love,

Your son,
GLEN.

Address: Pvt. Earl G. Elliott, 2nd Battalion Scouts 61st Inf. A. E. F. via New York.

Mr. Meisinger was there about seven years ago and which made it forty years from the time of his departure. In the case of Mrs. Meisinger it is now forty-seven years, and many changes will have taken place during that time.

Are you already for Chase county Sunday evening? We are going again Sunday evening, and would like to have you go along. There is some good land for sale in this county at the right price. See W. E. Rosencrans about the trip.

From Thursday's Daily. Mrs. J. H. Cotner, and two daughters Miss Mae, and Jessie, who have been in the northwest for the past two weeks, where they have been visiting with Mr. Cotner and seeing the country, returned home last evening. They were very favorably impressed with the country out there and found it delightfully cool and bracing. They have been most of the time at Sheridan, Wyoming, from which it took twenty hours continuous traveling to reach Lincoln. They complain of the weather feeling very oppressive here in coming back.

REPORTED AMONG THE MISSING

CRABILL BLOCK SOLD YESTERDAY

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday witnessed the transfer of the two buildings, or rather one which is occupied by Avard & McLean and Frank Foreman, the realtor J. P. Falter getting the property. The consideration being $10,000.00.

This is a good piece of property, and keeps occupied, both upstairs and down at a good rental. In fact the rentals has been very moderate and the places are well located and good places for business.

Mr. Crabill having acquired the places through a trade from Kansas lands, and has kept the property in good condition for renting, and has during his ownership thereof found it a good business proposition. Just at this time he has found where he could use the money at a good advantage and so accepts the offer for disposing of the property.
