HOLD VERY INTERESTING MEETING

THE WAR SAVINGS SOCIETIES OF THIS VICINITY LISTEN TO AN ADDRESS.

PATRIOTS LISTEN TO ADDRESS

K. A. Finlayson Speaks Very Entertainingly, and is Listened to With Interest.

From Thursday's Daily.

Last evening three gentlemen, K. A. Finlayson, H. Green and C. E. Wray all of Omaha, arrived for the meeting of the war saving society, and were entertained by Mr. C. C. Parmele, before the big meeting. The city band dispersed excellent music before the meeting, in the court of the high school, and assisted in this advertising the meeting. To the members of the band is due the thanks of the citizens and of the committee having the matter in hand, for their kindness in this regard. At the hour for the meeting the assemblage was called to order by E. H. Wescott who spoke very entertainingly, regarding the meeting and explaining the object of the meeting calling attention to the fact that it was in its inception due to the efforts of the president of the society of school district number 28, Mr. Monte Straight.

In speaking of the accommodations which they had for the meeting last evening Mr. Wescott referred to the new High School which is just now nearing completion, saying "That we will soon have the best assembly room in the state of Nebraska. In the matter of High School property." The meeting was opened by the singing of "America."

Mr. Wescott introduced the speaker of the evening Mr. K. A. Finlayson, who made an elegant address, filled with good advice, dealing with pertinent facts, some of which were new to the people, regarding the conduct of the War Saving Societies. Among other things he said, "We must Americanize America," that is, put out and expel all things which in their tendency are disloyal in spirit and in fact. He said "It does not matter so much who started this war, we are in it and the vital question is who is going to end this war. I say that America is going to end it and that we will end it in Berlin."

After his address the audience sang with a spirit the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." He was followed by C. E. Wray, who made but a short address and used his time for answering knotty problems, and making them thoroughly understood. The meeting was concluded by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

ORPHANAGE CHILDREN HERE AGAIN

From Thursday's Daily.

Mrs. Mable S. Smith who is the matron of the Eastern Star Orphanage, and who has the children at Fremont for the summer, returned a few days since, and has gotten straightened around at the Orphanage here again. The children and Mrs. Smith are glad to get back to Plattsmouth and the home here as it affords better freedom and a more comfortable place than the one at Fremont.

LIEUTENANT WURL COMES HOME

GETS A SEVEN DAY FURLOUGH FOR SHORT VISIT WITH HIS FAMILY.

TO BE STATIONED AT CAMP DIX

Has Seen Many Experiences, With Real Army Service In France.

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon Otto Wurl, who has been in France for a number of months with his regiment, and where he was in a number of battles and has seen extensive training as well as intensive training also, arrived in this city for a short furlough with his family. After the many schools to which he has been sent were completed and the examination had been passed, he was told to make up his baggage for a trip to the United States, and away he came. He was told that he would be stationed at Camp Dix, N. J., but he only surmised that he is to be a special instructor. As we saw him step off the train here on his arrival from the east, we thought it is an example of the fine physique, of the firm young athlete of the abounding health, of the indomitable courage, of the sunny disposition, and of the true Americanism, and the absolute truthness of purpose, of all the Americans, and we take this as an example of the American army, the question of the reason of the success of our armies abroad is eloquently told. We see in the millions of the Americans, as they go about doing the business of this great nation in that far away land, the ready solution of this war problem. We are assured that this class of Americans and American spirit and moral, will put an end to this butchery of the bushes ere the year shall have waned.

IS BUILDING A SILO.

From Thursday's Daily.

Yesterday S. E. Wixson living near Old Rock Bluffs was in the city for a short time returning from Lincoln, where he went to purchase a shredder for use in cutting ensilage for a new silo which he is building. He will have the machine on the street next Saturday on its arrival from Lincoln, and will demonstrate its capacity for shredding fodder. He will building a large silo, and will have the lower portion extended into the ground as deep as he can go without striking water, and cement the portion under the ground. He is also going to dig a well on his farm as he is getting a little short of water.

VISITS AT THE BAYLOR HOME

H. M. SOENNICHSEN AND W. E. ROSENCRANS VISITS AT THE BAYLOR HOME.

WITHIN SIGHT FIRES PEAK.

Have Pleasant Visit With Former Plattsmouth Citizens in the West.

From Friday's Daily.

H. M. Soennichsen and W. E. Rosencrans were visitors at Imperial where they were looking after some land matters, and after the business was over, they concluded they would take a trip over into Colorado. Mr. Soennichsen was well pleased with the country around Imperial and all of Chase county, and thinks the country good for general farming. Mr. Rosencrans and Mr. Soennichsen secured a car and departed for Colorado, going southwest where they landed at Bovina, Colorado. Here they found the family of John F. Gorder enjoying a good visit. They found Mr. Baylor and family well satisfied with the country and doing well. They have a section of land of their own and a lease of another section of School land, and thus making them 1250 acres, they have plenty to look after. They have wheat, corn, beans and are well satisfied with their new home. Mrs. Harry Reese and son Guy Reese also are there, and are farming and also doing well. Mr. Soennichsen in describing the land said that Mr. Baylor has his house on an elevation, with a valley running up to the house and making an elegant location for a home as four towns can be plainly seen from the house. In the distance when the air is clear, one can see the snow capped rocky mountains and Pikes Peak is plainly nestling just above the horizon. The place is ideal. After having a good visit the two gentlemen returned to Imperial with the car and taking the train arrived home yesterday morning. John F. Gorder and family who were visiting there with a Chandler car started on their return trip yesterday.

Lame Shoulder.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles. All that is needed is absolute rest and a few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it.
