AT ALL TIMES TRUE AND RELIABLE. "I can say that I am much better in health since I started to use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. I could hardly get out of bed and my appetite was gone, and I could sleep but very little. I was also nervous and constipated. I had been sickly for 20 years, and can say that Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine has extended my life ten years," so wrote us Mrs. Th. Bjarnson on August 12, 1918, from Springville, Utah. And her sentiments are those of thousands of other Triner customers. It is a matter of fact; Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the most reliable remedy for all stomach troubles, constipation, indigestion, headaches, nervousness, general weakness, etc. At drug stores. $1.10. Triner's Lintiment is another remedy which at all times tests true and reliable. Try it for rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sprains, swellings, etc. At drug stores 35 and 65c. By mail 45 and 75c. Joseph Triner Company, 1232-1242 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. J. M. Roberts departed this morning for Aurora, where he will look after some business for the day and will also visit with friends.

CLARENCE BEAL GOT A TRIP HOME From Monday's Daily. Clarence Beal arrived in this city last Saturday afternoon for a short stay in the old town, and is looking strong as an ox and as hearty as you please. When he alighted from the train and grasped us by the hand like a vice, and the smile layed around the corners of his mouth we thought, a good red blooded American boy back to see the folks for a short time before he goes to do his utmost for the cause of humanity. Drilling in the sun has given him a different complexion than when he was in the court house, but the same determination to do his portion good and well for the cause of humanity. We know what these American boys will do and what they are doing, now over there in rolling up that sheet of humanity, know as the hosts of the hoes. WAS BURIED YESTERDAY. From Monday's Daily. Mrs. Mary Badaecker was born in Austria, 1837 and died at the Old Peoples Home at Hastings Friday last.
