

LOCAL NEWS

From Thursday's Daily.
 Mark White from south of Rock Bluffs was a visitor in this city this afternoon.
 Henry Theirolf was a visitor in this city this morning from his home near Cedar Creek.
 G. Gauer was looking after some business in this city this morning from his home west of Cedar Creek.
 James M. Teagarden of Weeping Water was in the city today to attend the meeting of the Council of Defense.
 P. A. Hill from west of Mynard was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some business for the day.
 Walter Sans of South of Rock Bluffs was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some business for the day.
 W. H. Heil of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city this morning coming to look after some business for the day.
 Henry Creamer from near Murray was a visitor in this city this morning, coming to look after some business at the court house.
 J. A. Box of near Elmwood was a visitor in the city this morning, coming over in his car to look after some business at the court house.
 Mrs. Charles McGuire who has been visiting at the home of relatives at Gretna for the past few days returned home last evening.
 Jesse Vallery from west of Mynard was a visitor in this city this afternoon looking after some business in the city also at the court house.
 Emil Sturzenegger of South Bend was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, having some business matters at the office of the county clerk.
 Louis and George Hennings were in the city this afternoon coming to look after some business at the court house from their home near Cedar Creek.
 Harvey H. Harger from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city this morning, having some business matters to look after at the court house.
 Jacob Lohnes was a visitor in this city this morning from his home at Louisville, and was looking after some matters at the court house.
 August Pansha and Emil Meyers both from near Louisville were in the city this morning looking after some business and visiting with their friends in the city.
 John G. Clark was a visitor in this city this morning from his home in Elmwood, driving over in his car, and was transacting some business at the court house.
 Attorney Dale Boyles of Alvo was in the city this morning coming over to meet with the county council of defense which is holding session at the court house today.
 James Terryberry was a visitor in this city from his home south of Cedar Creek, and was looking after some matters at the court house and transacting some business in the city.
 Lloyd Lewis and sister Mrs. Earl Merritt, and Mrs. Ed Lewis from near Union was in the city this afternoon doing some trading and looking after some other business matters.
 C. S. Stone of Elmwood, a member and officer of the County Council of Defense was in the city this morning, coming to meet with that organization, which is holding a session here today.
 Iowa is contributing her share to the swelling of the attendance at the state fair, from the number of heavily loaded cars which passed through this city this morning destined to that place.
 Wm. Schneider was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning from his home at Cedar Creek, coming down in his car to look after some matters at the court house and also to attend to some business in the city.
 Orlando Tefft of Avoca was a visitor in Plattsmouth today, coming to look after some business in the city and to meet with the county council of defense, of which he is a member, at the court house today.
 Wm. Keckler and Dan Burke, both from near Manley were in the city this afternoon looking after some business, were also attending to some matters at the court house, having driven over in Mr. Keckler's car.
 Mrs. Anna Ludwig and son Henry of near Avoca, departed this afternoon for Lake Wilson, Minn., where they go to visit with a sister of Mrs. Ludwig, Mrs. John Heintz. They will be away for about ten days or two weeks.
 L. F. Langhorst of Elmwood, the president of the county council of defense was over this morning to meet with the Council of Defense, who are having some very interesting matters to dispose of at their session.

 J. M. Meisinger from west of Mynard was a visitor in this city this morning and was accompanied by Mrs. Meisinger who was visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Micin, while John was looking after some business in the city.
 Miss Ellen Windham was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon where she goes to visit at the hospital with her little niece Miss Janet Windham who is there receiving treatment but whose condition is considered as being very serious.
 T. J. Rhoden and wife and daughter and Mrs. Don Rhoden were visitors in Omaha yesterday going there on the early train via the Mo. Pac., and returning to this place on the evening train last night and going from here to their home at Murray in a car.
 J. R. Noyes of Louisville was a visitor in this city this afternoon, coming to look after some business at the court house, and was accompanied by Frank Hiber and R. H. Newell, they returning after having attended to their business matters in the car of Mr. Noyes.
 Jean Mason and family arrived home a few days since from a three weeks visit at Burns, Kansas, where they were spending the time visiting at the home of John Mason and family. They tell of it being very dry there and the crops not very good, still they enjoyed the visit greatly.
 S. H. Shumaker and Wm. Stark-John were seeing the sights at the state fair today, having gone there on the early Burlington train this morning, where they will admire the big pumpkins and watch the demonstration of farm machinery and may be attend a picture show on improved road making.
 Mrs. Watson Long, living west of Mynard departed this morning for Bedford, Iowa, where she will visit with her sister Mrs. A. J. Brown for some time, and was accompanied by another sister Mrs. J. W. Hubbell of Henderson, Oklahoma, who has been visiting at the Long home for the past two weeks. They will visit at Bedford for the remainder of the week.
 From Friday's Daily.
 Mrs. L. C. Lyle and children who have been visiting at Greenwood for some days past returned home this afternoon.
 Wm. Wegner of near Louisville was a visitor in this city this morning coming down to look after some matters in the city.
 Charles McReynolds from south of Murray was a visitor in Plattsmouth this afternoon where he is looking after some business at the court house.
 C. F. Harris from near Union was in the city last evening coming to look after some business at the court house and also to transact some matters in the city.
 Martin Bornemeier from southwest of Murdock was in the city last evening coming to look after some business for the day at the office of the county attorney.
 John Barnard of Louisville but formerly of this city, has just moved here from Louisville and will make this his home in the future. He will engage in work in the Burlington shops.
 Charles Bestor the harness maker and auto mechanic for the John F. Gorder firm was a passenger this morning for Lincoln, where he is attending the state fair, and looking over the new styles of machinery and automobiles, with their appliances.
 John McDaniel arrived from Glenwood this morning and told of the fifty-four of the Mills county boys departing. The city had the boys as guests and royally entertained them with shows, entertainments and a grand ball, with refreshments and a bounteous dinner, and a large supper, given by the Red Cross.
 Last evening James Speck arrived in the city with a car load of stock for Morris Lloyd, who has been living on a farm of his father at Grant, but which he has sold and purchased another near Nelawka. Morris and wife were departing from Grant to this place, a few days since, but on account of the continued rain and extreme mud, may have not gotten away when they intended but is expected here any time.
 From Saturday's Daily.
 James Long of Murray was in the city last evening looking after some business for a few hours.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heil Jr., and children Edna and Glenn came in from Cedar Creek to do some shopping.
 James Delles Denier and son Ivan from south of Murray, were in the city last evening looking after some business at the court house.
 Wm. Wegner and C. E. Noyes of Louisville were looking after some business in Plattsmouth this morning driving down with their car.

 J. M. Jordan of near Cedar Creek was a business visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, coming to see about some business for the morning.
 John Shipley of LaPlatte was a visitor in this city this morning visiting with his son Harvey Shipley and looking after some business.
 John and James Tigner from west of Murray were in the city this morning looking after some business in the city, and transacting some business.
 Robert Leland who has been visiting here for the past few days after returning from Long Pine, departed this afternoon for a short visit at Omaha.
 Henry Eikenberry, who is confined to his home southwest of the city, is feeling just about as he has been with practically no change in his condition.

 Last evening Lambert Lister departed for Danbury, which is in the southwestern portion of the state, where he has some lands and which he is going to look after.
 Henry Heil Jr., and wife with their little son were in the city last evening doing some trading with the merchants, returning to their home near Cedar Creek last evening.
 Morris Lloyd and wife arrived home last night near midnight from the west portion of the state, where they have been farming during the past summer, and are returning here to live.
 Mrs. Julius Ragoss and Mrs. Henry Ahl of Louisville, were in town on business and called at the Journal office and renewed their subscription for the Plattsmouth Journal.
 A letter from Roy Lamphear who has been at the Great Lakes training station tells of his arrival at Newport News, Virginia, where he will soon enter into active duty as a fireman in the navy.

 Mrs. Henry Ahl and Mrs. Julius Ragoss were visiting in this city from Louisville for the day, coming down on the morning train to do some trading and to visit with friends in the city.
 Ora Davis and wife and Mrs. D. J. Pitman and Mrs. E. S. Tutt were up last evening from their home in Murray, looking after some business for a while in this city, returning home later in the evening.
 Don Brown and wife of Griswold, Iowa, arrived in the city last evening driving their car, and will visit for a few days at the home of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. S. E. Hall of South Park.
 Louis Rheinaele was a visitor in this city today, coming from his home near Murray to look after some business, and to do some trading. He tells of some improvement in Uncle Ben Beckman who has been such for several weeks.

 W. H. Moore departed this morning for Omaha, where he is looking after some business for the morning after which he goes to Lincoln having some matters there to attend to, and then departing for Joplin, Mo., where he is interested in some lead mines.
 Mrs. Henry Mauzy and two daughters Mrs. T. J. Todd of Kearney, who is visiting here and Miss Marion Mauzy, were passengers to Omaha this morning where they are visiting for the day with friends. Mrs. Todd and son Henry will depart tomorrow for their home at Kearney.
 Archie Chrisinger arrived in the city last evening from Cheyenne, where he has been employed on a farm or rather a ranch, during the summer, and has just quit his position, and was visiting in this city with his old time friends, and will go to Omaha today to visit with his parents N. W. Chrisinger and wife.

 Miss Anna Rummerhardt, who has been visiting in this city for some three weeks, the guest at the home of her mother's schoolmate, Mrs. L. B. Egenberger, departed this morning for Rock Island where she will visit for some time before she shall return to her home at Iowa City, to enter the state university at that place.
 Misses Huelah and Rose Born and Master Ross Born, children of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Born, of near McCook, who have been visiting in this city for some time past, guests at the home of Mrs. L. C. Cannon their grandmother, departed for their home this afternoon, where they expect to begin the school year the first of the week.
 Flags at the Journal Office.

Absolutely Puncture Proof!

1. Why buy Tires that will puncture as easily as your bare foot?
2. Why buy Tires that are as easily cut as your bare foot?
3. Why buy Tires that are liable to blow out at any time?
4. Why buy Tires that will rim cut?
5. Why buy Tires that are injured when run on oiled roads?
6. Why buy Tires on which chains must be used?
7. Why buy Tires that are worthless when the rubber treads are worn off?
8. Why buy Tires that are injured by gasoline?
9. Why buy Tires that will peel when in ruts?

How would YOU like to have Tires on which the treads and side walls could easily be renewed by YOURSELF in your own garage at ONE-FOURTH the original cost and get 5,000 to 10,000 MORE miles without a puncture? The Bricton Guaranteed 10,000-Mile Pneumatic Tire is puncture proof, blow-out proof, rut proof, oil proof, gasoline proof, rim-cut proof, with a one-fourth renewal feature—and is the ANSWER to the above nine questions.

CAN YOU DO THIS WITH YOUR TIRES?

Let us send you one of these WONDERFUL Tires and allow you to run it on your OWN car at OUR expense, without any obligation on your part whatever. Give it the worst test you can—run it over a glass bottle if you choose. DON'T SEND US A CENT—We want you to be ABSOLUTELY satisfied before you pay us.

Exclusive Distributors Wanted in Each Territory for Our Full Line

Only one distributor wanted in each territory—Remember what the Ford agencies meant to those who were fortunate enough to get in at the start.

Bricton Mfg Co.

DEPARTMENT 106-98

1015-24 W. O. W. Bld'g.
 Omaha, Nebraska

Contract Dept. 106-98. The Bricton Mfg. Company, 1015-24 W. O. W. Bldg., Omaha, Neb. Dear Sirs: I am interested in your distributors proposition. Without any obligation on my part, please send me particulars explaining your proposition. NAME _____ Address _____

DISTRIBUTOR'S COUPON
 If There Is No Dealer in Your Territory, Mail This Coupon.
 Dept. 106-98, Bricton Mfg. Co., 1015-24 W. O. W. Bldg., Omaha, Neb. Dear Sirs: Without obligation, please send me full particulars about your PUNCTURE PROOF 10,000 miles guaranteed Tires. Size of my tires _____ Style of my rims _____ NAME _____ Address _____